Warsop Town Hall Campaign Update

Mansfield District Council say ...

With the support of MDC, the Parish Council have been approached to take over the building which they are keen to do, providing it does not cost the people in the Parish anymore on their Council Tax.

The business plan will be re-visited with the financial projections and risk assessments reviewed to ensure that it is a viable proposition.

MDC are working to a timetable of passing the Town Hall over to the PC in January 2010, providing everything is in order, the PC will ratify the decision at their Full Council Meeting in January 2010. MDC have also indicated that they would be minded to re-locate some of their housing services from Sherwood Street to the Town Hall.

So it looks like good news all round!

Thank you MDC.

With special thanks to Cllrs Roger Sutcliffe and Heather Henshaw and Ajman Ali for all their support.

EDITORS LETTER

Hi everyone, as I sit and write this, it is cold, dark and very wet! (Thur 15 Oct), winter is definitely on its way and Christmas is just around the corner (I am allowed to use the C word now!).

A couple of events coming up not to be missed: The Wedding Fair on Sunday 29th November at the Fretwell Centre 11am - 4pm. Warsop Christmas Market Thursday 10th December 4pm-8pm featuring THE Xmas FACTOR with free shuttle bus service; for more details of both these events, see inside. The new look Post Office will be officially opened on 29th October by the Mayor and will feature a FREE to use, external ATM machine, see advert inside. Somerfield will be changing hands at the end of November and will be closed for a couple of days to re-vamp the store and a new Estate Agents will be opening soon on Sherwood Street, see separate advert.

It is now looking very promising for the future of our Town Hall, see front page.

I hope you all enjoyed last month's bumper edition of 24 pages (biggest paper ever!) and if you keep those articles and adverts coming we may do it again!

See you all next month.

Gardening Monthly...

It is well to remember that many near hardy plants are in a state bordering upon a resting period during the cold months, they are just ticking over, with roots somewhat inactive.

They must not be stimulated by over watering or overfeeding. So they are kept on the dry side until the more genial days of spring. Autumn rooted cuttings of shrubby calceolarias, pentstemons, etc, need overhead protection in the dry conditions of a cold frame with glass or polythene lights. Many choice alpine flowers perform better if protected against winter rain.

There is a much wider field, however, in which protection is useful. Lettuce sown in autumn for spring cropping will come safely through the coldest winter if given protection from overhead by cloches of glass or polythene. Again, the emphasis on keeping the ground dry on the surface by the same means will over winter seedlings of Brussels Sprouts and early Cauliflowers. Flower covers will protect hardy annuals such as Calendulas and Cornflowers resulting in their flowering weeks earlier than if unprotected. A plain wooden box, bottomless but covered with stout polythene not only serves as a propagator throughout summer and autumn but may be at hand to pop over some treasured plant or retain purity of white in that splendid Hellebore Niger, the Christmas Rose.

Gardeners are advised to follow nature and by doing so avoid a mad rush in spring when too often sowings and plantings are hastily done. It is far better to do a little winter preparation as opportunity occurs. It is surprising what digging can be done in an odd half-hour. Whenever ground is freshly dug, a new batch of dormant weed seeds is brought near the surface, enabling them to germinate. Therefore following winter digging a crop of weeds germinate and these are easily destroyed when quite young, leaving the bed comparatively clean, an obvious advantage in sowing in stale ground. Advantage should be taken of drier conditions to till the garden in easy stages making conditions better for spring sowings and also enabling one to adhere to a correct timetable.

When spring does come, give a good going over with the Cambridge hoe (this is a four tined fork with them turned at right angles) or a good five tined cultivator to rake to a good fine tilth. Small seeds, parsnips, carrots, beet and onions are then sown with little effort.

Brassicas relish the firm soil. Potatoes follow the winter greens. These prefer a looser mould as the tubers must be able to expand, so may be planted as digging proceeds. Few gardens are without shrubs or small trees of some description; they come in such wide range of form and colour. It is important when planning to take into account the site and for what purpose they are needed. Consideration must be given when choosing bushes or trees. Remember to read the label for height and spread. The varieties on offer these days is too large to give details, but read all about it from books or interrogate the nursery where buying from. Plants from nurseries are invariably packed with roots protected and sound. Beware of shop counters with their stuff showing bare roots, examine closely if you decide to buy. Leaves or evergreens transpire moisture and with root disturbance tend to dry out; it is often advised to plant these in April and ensure a quick replacement of feeding roots by soaking well after planting. Because a shrub will occupy the site for many years it is helpful to prepare the area thoroughly by breaking up the soil to a good depth and incorporating either decayed manure or compost. Make a wide hole and plant firmly to the same surface mark as received from the nursery.

Happy Gardening

Greenwood Grant To Plant Trees For Shade

Autumn is here and it's time to start thinking about the tree planting season.

Now with climate change predictions, it's even more important that we plant trees to provide shade and help lower summer temperatures close to buildings and in school grounds. This year the Greenwood Community Tree Planting Grant scheme will focus more on helping schools and community groups plant trees for shade by offering funding of up to £250 per project.

The Trees for Shade project will have two main elements.

- General tree planting around playgrounds and school playing fields. The benefits include filtering UV light, reducing temperatures and providing safe, cool areas for play and outdoor study.
- Targeted Planting close to buildings, which will help reduce summertime temperatures in classrooms and around school buildings. This will provide a more comfortable working environment and reduce the need for energy hungry air conditioners.

The Trees for Shade project is an important step forward in adapting to climate change as scientists predict that by 2080, the average temperature will be 4°C higher, which will make us feel pretty uncomfortable as well as affecting our health. Trees can help by providing shade and have a cooling effect through transpiration, which is water evaporating from tree leaves and other vegetation. Studies show that a 10% increase in tree cover can reduce temperatures in urban areas by up to 4°C.

