

BEST OF BRITISH

Warsop Carnival 4th & 5th July 2009

With all the doom and gloom of the recession we've decided we need to forget all about it and celebrate what we have got in this country to be proud of.

For this reason the theme for Warsop Carnival 2009 is 'Best of British'. Our float entries for the parade will be invited to match this theme, maybe they'll focus on British History, Famous Britons, British Landmarks or even British Inventions.

Whatever they decide, we hope that you'll cheer them on by waving your free Union Jack that will be handed out along the parade route. For those of you who might think we're being politically incorrect or even racist because we're celebrating just Britishness, I would ask that you think again.

Britain is a multi-cultural nation and one of the things we should be proud of... besides we went totally multicultural last year - so this year we're focusing a little more 'locally'. The carnival will be a time for the whole parish to come together and think 'baloney to the recession... we're great!'

In a change to previous years we are experimenting with a different format this year. We all need to be a little bit more money conscious in today's economic climate and the carnival committee is no exception. Each year the bill to stage the carnival is approximately £20,000. Money to pay for it is generated through fundraising events, donations from the councils and other organisations, grant applications and the car parking and street collection revenues from the day.

A big chunk of the cost for the carnival is for the main arena entertainment and acts, many of which cost several thousand pounds. Last year all of the shows were affected by the weather and either didn't perform at all or did a scaled down version of their shows. We still had to pay the full bill though!

The committee feel it is vitally important that we do not 'waste' money and have decided to remove the large main arena shows of the past, but will still keep firm local favourites such as the Tudor dancers (if available) and hopefully Spotlight Studios.

Instead of the larger shows however, we hope to provide a range of other entertaining attractions housed inside marquees that you can visit and explore at your leisure... if it rains again... it won't matter! More details of what you can expect to see and do during carnival weekend (4th and 5th July) will be revealed in future articles.

All that is left to say for now is to thank everybody who turned up last year despite the weather and we look forward to seeing you all again on the 4th & 5th July.

EDITORS LETTER

Another month gone and I'm still moaning about the weather, can you believe gale force icy cold winds and frosts? (I'm writing this on 9th March) Just when we thought it was spring!

My daffodils have taken a battering and my crocuses have lost the will to survive, a bit like me! I just hope it picks up for Easter and we have a few nice days to enjoy.

I'll be trying to enjoy my break in Scotland. Not much to report this month, except the new Library will be open when you read this and so will Spencers.

Have a lovely Easter.

Your Garden in April

The next four weeks are the busiest of the gardening year, it should be done and be seen to be done, perhaps the most satisfactory in that every little task completed has an air of finality; a job, we hope, well done.

In the flower borders, any division of plants not already done must be completed without delay. Small portions will provide better and more manageable clumps than a mass of less vigorous shoots. Flowering plants generally give generous blooming without need for a rich soil; but a little top-dressing of Growmore will add quality to the flowers. Trays of seedlings of bedding plants will now be ready for pricking off, spacing about 2 inches apart. Towards the end of the month, many may be hardened off in frame or sheltered spot. There are still two months to go before the more tender kinds can be transplanted in the borders; sometimes following wallflowers which are late to bloom.

There is still time to sow seeds of the more frost-prone kinds which are quick growing like French Marigolds; hardy annuals are not so frequently used today as formerly when they filled vacant gaps in cottage gardens. They are most useful and in great variety, whether for garden decoration or cut flowers. Several of the hardier sorts will self-seed and, incidentally, smother the unwelcome weeds; perhaps a lazy way, but effective.

Dandelions and other unwelcome lawn weed now make their appearance. Selective weed killers can be used for large lawns and for those who use them but for small lawns and few weeds in number, a knife blade will maintain control. A light application of fertilizer may result in more mowing but will certainly create a greener sward. If you leave grass cuttings after mowing, they take nitrogen into the soil as they break down. Alternatively, rake in well-rotted, friable compost to add nitrogen and potassium in spring.

The weather at the time of writing is going to get colder again so beware in April where and what you sow. The aim should always be to ensure that seedlings germinate quickly without a check, sowing for succession is important. One of the great values of home produce is that young and succulent vegetables can be available. Avoid a glut, which is wasteful. You can make sure there is no waste by spreading the sowing of seeds. This can be avoided by forward planning work to a rotation, say three years; potatoes, roots and brassicas. Small nursery beds are a necessity whether for vegetables or bedding plants. This month should see the completion of sowings of summer, autumn and winter brassicas. Whatever seeds are sown must be sown thinly. Unnecessary thinning out encourages the ravages of insect pests.

