EDITOR'S LETTER

It's a lovely sunny day as I write this but still very cold.

I'm fed up of being cold now and we can't afford to turn the heating up in the Town Hall, Karen & I are sat here in our coats! Best thing we ever did, we are still getting along fine (not strangled her yet lol!) and Warsop News isn't as stressful for us now, especially now we go to the pub on a Friday!

We are busy also sorting out the Carnival. Acts are being booked and stall booking forms are available from the Town Hall. We still need volunteers, so if you can join the committee and help with the planning or you want to help on the day call in and see us.

We have a new hairdresser's opened on Sherwood Street.

We have received lovely comments about Tessa, our Junior Correspondent, from Purr-fect Nails, so if you would like her to write an article and take your photo, email her.

Gardening Monthly...

April is great, the soil is warming up and spring should be here. Do keep an eye on the weather forecast though, even in the south of England a cold snap and snow are not unknown in April. Keeping horticultural fleece on standby in case of cold weather is a good idea.

Harvest

We're in the 'Hungry Gap' between the last of the winter crops and start of the early crops but there are still a few things available, late sprouting and chards for example plus you may have some early salad crops from the greenhouse border.

Do re-check your stored crops. On a fine day, empty out the potato sacks and check for any rotten potatoes. If you've strung onions, watch out for the odd rotten one and remove it before it spreads.

General Jobs in the Garden

If you have any horticultural fleece, you can peg that onto the ground a week or so before you plant. The small rise in temperature of the soil can make a big difference

Sowing, Planting and Cultivating

There's quite a list to sow and plant outside, especially if March has not been suitable.

Do remember the weeds are springing into action, so keep the hoe going. Don't forget, a sharp hoe is the best friend a gardener can have. Just slide it back and forth slightly below the surface of the soil and you'll stop the weed seedlings in their tracks. Hoeing is also good in the event of drought as the disturbed soil surface stops the water being sucked to the surface by capillary action and evaporating in dry winds.

With your carrots, covering with a fleece and ensuring the edges are buried will stop the carrot root fly from gaining entry to lay eggs by your carrots. The eggs hatch in larvae that burrow into the carrot root, killing the plant or at least ruining the crop.

Plant Outdoors

Globe and Jerusalem Artichokes • Onion & Shallot Sets • Asparagus.

Easter is the traditional potato planting time. If you have a comfrey bed and it has sprung back, the first cut laid in the trench under the potatoes will provide nutrition to get them off to a good start.

On the subject of comfrey, if you make a comfrey tea it will help you to a great crop to use it on your potatoes. Many novice growers wonder why they have small crops of potatoes and most often this is just down to lack of food for this hungry crop.

Sow in Heat (Greenhouse or Windowsill)

Aubergine • Celery • Outdoor Cucumbers • Tomatoes

A good tip for a windowsill is to stick some silver cooking foil onto cardboard and place on the inside to reflect light back onto the seedlings. This will help prevent them being drawn.

Sow Outdoors Under Cloche

French beans • Lettuce • Sweetcorn

Alternative Method for Sweetcorn

I like to pre-chit my sweetcorn, I lay the seeds on a layer of damp kitchen paper and then place a layer of paper over in an airtight box. An old ice-cream carton or a Tupperware type box is ideal. Check carefully each day and as soon as the small white sprout appears, plant the seed about half to an inch deep in a 3" pot of general purpose compost in the greenhouse.

When the shoots appear about an inch high, plant out being careful not to disturb the root (sweetcorn hates root disturbance) under a cloche. Sweetcorn needs a lot of nitrogen and a teaspoon of dried blood per plant or water with urea (this is a chemical, I do not mean pee on them!)

Many of the crops you can sow directly will also benefit from cloching, especially as you move northwards or from being started off in modules in a cool greenhouse or coldframe and then planted out later.

Fruit

Strawberries can be planted out now. It's best to remove flowers in the first year as you conserve strength for growth and gain larger crops in subsequent years. An easy way to gain strawberry plants is to plant the runners into pots and when rooted cut the runner. The plants don't last forever so you need to rotate them ever three to five years.