To be eligible projects should lie within Ashfield, Broxtowe, Gedling, Mansfield or Newark & Sherwood and be on publicly accessible land. Application forms for the 2009/10 planting season (November to March) are now available from the Greenwood team. Contact 01623 827322 or visit our website www.greenwoodforest.org.uk. Don't worry if you are not sure what you would like from your planting scheme as advice is available. The deadline for applications is 12th December, but we encourage groups and schools to apply early as funding is limited.

Over the last eight years, Greenwood Community Tree Planting Grants have helped groups and schools to plant over 10,000 trees and shrubs in over 100 tree planting projects, which have helped to improve the local landscape, enhance biodiversity and provide outdoor classrooms and orchards.

Christmas comes but once a year so the saying goes, unless you live in Warsop, next year (2010) we will be having two. The Market Warsop Players will not be getting their panto tights on for Christmas 2009 but worry not, we're just putting it forward a few weeks to coincide with February half-term.

This year's offering is the legendary King Arthur. I would like to say that rehearsals are underway but we are too busy laughing at the script to practice anything! We hope you will join us in February for another fantastic panto.

Tickets will be on sale on the 5th January. See you there.

If you would like to get involved, either on stage or behind the scenes, just turn up to the Market Warsop Players weekly meeting which is held every Tuesday night at the Market, High Street, Warsop from 7pm.

Bird Notes...

Well here we are again, at the end of another year. It was a year that seemed to show a return to a more normal state of affairs, with the summer in the right place and not too much rain!

As a salute to returning to normal I've decided to do a list of some of the "commoner" species that I've seen in Warsop this year, ones that hopefully you can easily identify too. Why don't you compare it to what you've seen, when you've been out and about. None of these should be that difficult to find locally, with a bit of luck!

Most sightings are from the Carrs and up the river towards Sookholme or were in the village itself, others come from the fields and woods to the east of Warsop (the Birklands); some come from visits to Gleadthorpe where the river burst its banks and the nearby woods there. Oh and the woods and fields to the south of Spion Kop around the A60 and towards Peafield Lane...and over towards Warsop Main tip...ok so pretty much from all over Warsop parish then.

The species are in the accepted taxonomic order - a high fulluting way of arranging their different family trees, you will see that closely related birds are listed near to each other. These are the correct full species names after the British List by the BOURC (British Ornithologist's Union Records Committee). The parts of the names we don't usually use are in brackets; words or names in " " are in common usage.

- Reed Bunting

There you are; now you're all sorted out for what to look for next year!

Seriously though-you'll already be familiar with most of the species on this list- the ones that you can tell by sight; can you also tell them by the sounds they make? How they move? Learning to easily identify these relatively common species is the gateway to learning a lot of the rest of Britain's birds. If you know what the common stuff looks like, when you see something different, you'll know what it definitely isn't- if you can see what I mean!

Have a great one - B.A.

WARSOP

Footpath & Countryside Group

This is a superb time of year for walking through Warsop's woodlands. The leaves of deciduous trees have changed colour and many have now fallen, allowing in more light and revealing the structure of the woods.

We are fortunate that Warsop has such a range of excellent woodland around the edge of the parish. Starting at Warsop Windmill and heading north into Birklands we can see signs of the past of this area. In the nineteenth century the Duke of Portland replaced the more open wood pasture typical of the ancient Sherwood Forest with plantations mainly of oak, chestnut and larch. The land was often prepared by ploughing, treating it with bonemeal and then planting turnips which would later be eaten by sheep who would manure the land ready for tree planting. As you walk through these woods you can see many of the Duke's trees alongside the more recent conifer plantations as well as a few of the ancient oaks for which Sherwood is world famous.

Further into the Forest we come across the drive from Welbeck Abbey into Birklands that is lined by around two hundred lime trees. Old limes also mark the boundary between the parishes of Warsop and Budby. Approaching the white gates at Gleadthorpe there is an area planted with exotic conifers intended to enhance the view as the Duke and his guests travelled into the Forest.

The new public footpath between Cuckney Hill and Wood Lane now gives more extensive views over Cuckney and beyond now that sections of the plantations have been felled.

The name of Collier Spring Wood at Church Warsop gives clues to its earlier use. Collier implies charcoal burning and Spring suggests coppicing. The atmospheric ancient woodland of Lord Stubbins Wood that is accessible from William Wood Lane at Warsop Vale was also managed by coppicing. Stub refers to a sawn off stump. It is informative to compare the impact of the sensitive management of Collier Spring Wood with the neglect of Lord Stubbins Wood. It is only in the last century that many of our woodlands have been abandoned. In the past they were a vital source of charcoal, of timber for building and of wood for burning and fencing.

To the south of the parish we have the plantations alongside Peafield Lane. The concessionary footpath along our boundary with Clipstone allows us to follow the line of the paling of the royal deer park that surrounded the King's Houses at Kings Clipstone. Two old oaks still mark this boundary, Old Churn Oak and The Parliament Oak, noted for the legends connecting it to King John and Magna Carta.

The next Footpaths Group walk on Saturday November 21st will start in Clumber Park and head east towards Elkesley and Bothamsall. We will travel by minibus, leaving Warsop Library at 9:15. Please get in touch if you would like to join us.

You can contact the Secretary on 01623 846281

Welcome to the exclusive learn how to paint in Watercolours, Course with Local Professional Artist & Tutor Matthew Palmer. The course is exclusive to Warsop & District News and will run in every issue. Starting with the basic to the advanced.

SAVING EACH ISSUE'S LESSON WILL GIVE YOU A COMPREHENSIVE WATERCOLOUR BOOK.