Make sure that bush fruits are cottoned against the ravages of sparrows and finches. Black cotton should be used. As soon as the early peas begin to peep, a single thread of cotton each side of the row will deter the birds. When the peas are rodded, it is good practice to cotton - about two strands each side - as sparrows find the leaves and flower buds tasty food for the youngsters. A newspaper flag on a cane will frighten sparrows and even doves. Even an old DVD disc tied to it rotates in the wind; its flashing playing side will keep them off. It is surprising what wrinkles a gardener keeps up his sleeve and stores up over the years.

From the time of Adam to the present day, tilling the soil has been a pleasant, pleasing, profitable, indeed essential occupation. The coming of spring renews in man the urge to sow and grow. The severe weather has caused much damage in the garden; therefore the first task is to assess its extent. Many herbaceous and shrubby plants have been seared by the frost. Carefully examine these and those undoubtedly dead be disposed of but careful examination will often reveal that, though growth be withered, there is life at the root. Prune these to ground level and most probably recover.

Always read the labels.

Sherwoods' School Dinner Delight

After 3 years of planning, Sherwood Junior School now has its very own state of the art kitchen.

In the Picture, left to right, Helen Shipley (cook), Maisie Hunt (pupil) and June Jackson.

Prior to the opening of the new £60,000 kitchen, the schools meals were shipped in each day from another kitchen in the middle of Mansfield.

The immediate impact has seen an increase in the numbers of children having school dinners.

The Head Teacher, Mr Mike Follen, said, "the school dinners were okay, but obviously now that they are cooked fresh on site and we have our very own cook – the quality has improved enormously."

Meden 2000 Comittee Disband

On Wednesday, February 26th, 2009, I attended a meeting of the Meden 2000 committee previously known as Welbeck in Bloom. In the 90's I started Welbeck in Bloom, it changed its name to Meden 2000 and has progressed ever since thanks to the hard work and time given by such devoted people. May I at this time express my sincere thanks to all members past and present, THANK YOU.

At this meeting, much to my disappointment and surprise, it was decided to disband as they thought all had been done that was needed to be done.

May I, at this time, take the opportunity to thank all members and residents for their very hard work and time given to this cause, THANK YOU. As I look around the village, I am proud of what we have achieved and done but very disappointed at the damage, etc, which has been done by vandals in the area, i.e. damage to the park and some furniture on the river walks. May I point out this was your money, donated by other charities for your village.

As we will be packing up, all left over money will be donated to the Meden Vale Charity Shop, still to be used in the village.

Dennis Priest – Meden Vale

Bird Notes

Hello again, to you the dear readers of this illustrious publication. Many thanks to all the people who expressed their concern over my recent bout of illness that meant my bird bit was missing from last months paper. Thanks to Tania for covering for me with that excellent R.S.P.B. article on nest boxes, very interesting it was too.

As I return to write this it is the second week of March and as many of you will remember, it is F.F.Freezing, with really quite strong, gusting west winds! However, by the time you read this the wind should have swung around and hopefully will be bringing nice, warm air up from way to the south-as well as helping to push along all those lovely summer migrants from Africa.

In truth, the yucky westerly winds that we were having will have aided the winter migrants that have been staying with us these past few months, on their journey back to the areas on the continent where they like to breed (usually to the north east or east of us).

As the sun's heat begins to shine more directly on northern Europe and begins the annual summer warming, as the plants and insects react to this extra light and heat and wake from their dormancy then the birds we haven't seen or heard since the beginning of autumn, start to appear and make themselves known.

The most commonly heard "herald of spring" is of course the cuckoo-by now you should be hearing the male's unmistakable call. I say unmistakable but every year people say to me that they have heard a cuckoo on their garden in January or February, I am sorry, but they are always either collared doves or wood pigeons-which both have the coo but usually don't give a cuck.

An easy species to see, and another "herald of spring" is the swallow. You can watch them to your hearts content, as they hawk for insects just above the surface of the water along the course of the river Meden. A particularly good stretch to see them is the straight bit that runs down to the top of the Mill Dam, there they will doubtless be joined by their cousins the house martin and the sand martin. A few minutes in the company of this group of species will soon have you understanding their subtle differences and adding them to your "birds that I can easily identify" list.

Now is a good time to check out the sky for birds of prey, we are particularly blessed locally, so keep an eye out. Consult your field guides (you should really have more than one) to help you out with your raptor identification, or better still consult a more experienced birdwatcher, who I'm sure would be more than happy to take you through, say, the vagaries of the under-wing pattern and colour permutations of the common buzzard. Good luck with that one!