Hand pollinate peaches and nectarines. Tickle the flowers with a small paint brush to spread the pollen. Cover if a cold spell threatens.

A good layer of compost around the base of fruit trees will ensure they have the nutrition to provide another good crop for you.

Gardener's Pests

I've mentioned the carrot root fly but the gardener's worst enemy is awakening. The evil slugs and snails are coming out to eat entire rows of succulent young seedlings overnight, so take action now.

Tessa's Talking!!

My name is Tessa Searson and I am at present a student at Meden School. I decided to become involved with Warsop & District News because I have always enjoyed writing and thought it would help improve my skills.

However it has proved to be much more involved than I had first anticipated and I am enjoying the challenge. As well as writing the articles I am also meeting and interviewing people, taking photographs and meeting deadlines for press. I have now been the Junior Correspondent of Warsop & District News for 3 months and it has given me responsibility and great achievements.

I have been recognized and praised for my work, and felt proud to be part of something I feel is so important to our community. However, this opportunity will also help me later in life when I am applying for jobs and university places.

By Tessa Searson
W&DN Junior Correspondent
Email: tessa-wdn@hotmail.co.uk

I'd like to share this opportunity with others and give the young people of Warsop like myself a chance to have their say.

If you have done anything you're proud of, such as raised money for charity, received an award or written a short story or poem, or if there's something you're concerned about in the community, just let me know. If you have an interest in fashion, sports, events, movies, music etc. then write about it or review it, this is your chance to be heard!

Email your article and pictures to: tessa-wdn@hotmail.co.uk for a chance to appear in the next issue of W&D news.

Boy oh Boy!!

Meden School pupil Connie Smith, 12, raised a shocking £55.57 on the 18th March for Comic Relief.

Connie agreed to dress up as a boy for the whole day instead of the normal non-uniform, being sponsored by many friends, classmates and family to raise as much money as possible. Many other pupils managed to raise money for Comic Relief by doing various activities and everybody gave at least £1 towards the charity. Well done to Connie and everyone else at Meden School!

Bird Notes...

Hello again, the hint of spring that I wrote about last issue is a little stronger now and the trees are all in bud and by the time that you read this the majority of them will have unfurled.

That's assuming that the weather continues to warm up and that we don't have any more cold spells, like the one that has been forecast for this weekend (12/13th Mar), throwing a spanner in the works!

A sure sign that the season is changing is the emergence of flying insects. While out and about, myself and a friend noticed a couple of large queen bumblebees on the 7th and I had a peacock butterfly sunning itself in a patch of strong sunlight on the back garden the day after. I've also seen emergent gnats and flies- especially on the less windy, sunnier days of the last week or so, as I'm sure many of you have.

The wholesale emergence of over-wintering insects and the hatching of dormant eggs, together with the young caterpillars, larvae and grubs from the freshly laid eggs will provide the nutrition needed for an extraordinarily huge number of birds and their, as yet, unhatched young. Some of the different species that will take a part in this insect bonanza are currently winging their way here, in some cases from as far away as the tip of South Africa and will be here very soon. As the summer migrants numbers start to slowly trickle in (soon to be a flood), their counterparts the winter visitors will depart our shores to return to their breeding areas in the north and east of Europe to take advantage of the insects that will be available when their weather warms up.

The resident birds that stay here all year round will have a slight head start at the beginning of the breeding season on their migrating cousins they can take full advantage if there are periods of warm, equitable weather before the main body of breeding birds that migrate arrive. Of course they will suffer if the weather snaps cold again, as it is wont to do at anytime before the end of April.

With the beginning of the breeding season it is worth reiterating a simple rule concerning nesting birds: If you find a nest, the best thing is to leave it well alone! Disturbing breeding birds at any stage in their nesting cycle usually results in nest failure. If you do feel a need to observe, do so at a reasonable distance. If the birds do not return to normal behaviour and continue to be agitated and alarm call, then you must move farther away from the nest sight. Keeping birds away from their nest even for a minute or so can prove fatal, eggs will be added and small young will rapidly become chilled and die. That said, watching the process of birds making a nest, laying eggs, then having them hatch, and those tiny hatchlings growing to be free flying fledglings is absolutely magical and as a young child the first look into an occupied nest can be the start of a lifelong interest in birds and love of nature. Just remember to try and teach them the right way to do it.