LESSON 5 - PAINTING PEOPLE OR FIGURES

Adding in a few distant people or figures in a landscape watercolour painting will give it life and scale

This lesson is designed to teach you how to paint or place people in your painting. Not close up portraits, that is a different art in its self. Do not go overboard with detail on a person, it does not look right.

FOLLOW THESE STAGES TO PAINT A PERSON.

Use your NUMBER 5 BRUSH and mix a PEACH COLOUR (70% YELLOW OCHRE, 30% CRIMSON ALIZARIN).

Stage 3

Stage 1

Stage 2

Paint a small oval shape to represent the head

Paint a larger oval shape to represent the body

Paint a long rectangle shape to represent the legs

Stage 4 Paint a jacket etc. By using a colour of your choice. Paint over the oval body shape. Leave a small amount of pink showing to represent the person's hands.

Stage 5 Paint the hair with a dark colour (light colour if lighter hair), leaving an amount of pink to show the person's face. Finally paint the person's trousers or skirt. Use a colour of your choice (dark colours work best).

TRY TO PAINT THESE PEOPLE

Add a shadow.

A person carrying objects.

Walking a dog.

A GROUP OF PEOPLE

Groups of people are painted in the same way as a single person, just paint more of them!! but work a bit looser and blend the bodies together if you like.

Remember watercolour painting is an impression of: not a photograph.

Warsop Community News...

Warsop Inner Wheel

President Anne Lyons hosted the October meeting on Wednesday 7th October 2009 at the Hostess Restaurant, Sookholme with 30 members and 2 guests, Heather Harvey and Wendy Reynolds, 10 members apologized. President Anne opened the meeting with a warm welcome to all members and then introduced our guest speakers this month, Wendy Reynolds and Heather Harvey who work for the NHS based at the Sherwood Forest Hospital Site in Mansfield in the Nutrition department. Wendy, who is a Community Nutrition Assistant, gave us an insight as to how their department is trying to educate the general public to eat more nutritionally. Their task is to go out into community and attempt to help people eat for health and get the right balance. With the use of the "eat well plate" she could demonstrate how much of each group of foods we should be eating per day - very interesting too!!! Wendy also brought with her many leaflets on e.g. Diet and the menopause, Nutrition and skin health, eating for a healthy heart, to name just a few. The vote of thanks was given by Judy Elliott.

President Anne reported that she had visited Kieghley Club with many other members from Warsop club and they had enjoyed fabulous hospitality with a visit to Cannon Hall Museum. The Overseas Sandwich Lunch held at the home of Gloria Humphrey was another great success with £675.80 generated to help overseas charities.

Jean Nock gave the secretary's report and forthcoming events. Gloria Humphrey gave the up to date treasurer report. Lesley Palmer gave the overseas report - Lesley also collected "Christmas shoe boxes" which she intends to take to the Police Aid Convoy to be transported this month. Many people have sent items for Toy, Joy and Roy bags, thank you to everyone who support us with this project. Christine Fretwell gave the charity report, the joint Fashion Show held at the Hostess last month had been successful making a profit of £630, (£315 for Rainbows Children's Hospice and £315 for League of Friends). Christine reminded everyone about Thoresby Craft Fare on 17/18th October.

The meeting closed at 10pm

Warsop Men's Probus

A meeting was held in the Warsop Parish centre on Wed the 16th of Sept at 1030 am. This was the first meeting after the summer break period, and after the business of the Club was completed, The President Mr. Brian Bennett introduced the speaker of the day, Paul Lawlor Curate of St. Peters and St. Paul's, who is continuing his training with the Vicar Kathryn Herrod. Paul gave an account of a period of time that he spent in the Sudan earlier this year, with a group called Frame International with 9 other people under the leadership of a lady called Jan Ransome M.B.E. an ex army Major, trying to progress a programme of Reconciliation and Forgiveness in Middle Africa. They spent time up in the Mountains where the preferred method of transport is walking, because of the state of the roads and tracks through the remote parts of the country. The needs of the Sudanese people are mainly water, schools, hospitals and roads, with money preferably trickling in rather than arriving in one lump sum, in the interests of continuity of work. The Asian influence in the region is becoming very strong, and the Christian influence is still trying to progress the forgiveness and reconciliation programme with some difficulty. Mr L Wigg gave a vote of thanks for an excellent talk and later 25 members and guests sat down to lunch after Grace said by Eric Simpson.

A Meeting of Warsop Men's Probus Club was held on Wed. 30th of Sept at 1030 in Warsop Parish Centre. President Mr B Bennett welcomed members and guests and on completion of the business of the Club introduced the speaker of the day Mr. Gary Nichols, the holder of a Diploma in Hypnotherapy and Psychotherapy, who was to speak on the value of these therapies in the life of today's society. Starting off simply with the value of Hypnotherapy to people who wish to have help when wanting to stop the smoking habit, Gary followed on with the advantages of both therapies in the modern world, developing his talk into a Q & A session for the benefit of the many members who had questions to ask. Time quickly ran out and after a promise to invite Gary back for a further session, the President closed the meeting at 1200pm. A vote thanks was given by Tom Hughes on behalf of the Club, and after a short break 28 Members and guests sat down to lunch after Grace said by David Richards.

A meeting was held on Wednesday 14th Oct 2009 in the Fitzherbert room at Warsop Parish Centre at 1030am under the Chairmanship of the President Mr. Brian Bennett. On completion of the business of the club Brian introduced the speaker for the day Kerry Price, an ex local of Warsop, who now works in London. Kerry spoke to us of her experiences in Australia, where she has recently been, with the Rotary Foundation on a Group Study Exchange. Flying into Sydney, and then on to Hervey Bay in Queensland, and being met by the Rotarian Housing Sector Workers, and the Human Resources Endeavour Foundation, she went on to visit many of the industries there. Kerry hopes to visit the Grand Canyon in America this year with the same group, and come back at a later date to talk to us about that experience. Peter Walker Secretary.