Well-here's to a pleasant summer and I hope that you can find the time and the inclination to go out and see some birds. If you can't manage getting out and about too well, try and appreciate the birds that you can see around your house and in your garden.

P.S. Watch the cat when all those baby birds are about! Never pick baby birds up or move them (unless they're in the cat's mouth!)

Have a good one - Barrie Avison

WARSOP

Footpath & Countryside Group

The Sheriff of Nottingham is visiting our part of Sherwood Forest for the official opening of Thynghowe Trail on Saturday 25th April. The Friends of Thynghowe annual walk along the Warsop boundary will follow the opening.

We will meet at Budby Pumping Station at 10am and walk to the hill of Thynghowe, pausing at points of historical and ecological interest along the way. You are very welcome to attend but you will need to book in advance with the Forestry Commission by phoning 822447. There will be a charge of £2 that covers the cost of an information pack. Those who have attended these walks in the past have been amazed by the stories connected to the past of our countryside so why not come along, enjoy a walk and find out what all the fuss is about!

Last year I heard my first cuckoo of the year in Birklands on the 25th April so maybe a repeat appearance could feature on the Thynghowe walk. Cuckoo numbers have been in decline since the early 1980s possibly because the populations of some of its host species, such as Dunnock and Meadow Pipit, have also dropped. Decreases among British moths may have reduced food supplies for returning adults and they may also be suffering difficulties whilst migrating or whilst in tropical Africa during our winter.

This year the frogs in my pond spawned a week later than in the previous two years, one of many signs that spring has been getting off to a slow start following the cold spell during February. Hopefully things will be getting back on schedule by now and we can look forward to a finer summer than in 2008.

The AGM of the Warsop Footpaths and Countryside Group will take place on Tuesday 28th April at 7pm at Warsop Town Hall.

You are welcome to attend but please contact us on the number below to confirm details.

It is pleasing to see that Nottinghamshire County Council has erected some new footpath signs and waymark posts around Warsop. Some of the old signs had rotted at the base and others had been damaged. There are still several sites where signs are missing or need replacing but the council are aware of them. The Footpaths Group usually installs the waymark posts away from the main roads but we leave the erection of signposts where paths leave a road to the council.

The next Footpaths Group walk is on Saturday 18th April and is scheduled to be the Lathkilldale walk postponed from March. We will meet outside Warsop library at 9:15am, get in touch on the number below if you would like to join us.

Have you ever wondered what is involved in leading a group walk? Your chance to find out could be on our May walk when we are hoping to find somebody to lead their first walk. We will provide a route, support and a checklist in advance and promise to behave on the day! Contact us if you are interested.

John Fretwell Sporting Complex

Home of Welbeck Colliery Cricket Club
& Market Warsop Football Club

You'll be bowled over with the facilities on offer

The John Fretwell Sporting Complex is home to Welbeck Colliery Cricket Club, Market Warsop Football Club and a superb Bowling Green.

Situated on Sookholme road in Mansfield directly opposite the Hostess restaurant, the complex is currently entering its third year of existence and as such we, here at the complex, feel its time the local community learnt exactly what the complex has to offer. It is run and managed by the Warsop Sporting Trust and is governed by a board of voluntary trustees. The complex is a registered charity and the main aim of the complex is to offer first class sporting facilities to the local community.
We are a non profit making organization and any money generated by the trust goes directly toward maintaining and improving the facilities here for the benefit of the local community.

The complex boasts two cricket fields, two full size football pitches and a bowls green. Inside we have an indoor sports hall that doubles as a function room and lounge bar that can be utilized for conferencing and smaller private functions.
We are proudly home to Welbeck Colliery Cricket Club and Market Warsop Football Club and the venue provides a splendid atmosphere for sporting occasions. This summer at the complex we are hosting two Nottinghamshire County Cricket Club 2nd team fixtures with the aim of next season hosting a Nottinghamshire 1st class fixture which will be a great attraction for all the local community to support.

All of the facilities here are available for private hire and pictures of the function room are available to view on our website at www.w-s-t.co.uk. The function room has proved especially popular as a wedding venue and as a result of this popularity during the wedding season a marquee roof is installed with chandelier lighting to provide a fantastic venue for that special day. During the Christmas period this marquee roof is transformed into a starlit roof providing the perfect atmosphere for Christmas parties.