Footpath & Countryside Group

195 years ago a group of local people walked around the edge of the Lordship of Warsop to check on the boundary markers and to ensure that knowledge of the line of the boundary was passed down from generation to generation.

Following the discovery of the document that described the 1816 perambulation, an annual walk has been held along the section of the boundary through Birklands. Stories from the past of the woodlands from over thirteen centuries are told at regular stops along the route. This year's walk will take place on Saturday 16th April starting at 10am and covering a steady four miles. You are welcome to join the Friends of Thynghowe on this event, you just have to phone the Forestry Commission on 822447 to reserve a place.

It was good to see so many people turning out for the walk around the Carrs in late February, suggesting improvements to the Mill Dam, the nature reserve and the rest of the park. Hopefully the Friends of the Carrs will be encouraged by this level of interest and will move forward with increased support. If you are interested in the management of the Carrs, look out for future events. So far this year the Footpaths Group have been making our contribution to the upkeep of the nature reserve by maintaining hedges, clearing brambles and managing some of the trees we planted about 12 years ago. You are welcome to come and support us as well!

By now spring should definitely have sprung! Last year I heard a cuckoo on April 15th, at least a week earlier than usual. The first bluebells may be seen at the end of the month and you may even spot an early purple orchid if you know where to look! After the freeze of last winter I was pleased to see frogs mating in my pond on February 24th although there were fewer pairs than in recent years. This matches their earliest date from the past five years.

If you feel inspired by the warmer weather to take a walk in the local countryside, may I remind you that there are guides for ten 'Warsop Walks' available to download from our website www.wfcg.org.uk.

The Annual General Meeting of Warsop Footpaths and Countryside Group is scheduled to take place on Tuesday 3rd May 2011. Everybody is welcome to attend, contact us for more details.

For the next Footpaths Group walk we are joining the Friends of Thynghowe for the walk around Birklands described at the start of this column. Get in touch if you would like more information.

Ready,

...to a Million Pounds for Warsop Parish

Here is the latest on Warsop's progress towards a £1m award. We can show you how we have been out scouting for successful projects elsewhere that may also be good for Warsop.

The Genesis Centre, Alfreton

On Tuesday 1st March 2011 members of the Warsop Big Lottery Steering Group visited the Genesis Family Entertainment Centre in Alfreton, Derbyshire to research possibilities for Warsop Parish Big Lottery trust.

The day proved to be both informative and inspiring and included a talk by Steve Holmes, a founder member of the centre, who explained how the Genesis centre evolved and where its future aims lie. The group were able to ask questions and gain practical advice from an already well established and successful community organisation. A tour of the facilities available to community residents, businesses, local groups and charity organisations was also arranged.

The Genesis Centre serves the people and businesses throughout the Amber Valley both as a Family Entertainment Centre and a place for business. Their conference facilities and managed workspace provision is second to none.

As well as one of Derbyshire's & East Midlands newest Qubica AMF Tenpin Bowling facilities the Genesis also has a themed Atlantis Indoor soft play centre for kids, a Sports Hall for local groups and individuals to hire and Community rooms where every week local charities and community groups come to connect with their members to discuss ways to improve the lives of people in the area.

This centre features family entertainment with:

- Ten pin bowling
- Soft play area
- Indoor sports hall
- Community Café
- Conference rooms

As part of its income generating activity it runs:

- Managed Office Space
- Vocational training on behalf of local schools
- Adult Education
- 13 dental practices

The group were impressed with the way in which, over 20 years, this project has become a self financing project meeting many of the leisure, business, educational and health needs of the local community.

The Goodwin Trust, Hull

On the 11th March 2011 members also visited The Goodwin Development Trust which operates from the heart of the Thornton Estate in Hull. It is an estate next to the docks with mostly high rise flats.

In the 1990s the Thornton Estate was run down, neglected and rife with ASB, drugs and prostitution. In 1994, 14 residents who were unhappy with the living conditions, crime rate and general lack of services decided they would take on the challenge of creating a better place for local residents to live.