Warsop Wives' Group

On September 15th we held our AGM at the Parish Centre. The committee gave their yearly reports and were re-elected. The Air Ambulance was chosen as our charity for this year. A visit to Dobies near Clowne was arranged for November 10th. On September 29th members and friends held a coffee evening for McMillan Nurses and £131 was raised. Future meetings are: October 27th Tramp Supper; November 10th daytime outing to Dobies; November 10th evening Bingo and Quiz night; November 24th Knit and Natter night with fundraising stall.

The Future

The 49th meeting of Meden Vale the Future was held at the Village Hall on Monday 7th September 2009 at 7.30 pm.

8 members of the Committee were present plus 1 Representative from Welbeck Welfare Football Club, 1 Representative from Fundsport UK, 1 Representative from West Notts College and 1 Representative from the Playscheme. There were 6 apologies.

Fundsport UK reported that the Football Foundation had met to consider our application for funding but no formal decision has yet been received. The Coalfield Regeneration Trust panel were to meet on 9th September and a decision should be known within 2 weeks. The siting of the children's play area is still unresolved, no reply had been received from the Welfare regarding this matter. A discussion regarding funding for the perimeter fencing for the new pavilion, it was agreed to approach WREN and BIFFA for possible funding from the Land Fill Tax. It was also thought that funds from this source may be available for car parking facilities between the new pavilion and the Village Hall.

The Chairman reported that the third meeting of Welbeck Colliery the Future had been held on 26th August with John Mann MP in attendance. The following matters were discussed :-

- Bassetlaw District Council had engaged Nathaniel Lichfield (Consultants) to investigate possible future uses for the site.
- Welbeck Estates and UK Coal were in discussion on how best to develop the site.
- John Mann to arrange for the Chairman and Councillor John Allin to meet with senior people at the Department of Energy to discuss possible uses for the site in the energy sector.
- The rail link was considered to be a positive asset in any redevelopment scenario.
- The pit tip area would revert to 'green field' use with access for the general public.
- The Treasurer reported that the current financial situation was satisfactory.
- Posters were available advertising Adult Learning courses to be held from September.

The Caretaker advised that a new estimate for alterations to the entrance hall was awaited. An application for funding is to be made to the Charity Shop. Arrangements to be made for the gas boiler to be serviced. It was agreed to purchase a diary to list confirmed Village Hall bookings and this to be made available at Committee meetings.

It was reported that the Friday night Youth Club was well attended and it was agreed to ask a representative to attend the next Committee meeting to ascertain if any further assistance could be offered.

Next Committee meeting and AGM

citizens advice bureau

A bank that I do not normally deal with has contacted me to chase an outstanding debt. I think I may be a victim of identity theft. What should I do?

Identity theft is a type of fraud which takes place when someone you don't know gets hold of your personal details and uses them to apply for credit or to open an account in your name.

If you have been a victim of identity theft you will usually not have to pay for any money you have lost, unless it can be shown that you have acted fraudulently or without reasonable care, for example by keeping your PIN number written down with your card.

You must act quickly:

- contact the bank straight away, keep a record of all conversations you have with them, and copies of any letters sent or received
- report the matter to the police, and get a crime reference number
- check with the credit reference agencies (details below) whether any applications for credit have been made in your name. If they have, you can ask to have the information removed from your file.

If you suspect that someone has got hold of your details by stealing your mail, or has fraudulently applied to get mail redirected from your address, you should contact the Royal Mail Customer Enquiry Number on: 08457 740740

- contact CIFAS, the UK's Fraud Prevention Service at www.cifas.org.uk. For a small fee they will make sure that anyone applying for credit in your name is automatically double-checked.

The credit reference agencies are:

- Equifax Tel: 08705 143700 Website: www.equifax.co.uk

Trick or Treat

As you are aware we are rapidly approaching Halloween and Bonfire night. At this time of the year, as the nights draw in, we traditionally see an upsurge in anti-social behaviour associated with 'mischief' surrounding these events.

Anti social behaviour is one of the main issues that we have to address on a daily basis, with a large proportion of the work that the beat team do focused on tackling the quality of life issues which affect people. Particularly at this time of year we must all work together to try to minimise the impact of "trick or treat" and fireworks on the lives of members of the community. We are working with local shops in the area to ask them not to sell eggs and flour to children and also shifts have been altered to ensure that we are on duty when we are most needed. We are also utilising the special constabulary and working closely with our partners at Mansfield District Council to ensure the warden service is available. Notts County Council youth services attend the area on a regular basis to divert people away from behaving in an antisocial manner and numerous initiatives have been developed throughout the year as a diversionary tactic. Enforcement is a major part of tackling this kind of behaviour too with numerous arrests and the issuing of fixed penalty notices for disorder.

I am happy to speak to anyone with concerns or any ideas with regard to this or any other issue. It is important to note that we in the beat team do not want to spoil fun, however we need help from the community. We need people to tell us what is happening, we need parents to ensure that flour, eggs and other items which are associated with ASB are not removed from homes in the evening, and we need parents to be aware of where their children are and what they are doing whenever possible. I know what it is like to be a child out with your friends in the evening having fun, but please ensure that the fun is not at someone else's expense. There are numerous vulnerable members of society who need the help of not only the police, but that of neighbours and friends too so please take a minute to support them in any way you can. On one occasion this time last year I visited a 94 year old female who was in tears in her own home because of the antics of a small group of children, bringing home to me just how much people can be affected. I take this matter very seriously and ASB on the Meden / Church Warsop beat for the month of October 2008 doubled, highlighting the problem at this time of year.