Keep your eyes peeled for forthcoming live entertainment here at the complex beginning on April the 17th with a live comedy night where three top quality comedians will be performing all on the same evening. These events will be happening once a month from April onwards and will be all ticket affairs. Tickets are priced at £10 and are available through the office on 01623 847468, book soon to avoid disappointment. Other events heading your way include Boyzaloud performing a tribute to Take That and West Life on May 15th, Robbie Williams meets Celine Dion evening
June 12th and an Amy Winehouse tribute on July 10th. Tickets for all these events are available now via the office.

For any enquiries whatever the occasion please contact us at the trust on 01623 847468, or alternatively visit our website at www.w-s-t.co.uk.

NUM Solicitors Found Guilty

Senior partners in Raleys Solicitors of Barnsley were today suspended for a period up to four years, and ordered to pay aging miners back the money Raleys had unfairly taken from their compensation.

Welcoming the decision John Mann MP, who has led the campaign against Raleys and other double charging solicitors, called for Raleys to take immediate action to pay back all the money taken from sick and dying miners.

Recalling the shocking case of Mrs Elizabeth Beckett who died seeking her late husband's money back, Mann comments: "Even a widow wanting to put up a headstone for her late husband was refused justice by these callous solicitors."

John Mann launched a protest with former miners three years ago outside Raleys' Barnsley offices.

Raleys have been paid nearly £80 million in fees for this work, much of which came from an 'exclusive contact' with the National Union of Mineworkers. The NUM agreed to send business through Raleys in return for an administrative fee taken from miners' compensation. Raleys failed to inform miners that if they used another law firm they wouldn't have had to pay the NUM's fee.

John Mann: "These men of straw lack any moral fibre and bloated with greed have lost any sense of decency. They should apologize to the mining communities of Northern England for their greed.
A four year suspension for Raleys chief Ian Firth is a fitting sentence." Other partners received suspensions or £10,000 fines.

Mann has referred the matter to the Serious Fraud Office and is further demanding that Raleys headquarters in Barnsley be handed over to the local community.

John Mann expects many more solicitors to be found guilty in the biggest scandal in British legal history.

Warsop Community News...

Inner wheel members enjoyed The "Memory Walk" at Hodsok Priory which raised £248 for this years' chosen charity - Alzheimer's.

Warsop Inner Wheel

President Lynne Goff welcomed 29 members to our meeting on Wednesday 4th March 2009 at the Hostess Restaurant, Sookholme, 10 apologies were received. President Lynne then opened the meeting by welcoming our own member, Jean Nock, who spoke to us about ARC, Arthritis Research Campaign, which is one of President Lynne's chosen charities. ARC is the major provider of funding for research into arthritis and related musculoskeletal diseases in the UK. Their aim is to advance the understanding, prevention and treatment of arthritis and associated rheumatic conditions in order to encourage the provision of improved clinical care for patients. Jean is a member of ARC, Ravenshead Branch, and she spoke to us about how they raised funds for research and how the money was used, she also brought many leaflets on research, treatments and medication for us to browse through at our leisure. More information can be found on their website: www.arc.org.uk

President Lynne reported February had been a quiet month but she had enjoyed, with many members and partners, the "Memory Walk" at Hodsok Priory with lunch afterward at the home of member, Ruth Ulliyott, this event had raised the sum of £248 for the Inner Wheel Association's chosen charity for this year - Alzheimer's. Jean Nock gave the secretaries report and informed everyone of forthcoming diary dates, including reminding everyone of the District Inner Wheel Rally which is to be held on 25th March at the Methodist Church, Chesterfield at 10.15 and afterwards at the Winding Wheel Chesterfield, 12.30pm. Nominations for Warsop Committee Members for 2009/2010 were agreed and signed. Also, nominations for the Executive Committee 2009/10 were agreed and signed. Anne Benison gave the treasurers report.

Sue Lunn gave the overseas report; she is still appealing for volunteers to help with the Police Aid Convoy, any warm blankets, wool and materials also sewing machines would be a useful donation to this cause. A knit and natter afternoon has been arranged at Sue's home this month and Sue has also arranged for a Knitters Tea to be held at Oakland's Centre on 15th May 2009 as a thank you to our "knitting helpers" We are always looking for knitting helpers - can you help?

Charity officer Anne Lyons reported arrangements are in place for the tombola stall at Thoresby Craft Spring Fair on 21st/22nd March; this is one of our major fundraising events for President Lynn's chosen charities - Cancer Research UK/ARC. We look forward to seeing supporters old and new - thank you. The meeting closed at 9.30pm

Report of the Annual Parish Meeting Held on Monday 16 March 2009

For a full set of minutes contact The Clerk for a copy or view on-line at www.warsopweb.co.uk

The Chairman, Marion Kavanagh, read out her annual report to a packed Council Chamber in which she commented:

Yet again another very productive and busy year has passed for the Warsop Parish Council; our main reason for celebration is that we have successfully achieved the Quality Status.

