The Clerk reported that she had received one quotation for the proposed tree work and was in the process of obtaining further quotes. Members asked the clerk to submit a TPO application, so work could go ahead as soon as permission had been received.
2025-48	To consider adopting the council's Governance Action Plan The council resolved unanimously to adopt the council's Governance Action Plan.
2025-49	To consider adopting the Risk Register The council resolved unanimously to adopt the council's Risk Register.
2025-50	To consider a) quotations received to provide all members with a .gov.uk email addresses as per the councils previous decision: 4/0603 – Members discussed the benefits of having a .gov domain name. RESOLVED: The council agreed to follow best practice and retrieve costs for changing to a .gov domain name and include an email address for all Cllrs. b) And to consider upgrading the council's website at the same time, ensuring it will be compliant with WCAG 2.2 guidelines. Members discussed the merits of .gov.uk email addresses at length and reviewed the quotations received. Councillors asked if there were any hidden "extras" that would need to be paid for. Cllr Bonsall proposed to go back to the provider recommended by the clerk to obtain confirmation of the cost. If any additions would mean no more than a £550 cost overall, the clerk should go ahead to place the order for both new .gov.uk emails in the Warsop-pc.gov.uk domain for all staff and members and a new website on the same domain. The proposal was carried with a majority of the votes.	SAPP Guide 2025