I am always available to talk and if I can help I will.

Please enjoy Halloween and bonfire night, but enjoy it safely and responsibly.

Thanks - Dave Boole

Thanks Halina

At the group's AGM held on the 1st October we were finally able to thank Halina Kochanowski for the assistance she has given the group in her role as Town Hall Manager.

Over the last few years she has helped the group develop our facilities from one IT Suite with 16 PC's to 3 training rooms with over 30 computers now available for IT training. One of the rooms is also available for non-IT courses and is used for Spanish courses and meetings etc with full range of IT equipment available.

She also assisted making the IT Suite one of the best around for 'disability access' by renewing doors, installing hearing loops and a host of other changes. To reward her for her work, which she retired from earlier this year, we have made her an Honorary Member of the group, the 4th behind Ron Morton, Carol Hill and Pam Hollamby.

Diamonds are Forever

Warsop Couple Gilbert and Barbara Jeffery celebrate their Diamond Wedding Anniversary with a message from the Queen. Gilbert and Barbara met at the Empress Hall in Warsop, where they attended dance nights as teenagers.

The couple have lived in Warsop all their married life. Gilbert worked at Welbeck colliery and as a fireman at Warsop Fire Station until his retirement. Barbara worked at Poyers Jewellers in Mansfield. They spent their Anniversary at home with family and friends.

Here's hoping for many more happy years together.

Love from Alan, Carole, Glen, Vanora, Natasha, Graig, Sarah and Amy.

£18,000 Community Funding to be allocated in November 2009

Participatory Budgeting (PB) is a process that allows the residents of an area to decide the allocation of funds on defined public budgets. PB aims to increase local residents' involvement in making funding decisions

Mansfield District Council is taking part in an exciting Participatory Budgeting (PB) pilot scheme and would like to invite community, voluntary and statutory organisations to make funding applications for local projects.

Projects must be delivered in the Warsop area (Meden and Birklands wards), and address one or more of the previously agreed priorities listed below.

- Crime and community safety
- Health – including older people
(At least £5,000 will be allocated to health.)
- Young People

All applications will be considered by a small panel to assess legal and practical delivery issues, however this is not a pre-selection process. All applicants will then be invited to make a short presentation, on 21st November, to residents who live in Warsop at a PB event.

All residents are invited to come and listen to, and then vote on all of the proposals put forward.

Only residents who attend the event will be able to vote on the projects.

For more information about the event please contact the Community Engagement Team on 01623 463372.

The Warsop PB Event will take place as follows

Saturday 21 November 2009 10.00am – 1.00pm
Oaklands Centre, Oakfield Lane, Warsop, NG20 0JE

Changing times for housing office

Changes to the opening hours of Mansfield District Council's three area housing offices will come into force from 19 October.

The offices at Warsop, Mansfield Woodhouse and Sandy Lane will be closing on certain days after a review showed that there was low usage, with an average of just five people per day using the Warsop office on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

All the housing offices will be open for telephone enquiries from Monday to Friday during normal office hours.

The Mansfield North housing office based at the Civic Centre will remain open as normal, Monday to Thursday (8.30am - 5.00pm) and Friday (8.30am - 4.30pm).

Full details about the changes are available to view online at www.mansfield.gov.uk/housingchanges

Councillor Heather Henshaw, Portfolio Holder for Housing at Mansfield District Council said: "The changes to the opening hours reflect the changing way that people are accessing council housing services these days – mainly either by telephone or on-line. We have consulted with tenant representatives about the change in hours and they were very supportive. They said they would much rather see housing officers out and about on the estates than based in an office dealing with a limited number of enquiries, a view I wholeheartedly support."

The new opening hours are:

Parish Council Meeting Held on Monday 19th October 2009 For a full set of minutes contact The Clerk for a copy or view on-line at www.warsopweb.co.uk

Crime and Disorder

Councillors felt that Youth Anti-Social Behaviour is on the increase again with reports of youths walking on top of parked cars, underage drinking, Bellway Compound being broken into and set fire to, other fires being set in gardens, the skatepark and burglaries. As there was no police presence, John Kerr suggested a meeting with PC Wayne Bennett to discuss these matters. He also suggested that a letter be sent to Kath Bannister ASB Team Manager, MDC to ask when we will get the warden for the Birklands ward that we were promised months ago.

Warsop Town Hall

All members received a copy of an email from Ajman Ali, Corporate Director, MDC updating the progress. With the support of MDC, the Parish Council have been approached to take over the building which they are keen to do, providing it does not cost the people in the Parish anymore on their Council Tax. The business plan will be re-visited with the financial projections and risk assessments reviewed to ensure that it is a viable proposition. MDC are working to a timetable of passing the Town Hall over to the PC in January 2010, providing everything is in order, the PC will ratify the decision at their Full Council Meeting in January 2010. MDC have also indicated that they would be minded to re-locate some of their housing services from Sherwood Street to the Town Hall. This will again be the focus of the front page of the Warsop News November edition. The picture of the town hall will have a big green tick through it this time.

The Carrs

Plans are now available of the new wider footbridge which Earl Engineering are to start soon and should be in place early next year. Cllr. Kerr reported that a feasibility study on the Carrs is being looked at by MDC.

Meden Baths

Cllr. Allin reported that a brand new Meden School will be built with sports facilities but no wet facility. Cllr. Allin said he would ask NCC for officer support to put together a Lottery bid for a total refurbishment or a new wet facility.