This means that we are recognised for our being competent and capable of taking on an enhanced role within the local communities, and being in touch with all community groups. This will also allow us to seek further funding direct from Government Office to make positive changes in the lives of all our Parishioners.

I am very pleased to report that again this year we have set a 0% precept, this reflects on our financially secure status, and is the third consecutive year that we have not increased it. We realise that we, like everyone, have to tighten our belts in the current financial climate.

One of the bigger projects that we have helped with this year is the Royal British Legion in their bid to re home the Warsop Vale Memorial to the new housing development. The memorial was cleaned and names of servicemen added, along with the new additional memorial stone at the cenotaph at Warsop Parish Church. This has been a very worthwhile project and it was long overdue, and we feel very proud to have been involved and able to help financially.

Again this year we have funded several local community groups with our Section 137 funding process which allows local groups a source of money for their projects. Groups that have applied this year include Carnival Committee, Market Warsop Players and The Royal British Legion.

The road improvements have now taken place and the interactive signs are now working, again this was the direct result of WPC working in conjunction with NCC, to improve the safety of our roads, and we will continue to ensure that existing traffic calming measures are reviewed and developed.

It has been a very big learning curve for me personally as the Chairman of the Warsop Parish Council, I feel very honoured to have been elected into this role, and I would like to take this opportunity to say a huge thank you to all the Councillors for making this year not as nerve wracking as I thought it was going to be and for offering words of advice and support. I am about getting into the swing of things as it's time to pass the chains over to the next Chairman, I have thoroughly enjoyed this year.

And finally, I would like to thank Tania Barlow our Clerk to Parish for another smooth running year, who works very professional at all times and whom without we would not be in the very fortunate place of Quality Status. Tania you are a star, and thanks again for all your hard work and commitment.

Cllr Marion Kavanagh - Chairman, Warsop Parish Council

An excellent turn out with approximately 80 people packed into the Council Chambers, mostly to support the Town Hall staying open and delivering the services it has for many years.

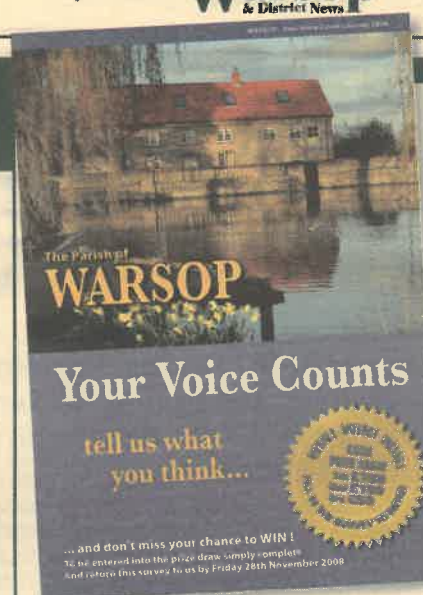

The building is currently owned by Mansfield District Council but Parish Councillors are putting together a business plan to take over the facility and preserve its future. The Mayor, Tony Eggington attended, representing Mansfield District Council and gave his word that MDC will not close the Town Hall and that they intend to work closely in partnership to make it work. He said that grant monies would be made available and they will support the business plan that the Parish Council are to present at the end of March.

Everyone present agreed that they did not want the Town Hall to close, some saying that it is a Civic building, part of our heritage, providing a much needed service, particularly with the adult learning courses and the drop-in sessions, the focal point of Warsop and a well used community facility.

The Town Hall also houses CAB, Credit Union, Family Employment Initiative, Police Surgeries and are looking to accommodate more facilities such as Registrar, Mini County Contact, MDC Payment Office and Housing Office, together with providing offices and/or meeting rooms for community groups. Notts County Councillor John Allin told the meeting that any community groups who did move into the building could apply to Nottinghamshire County Council for grants.

If all goes to plan, Parish Councillors say they hope to take it on in September and will work in partnership with the District Council, County Council and community groups to make sure it is sustainable and does not put pressure on the Parish Council's budget.

Matthew Celebrates 10 Years of Teaching

Matthew Palmer, who has been painting professionally for 20 years, is now celebrating his 10th year of teaching.

"Watercolour painting has always been my passion, I love painting landscapes, still life and animals in fact any subject that takes my fancy. I love painting at the scene, you can't beat sitting there and painting from life," says Matthew.