Neighbourhood Partnership

Cllr. Kerr reported that progress is now being made and with a new structure it can move forward, the next meeting of the Steering Group will be on 3rd November and the Participatory Budget event will take place on Saturday 21st November at the Oaklands £18,000 is available for projects including £5,000 for health.

Christmas Market

Plans are well underway and there has been a lot of positive feedback from traders and stall holders. There will be a firework display to open the event with the switching on of the lights by our Superhero Barry and our Carnival Queen Lauren. A FREE shuttle bus service has been arranged to pick up in the surrounding villages. The Xmas FACTOR will showcase out talented kids with judges including Hope Bradley, winner of Warsop's Got Talent 2008 and the Mayor of Mansfield Tony Eggington.

Kids take the plunge without hitting the pocket!

Children are being encouraged to dive into a healthier lifestyle as they are given the opportunity to swim for free at Meden Sports Centre in Warsop from 1 November this year.

All youngsters aged 16 and under will be able to swim for free at the centre as part of the government's free swimming initiative. Free swimming sessions will also be available at the Rebecca Adlington Swimming Centre in Mansfield, when it re-opens in January after a £5million redevelopment. Initially, the free swimming for 16 year-olds and under will be available until March 2011 and will cost the Council and estimated £50,000 in lost revenue, which will be met by a grant from the Government. Mansfield District Council has offered free swimming sessions for over 60s at all Council run pools since 1 April this year.

Councillor Eddie Smith, Portfolio Holder for the Environment at Mansfield District Council, commented: "I am thrilled that we are now in a position to be able to offer free swimming for those aged 16 and under in the district of Mansfield. Swimming is an excellent form of exercise and an ideal way for young people to make friends, have fun and keep fit. I would encourage any parents to take their children along to the free swim sessions at Meden Sports Centre, or from January at the new Rebecca Adlington Swimming Centre."

Book Review

Alamein

by Iain Gale

Iain Gale is a respected military historian and his Jack Steel Trilogy has been enjoyed by lovers of the Sharpe novels. Now he has moved into the more recent times of World War Two and his new novel is about the eleven days in the sands of North Africa which changed history forever. If this battle hadn't been won as it was then the course of history would have totally altered. October 1942, Germany and its Axis partners seemed to be triumphant everywhere...almost within reach of the Suez Canal.. and Britain and its allies were in trouble. America had not yet joined the war and Churchill needed a victory to survive. In this novel the story from the viewpoints of seven of those who took part, on both sides, of those eleven days is told as the tide of war began to turn..

The Gropes

by Tom Sharpe

This is a long awaited new novel from Tom Sharpe. Hilarious as you would expect. The Groves of Grope Hall are one of those families still living in the same house which their family built centuries ago. From before the Norman Conquests in fact. The story is about what happens when women take charge. This eccentric family is dominated by strong-willed oversexed women who are determined to produce more female heirs. whether their desired partners are willing or not! Young Esmond is abducted and lured to Grope Hall and his kidnap sets off a stream of farcical events which should have readers laughing out loud. Try it.

'The Last Song'

by Nicholas Sparks

Lovers of 'The Time Traveller's Wife' are sure to love the new novel by bestselling author Nicholas Sparks. Both, in turns, a compelling family drama and a heartrending tale of young love.

Seventeen year old Veronica "Ronnie" Miller's life was turned upside-down when her parents divorced and her father moved from New York City to Wilmington, North Carolina. Three years later, she remains angry and alienated from her parents, especially her father...until her mother decides it would be in everyone's best interest if she spent the summer in Wilmington with him. Ronnie's father, a former concert pianist and teacher, is living a quiet life in the beach town, immersed in creating a work of art that will become the centerpiece of a local church.

The tale that unfolds is an unforgettable story of love on many levels--first love, love between parents and children -- that demonstrates, as only a Nicholas Sparks novel can, the many ways that love can break our hearts...and heal them.

A Week in December

by Sebastian Faulks

"A Week in December" is Sebastian Faulks' first wholly contemporary novel. Set in London, it's a brilliant social satire, structured like a thriller, that takes place over the course of a single week at the end of 2007. It brings together an intriguing cast of characters, each apparently in his or her own world but - as gradually becomes clear - ultimately intricately related. The anti-hero, John Veals, is a shadily successful and ambitious Dickensian figure who is trading billions. Other characters include a teenage Muslim fanatic, a Polish footballer, a female tube driver, a literary critic, a care worker and a chutney tycoon. As the story builds to its climax, Faulks pulls together powerful ideas about family, money, religion, and the way we live now.

THE ROYAL BRITISH LEGION

A big thank you to all who are supporting our Poppy Appeal either by collecting or wearing a poppy with pride.

Our AGM was very successful and our next meeting is now the 14th December, 7.45pm at the Memorial Club, Church Warsop.

The Remembrance Parade leaves the Ex-Servicemen's Club, Carr Lane at 10.20am on the 8th and a short service will take place at 10.45am on the 11th/11 at Warsop Vale Memorial.

THE SCOUTS AT THE CENOTAPH

Since 1922, there has been an Honour Guard of Queen's Scouts (and formerly King's Scouts) flanking the door from the Foreign & Commonwealth Office to the Cenotaph. There are no remaining written records in The Scout Association archives to tell us precisely the history of the first Honour Guard, but it is probable that the King's Scouts were there at the request of King George V himself.

So, what exactly did Scouts do in the First and Second World Wars that qualifies them to mount an Honour Guard at the Foreign & Commonwealth Office to this day, and to stand to attention in front of the Queen, the Prime Minister, Cabinet Ministers and all the representatives of Commonwealth countries as they file past? Well, for a start, an enormous number of Scouts served in the armed forces, police force and fire service since 1908, and have been highly valued by their regiments and squadrons for their prior knowledge and training. Many Scouts served in ambulance units, air raid patrols, and other civilian services.