Matthew was brought up in Langwith where he still lives and over the years has painted all the local collieries. He currently teaches over 100 people per week at seven watercolour classes in and around the local area together with watercolour painting holidays which he feels give his students a chance to work from nature.

Over the years he has held many personal exhibitions and has participated in several art shows but Matthew feels his key areas of expertise are working with students and art groups giving talks and demonstrations and working with children in the local area at historic places such as Creswell Crags.

Matthews paintings are best noted for the amazing attention to detail and the wide range of subjects he covers.

LANDSCAPE, STILL LIFE AND ANIMALS.

Why not have a look for yourself? Examples of Matthews work can be viewed at his unique online galleries. www.mattartist.co.uk

Matthew teaches every Wednesday evening at the Oaklands.

NOTTINGHAMSHIRE POLICE

Making Warsop Safer...

Anti social behaviour continues to be a serious problem particularly on the High Street at Warsop.

Extra Police Officers are being drafted in to help to combat this problem, along with staff of the Safer Neighbourhood Team working extra hours and rest days. Very recently a juvenile was arrested for being drunk and disorderly in a public place. The most concerning factor about this arrest is the fact that a large group of teenagers felt it necessary to vent their anger upon the Police and other young people were very close to making themselves liable to being arrested. The majority of these juveniles had been highlighted as being decent and law-abiding citizens, yet it was plain to see once they had consumed too much alcohol their behaviour levels changed considerably.

We again ask that parents/guardians make themselves aware of where their child/children are particularly in the evening. There are large groups out and about particularly on Friday evenings, on occasions in excess of 80 - 100 youths. The majority of these youths are under the influence of alcohol. In their words they may be only 'hanging about with their mates' and 'doing nothing wrong' but the numbers alone can be intimidating.

One way to tackle this problem is the possibility of a dispersal order for the whole of the Parish of Warsop. Nottinghamshire Police is working with the Council to try and bring this into effect. One of the main criteria's within this order surrounds the congregation of youths in public places. This allows the Police to separate groups of youths in crowds of 2 or more. This will give all agencies the powers and the rights to stop large groups of youths forming in and around residential/commercial areas.

On a more positive note after working with Meden Leisure Centre and Meden School the Police have arranged the hire of the astro turf pitch on a fortnightly basis for a football match between the Police and local youths. Due to severe weather only one further match has taken place that was again well attended and the atmosphere was friendly even though the Police were again the victors with a 20 - 2 win. However one of the local youths has got a 'game ban' for acting in an anti social manner. It has been made clear that although these games have been organised by the Police they cannot condone anti social behaviour and that the 'game ban' is a punishment that will be handed out.

Beat Surgeries are being held between 1pm-2pm in Warsop Town Hall on Thursday 12th & 26th March, 9th, 16th & 30th April.

I again include our areas of responsibility and contact details so as to enable you to contact us should you have any issues of concerns.

Mansfield District Council

Creating a District where People can Succeed

Brown Bins Back to Boost Recycling!

Mansfield District Council's popular brown bin garden waste collection service is back from its winter break! The popular service goes into hibernation during the winter months and collections restarted in March.

Over 36,000 households in the Mansfield district are part of the scheme and more than 6,500 tonnes of garden waste has been collected since 1 April last year. All the garden waste picked-up is composted locally and reused on agricultural land.

The following items should be put in brown bins: (strictly no plastic bags)

- Grass cuttings
- Plants and weeds
- Small branches and twigs
- Hedge trimmings
- Leaves
- Garden prunings and flowers

The composting of garden waste contributes to the district's overall recycling rate, which is currently running at 39%.

Councillor Eddie Smith, Portfolio Holder for the Environment at Mansfield District Council said: "The brown bin collection scheme has proved to be extremely popular amongst our residents and has made a huge contribution towards increasing the amount we recycle. Just six years ago, the district's recycling rate was only 4.5% and the fact that we remain on target to top 40% during the next 12 months is a great reflection on the way the recycling services introduced by the Council have been embraced by its residents. In the coming years we hope to press on and provide even more opportunities for local people to recycle additional items, more easily."

For information on all rubbish and recycling collection call Mansfield District Council's refuse and recycling helpline on 01623 463463.

The Future

The 43rd Meeting of Meden Vale the Future was held at the Village Hall on Monday 9th March 2009 at 7.30 pm.

10 members of the Committee were present plus 1 member of the Public and 1 representative from Welbeck Football Club. There were 3 apologies.

The Open Day to publicise the new sports facilities was held on 21st February and was deemed a success with members of the public being shown the available plans and documentation. The Treasurer reported that in excess of £9,000 has been pledged towards the £10,000 required to match fund for this project.