By the end of the World War 2 more than 60,000 Scouts had been awarded the National Service Badge for their work at home. They had worked as First Aid orderlies, signallers, telephonists, Air Raid Precaution (ARP) messengers, stretcher-bearers, Coast Watch, Home Guard instructors and Rest Centre assistants. They had made camouflage nets, helped evacuate thousands of younger children from bombed city centres, harvested millions of tonnes of food and animal fodder, chopped wood on a massive scale (around 600,000 hours), and salvaged glass, metal and rubber for re-use.

However, it was the service performed by Scouts during air raids and the Blitz on London that showed outstanding courage and application of the words of the Scout Promise and Law. Eighty young Scouts were given Scouting gallantry medals, and in London, Coventry and Liverpool the Silver Cross (Scouting) was awarded to entire Troops. Individual Scouts were awarded the George Medal and George Cross. Fifteen Scouts just old enough to serve in the forces were awarded the Victoria Cross. One particular service Scouts gave to London was guiding fire engines in from the outskirts of the city by the quickest routes to blazing buildings. When they couldn't get any closer to the fires because of the danger, the Scouts provided First Aid treatment and a barricade to stop others getting too close. In an air raid on Manchester, Scouts rushed burned and wounded firemen to hospital and returned to the scene to carry on their First Aid work. In many cases, older Scouts took over from Leaders who had joined up or been killed, in order to keep Troops together.

That's just a small indication of the support and service given by Scouts at a time when their skills, training and team-spiritiveness were called upon constantly. The uniform made them instantly recognisable as individuals who could be trusted to give directions or provide a focus in a crisis, such as an air raid. So, on the eleventh day of the eleventh month every year, Scouts march at the tail of the procession of veterans, alongside Guides and members of the Boys' Brigade who have also provided civilian services to the public. From the 1930s until the late 1950s, London's Rover Scouts had their own service and procession past the Cenotaph, and thousands came from all over the country to march.

Remembrance Sunday for Scouts isn't about marching like soldiers or glorifying war. It's about representing fellow Scouts who 'did their best' in frightening and dangerous circumstances for the sake of their community and their country. Last year, one lonely placard, waving above the heads of the crowd, read 'The Young Are Grateful'.

Natural Equine Remedies

Natures remedies for your horse or pony

Autumn is well and truly here, the colours are gorgeous and what a lovely time of year to ride. Unfortunately my Boulonnais mare Sky had other ideas.

My friend Jane and I spent 1½ hrs trying to get her out on a ride in the end we had to give up and let her go back into the field I know this wasn't the correct thing to do but from past experience I could have been there the following morning. I did manage to hack out the day after so maybe she was having an off day.

I hope you have all been harvesting nettles and berries I know it is time consuming but how rewarding to use supplements you have gathered yourself.

This month I have found some good ideas on the net using stuff most of use will have in the kitchen cupboards.

Honey

Excellent for wound healing particularly if it is infected.

The high levels of sugar in honey help inhibit bacterial growth.

Cayenne pepper and hot mustard

Add a teaspoon or two to petroleum jelly, (Vaseline) it works to deter other equines chewing on manes and tails. Also put on bandages and spread on stable doors to stop cribbing.

Be very careful not to get any in your or your horse's eyes or other sensitive areas.

Raw Onion

I haven't tried this but I will be doing.

Use internally and externally.

Very effective in decreasing the irritation caused by itching particularly due to bites and stings.

Apply a slice or some pulped raw onion to the area of irritation and I quote "you will be amazed at the results"

Onion and ginger

Both are anti-inflammatory

Internally and externally, ginger has the added benefit of being warming. It stimulates circulation and can help bring down swellings e.g. swollen legs.

Both onion and ginger can be added to your horses feed. Onions can be added by whizzing them in a blender with cider vinegar. Use an onion a day appropriate to the size of your equine, split between feeds.

Ginger powder can be sprinkled directly into the feed, between 1-4 teaspoons depending on size of your equine and some horses may need to get used to it so use a smaller dose to start off with.

Thyme

Thyme is an excellent lung herb and is very useful for coughs. It was apparently prescribed for whooping cough in kids.

Mix a fresh handful of Thyme into feed twice a day, do not use all the time; only if your horse has a stubborn cough.

Happy and safe riding

Jane Revill

by Ann Thompson

Hello All,

We have started using weights now in our Core Conditioning class at the Methodist Church, but only if you want to use them. The exercises can be done without. Next week we will be also using the pilate's ball exercises.

This is a very small soft ball with no weight. Excellent for tightening those abdominals. So lots of exercises for that Core area, so you will never get bored with the same old thing. Two weeks ago I attended a 4 hour workshop on Functional Fitness, it was awesome! Finishing off with a bootcamp type session. I managed to do it!! So I have loads of work for you to practise. I have a few people coming to class with hypertension (blood pressure) under Dr's orders. This weeks Focus is on some foods that will help lower blood pressure. Hope that you enjoy these snippets of info. Most of this info is the latest from the Fitness Professionals of which I am a member. Come and join us you will enjoy it. It's a laugh! Keep smiling & exercising.

Ann Thompson

10 FOODS to help lower blood pressure!

- 1 Eggs. A recent study in the journal of Agriculture & Food Chemistry found that eggs contain peptides that work on a similar way to hypertension medication lowering blood pressure.
- 2 Oily Fish. A lack of omega-3 essential fatty acids found in oily fish is linked to a raised blood pressure, so learn to love fresh salmon, tuna, mackerel & sardines. All of the above that are tinned contain omega-3 but can be high in salt.
- 3 Pulses. Research from University of Navarra, Spain found that a diet high in fibre rich vegetarian protein sources helped reduce people's hypertension risk by up to 50 per cent.
- 4 Bananas. These are a good source of potassium, and make a filling and healthy snack.
- 5 Garlic. Research from the University of Alabama U.S.A, found that a compound produced when garlic is metabolised in the body could relax the blood vessels, enhancing blood flow and lowering blood pressure.
- 6 Raisins & Sultanas. Another impressively high potassium food (530mg per 50g serving around 1 seventh of our daily requirement) which has the added bonus of a great substitute when you are watching your weight and help keep your blood pressure under control.
- 7 Bran Flakes- the Spanish research that recommended vegetarian protein also found that high-fibre carbohydrates such as bran cereal have a similar effect. Check the nutritional info of the packaging as some can be high in salt & sugar.
- 8 Beetroot- this is another excellent potassium source providing 510mg per 100g. It's also great for antioxidant plant pigments, which help keep our artery walls smooth, stretchy and healthy.
- 9 Skimmed Milk. It's not only low in calories and fat, but a study from the Brigham Woman's Hospital U.S.A found that women with the highest intakes of low-fat dairy products were less likely to develop hypertension, compared to women with lower intakes.
- 10 Hazelnuts. A 50g serving of hazelnuts provide 365mg of potassium as well as a good amount of artery-friendly unsaturated fats. Their high protein content makes them a nutritious, sustaining snack but watch the portion size as calories can soon add up.

Harvest Thanksgiving

On Sunday 20th September, Harvest Thanksgiving was celebrated at St Peter and St Paul's Church, Warsop. The service was well attended. The sermon was in the form of a dramatic presentation given by the Rev Paul Lawlor and members of Powerhouse.

Prayers were led by the children. The Rev Kathryn Herrod conducted communion. Harvest gifts were donated by members of Warsop Allotments and members of the congregation. Harvest was also celebrated at St Augustine's, Sookholme. The P.C.C. would like to thank all those who helped to decorate the churches for the services. All produce will be given to the Salvation Army for distribution. A special collection was organised in aid of 'Farm Africa' to help towards the construction of farms and the training of a workforce to enable communities to become self-sufficient.

Thank You Letters.

Donald Clark

Iris and family would like to thank everyone who attended the funeral of a dear Husband, Dad, Grandad and Great Grandad. Thank you all for your lovely cards and messages of support and donations in lieu of flowers totalling £175.00 for the British Heart Foundation. Special thanks goes to all the carers from Workwise Healthcare for all the love, kindness and care you gave us all. Special thanks also to Julie Tovey, Community Matron and all District Nurses. Thank you to Dr Allen and all his colleagues at Meden Medical Centre. Lastly, thank you to Eric Townroe for his support, kindness and guidance throughout a very difficult time for us all.

From Iris Clark and family

Thank you Malcolm Lees

Having attended the Civic Theatre at Mansfield on Sunday 20th September 2009, I was very upset and saddened to find out this was to be the very last show and performance of the Malcolm Lees Ladies Choir. Under the baton and leadership of Malcolm, the choir travelled to other countries and various counties in our country to raise money and win trophies for our area. I, myself, have enjoyed attending several concerts given by the choir and would like to thank both Malcolm and his wife, along with the choir for the wonderful work they have done over the years. Please note, I will miss my glass of wine and mince pie at Christmas so many thanks to all. Many thanks also go to Mr M Smith from Radio Nottingham who compered the shows and didn't make a bad job at all, you pass your test first time! Thanks.

Malcolm, get well soon, let's see you soon, chin up and keep smiling.

Thanking one and all

Cllr Dennis Priest - Warsop Parish Council

A big, big thank you...

...to Matt Owen from Bodyworks and AB Cars, from Church Street for their kindness and thoughtfulness, for helping me when my red car needed repairing.

In the evening, a Harvest Supper was served in the Tudor Barn. A meal of home made soups and puddings was enjoyed by those present. The entertainment was in the form of a quiz on various topics. The P.C.C. would like to thank all those who prepared the venue, prepared and served the food and drink to make the event an enjoyable occasion.

Muzo's NEWS & UPDATES

Welcome to the "Muzo's" column, keeping you up to date with news and information about what's been happening in the world of Muzo's and what we have planned for the future.

Recording Studio

The Muzo's recording studio is still awaiting a part from the repair shop to get back into action, we are hoping that this may be done before November.

The new Black Market Rock n Blues nights are well under way with a wide range of people coming from other towns and counties but still a poor show from the locality.

In October, most of you missed;

Fri 2nd - The Sean Webster band, a fabulous melodic blues band from Nottingham, an excellent band tipped for bigger things in the future and a possible Eric Clapton support. Its just amazing to see this sort of quality outside the big stadiums.

Thurs 8th - Geof Achison band (Australia)
the 1st uk tour in 3 years. The simple description of this night was amazing!!! everyone in attendance was completely blown away by the variety and quality of the sound, Geof's guitar playing has to be seen to be believed!! Look out for this band in the future!!

Wed 14th - Adam Bomb (USA)
a grand total of 3 people turned up to see this veteran of the world touring circuit, an extremely energetic american rock show which fills many venues throughout the UK but we only managed to attract 3 guys from Clowne, but they had a great personal show!!

Fri 16th - Fade 2 Black a good old classic rock n blues covers set by this multi talented outfit, a shame the female rythm guitarist didn't sing a few more, she was by far the best singer in the band.

For this month don't miss the great Rob Tognoni, an unmissable power rock n blues expert from Australia, come on Warsop, lets show the rest of the country that we know the difference between a world class band and a Kebab!!!!