A quotation has been received for insulation of the Village Hall roof space, this was accepted and work will commence as soon as possible. The Portable Appliance Testing has been completed and the test sheets made available to the Caretaker. The annual insurance premium for buildings, contents and public liability has been received, sufficient funds are available to pay this.

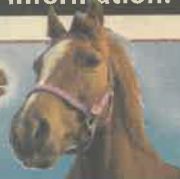

A Committee member has volunteered to liaise with West Notts College on Adult Learning courses. The intention being, to have at least one course in place after Easter.

The Chairman was pleased to report that a meeting to be chaired by a representative of Nottinghamshire County Council has been arranged for the 1st April at 2 pm in the Village Hall. Representatives from Welbeck Estates, UK Coal, the County Council, Bassetlaw and Mansfield District Councils, the Parish Council and this Committee's Trustees have agreed to attend. The purpose of this meeting is to initiate discussions on the use of the colliery site after closure. This will include industrial and commercial development, residential development, recreational facilities and transport links. It must be stressed that there is no final closure date for the colliery but when it happens, it is hoped that detailed plans for redevelopment will be in place. This process will be long and complicated but public participation will be sought and progress publicised on a regular basis.

The next Committee meeting will be held on Monday 7th April 2009 at 7.30 pm at the Village Hall. All welcome.

Natural Equine Remedies

Natures remedies for your horse or pony

It's the time of year some horses and their owners dread, its the start of the sweet itch season, the culprit the Culicoides Midge is on the rampage, if like me you have a horse or pony that suffers from sweet itch you will understand what a nightmare it is.

My miniature Shetland pony Jo-Jo has a lovely thick mane and tail during the winter months and a sore scabby bold patched mane and tail through the summer.

It is heartbreaking seeing your pony constantly rubbing themselves raw, Jo-Jo usually wears a sweet itch rug from now until the end of October this helps but were the rug or his fly mask doesn't cover he is a mass of sores.

This year I increased the amount of fresh garlic in Jo-Jo's winter feed and took the precaution of covering the areas of Jo-Jo that are prone to the condition by painting on Benzyl Benzoate with a small paint brush daily from the end of February.

I have tried various lotions and potions including a very expensive one that smelled very familiar upon reading the ingredients it was Benzyl Benzoate, I have yet to find any thing that works as well has this lotion if any of you have tried and tested methods please let me know email: rvja1@aol.com.

To soothe the sore areas use a wash of Camomile Tea, sponge on or put in a spray bottle.

Rub a few drops of Rosemary oil on to the bold patches to encourage re-growth.

Most importantly make sure your pony has a shelter to go into when the midges are out in force, the worst times are dawn and dusk.

SAVE XMAS
Still paying for Christmas in the New Year?

HELP IS AT HAND!!

Question

After seeing my credit card bills from Christmas I am determined to save throughout the year this time! How can I go about this?

Answer

If you want to put a bit of money away each week so that you'll have enough to get what you need, there are quite a few options.

You might want to be able to stop yourself getting at your money before the run-up to Christmas. You might prefer vouchers to cash and perhaps you want the money to be collected from your home.

Using a standard savings account with a bank, building society or credit union, you will get interest on your money and it is up to you when you take it out. You'll be able to spend the money on anything you want but they will not collect the money from your home.

You may prefer to set up a special Christmas savings account with one of these financial institutions. These often give you a bonus on your savings too – but if you take the money out too far in advance of Christmas you may lose the bonus and have to close the account. If the bank, building society, or credit union goes bust – your money will be protected up to a certain limit.

Christmas hamper and voucher schemes will collect money from your home and give you a bonus, but will make it difficult for you to take the money out before the run-up to Christmas. It is important that you check on the level of protection for your money and whether the company belongs to the Christmas Prepayments Association.

Christmas clubs with local shops are also an option. You'll only be able to spend saved money in that particular store, they won't give you any interest, but may offer a bonus. It is unlikely that if the shop goes bust that you will get your money back. Check where your savings are being recorded, and what happens if that information is lost.

CAB ADVICE COLUMN

I recently lost my job and am thinking about retraining. I've seen an ad for a short course that would qualify me for security work. It means paying quite a bit up front, which I can't really afford right now, but if it makes me more employable it would probably be worth it. Any advice?

If you're looking for work it's always a good idea to consider improving your job prospects through skills training. But you need to be aware that not all training courses deliver on their promises. Some are little more than scams and can leave you out of pocket and no better qualified than when you started. Citizens Advice Bureaux have seen cases where people have paid course fees only to discover the college doesn't exist, or goes bust, or can't be contacted. In other cases the course or the qualifications promised fail to materialise. So it pays to do your homework before deciding.

- Regardless of where you see an ad – whether it's in a newspaper or even in the job centre – it doesn't automatically mean it's bona fide. Remember official agencies can't vouch for courses you see advertised on their premises. You still need to check it out for yourself.
- Ask to see sample course materials, request references from satisfied students, and if a qualification is the selling point, check the course is accredited with the relevant body.
- Find out as much as you can about the course provider and make sure you have basic information like their address and landline phone number – check these are genuine.
- Check up on their promises and don't sign up for a course on the spur of the moment. Read any contract carefully and insist on time to think about it before signing anything or handing over money.
- Check written details of the cost of the course and your cancellation rights.
- If in doubt, get advice. Look in the local phonebook or the Citizens Advice website www.adviceguide.org.uk for details of your nearest CAB.

I've just found out that my landlord is facing repossession, and I have no idea where that leaves me. What are my rights as a tenant, and what should I do next?

In most cases, if the property is repossessed the tenant does not have a right to remain living there. In a limited number of cases, the lender may be bound to take you on as a tenant. This could be the case if:

- You were already living in the property when the mortgage was taken out.
- OR
- The mortgage lender asks for, or accepts a payment of rent from you.

In these cases, the lender would take over as your landlord and your tenancy rights would continue. If you think that one of these situations applies to you, your local Citizens Advice Bureau will be able to give you advice on what to do next.

If your tenancy is not binding on your landlord's lender, they can evict you. However, the situation may not be as bleak as it seems; you still have options. But it is crucial that you follow these steps: Seek advice immediately from your local CAB. They will be able to look at the specifics of your situation and advise you on what to do next.

Always open mail addressed 'To the Occupier'. This may include notice of any possession hearings.

When thinking of moving into a new property, make sure the landlord has permission from the lender to rent it out. Otherwise, the lender does not have to recognise the tenancy at all.

THE ROYAL BRITISH LEGION

This year will be a busy year for our branch, with a trip planned to Belgium mid year.

We hope to have a stall at this year's Carnival to promote our work in the community and hopefully recruit some new members. (Members do NOT have to have served in the Armed Forces!) Our monthly meetings are well attended and a guest speaker is planned for the May meeting.

Members attended a parade and re-dedication of the Standard at Wollaton Branch in March and others are joining other branches in trips to the Poppy Factory near Aylesbury, concerts in Mansfield and visits into Derbyshire for the well dressings. A function, including Christmas Lunch is also being planned.

Thanks to the Parish Council and Meden Valley Making Places, new name plaques should now be fitted to the Warsop Vale War Memorial, replacing those damaged when it was in its former position. New iron railings are also on order to secure the wreaths at the base of the memorial.

Our welfare work continues in the district all year round helping those service and ex-service people most in need.

Our next meeting will be on the 13th April 2009 at the Memorial Club, Bishops Walk, Church Warsop, at 7.30pm. All are welcome to attend.

FOCUS ON FITNESS

by Ann Thompson

Hello All, Hope that you enjoyed the article last month and that you enjoy my Top Tips for a fun & active lifestyle this month, don't we all need that at this time of the credit crunch. The class at Meden Vale is doing well now and now starting the second class 7.30-8.30pm Thursdays. Please look at my advert for full details.

Cheerio for now Ann Thompson.

My Top Tips for a more Fun & Active Lifestyle.

Be More Active Often – moving your body is just as necessary as breathing – we were born to move – so move!

Keep A Food Diary – this is not only a great reality check but can also help you keep on track with your healthy eating plan – especially if you keep it on the fridge door!

Eat Well, Don't Diet – this is a short term fix and most people tend to put weight back on. Instead eat healthily all the time, try something like the GI way of eating which is very good for you

Drink More Water – I know that you have heard this a thousand times before but it does make a big difference, enhancing your concentration and aiding your sleep.

Vary Your Exercise – In order to keep both body and mind stimulated it is a great idea to do different types of activity.

Set Goals – People who set goals are 75% more likely to achieve them – and even more so if you write them down and share them with others.

Be Realistic – Don't expect to have the same body as you did 20 years ago, our bodies change as we grow, so accept the fact and be the best you can be right now.

Forget The Scales – measure body fat instead and go how you feel in your clothes.

Get Outdoors – we are so lucky to have so much beautiful open space around us here in Nottinghamshire, getting outside in it often makes you feel so much better.

Have fun – Doing something you enjoy releases endorphins and will help you reduce stress levels.