From this catalyst of community spirit and entrepreneurial drive has grown an organisation that truly reflects the ethos of social enterprise. The original core still make up the board of trustees who are local residents.

The original Goodwin Resource Centre opened in a shop in Goodwin parade in June 1994, funded by the Thornton Forum. Following work to obtain additional funding an agreement was reached with Hull City Council to take over an old retirement home on a 125 year lease. Work on the new Goodwin Centre began. The new resource centre was opened in November 1999, marking the beginning of a period of substantial growth for Goodwin.

Ultimately the Trust acquired property on the estate to deliver further local services and benefited greatly from funding from the Labour Government through the Office of the Deputy Prime Minister. Their property portfolio is currently valued at £11m and it has 300 employees delivering services across Hull city.

The local services including:

- Befriending
- e-health
- Handyman Service
- Stop Smoking Service
- Breast Feeding peer support
- Danny's Dream
- Volunteer Doula Project
- Community Café
- Youth work team
- Training and job club
- Family centre
- Community pub
- NEET project
- Community Wardens

These services are all delivered on the estate and they contract for work within the wider city. Their Community Wardens play a key role in identifying problems on the estate and calling in services to address this.

Shine has already agreed to do a media exchange project with some of the young people and has invited them to the carnival in July.

Steady, Go...

What did we find out from our visits?

Warsop has similar problems to the areas that we have visited, some of these include:

- high levels of poverty and unemployment
- crime and fear of crime
- young people with little to do
- poor qualifications and health
- feelings of isolation
- older people who are afraid or unable to go out

Warsop has many services that work on these issues but they do not always plan together.

It is important to have a long term plan to serve our community and invest in its people.

How does the Big Lottery money help Warsop?

The Big Lottery Fund wants to make a difference to the lives of people in need, and help people improve their lives over the long-term.

We want to provide long-term help that supports and joins up with the valuable work already being carried out at a community level.

Many organisations in the community and voluntary sector are passionate about making a difference in neighbourhoods like Warsop. Many individuals and enterprises are also already working within our neighbourhoods from day to day, improving things. They need support that recognises and builds their strengths, gives them the resources to go further, and helps others to come forward and do their bit. This is what the Big Local Trust is for.

What will we do next?

We recognise that we have many assets in Warsop such as our schools, open spaces, businesses, social groups and hard working individuals with great ideas.

However, we need to capture all of these to find out what is missing and how we can fill in the gaps.

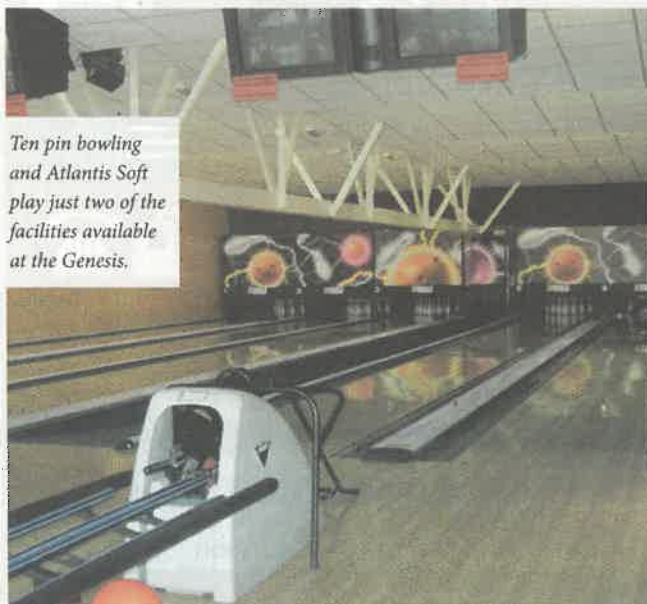

We will be mapping all of Warsop's assets, and there are many.

We will use the knowledge we have gained from our visits to report and work towards asking you how local services should be delivered in the future – beginning with a display at the WARSOP CARNIVAL on 3rd July 2011.

All previous articles with information about the BIG Local can be found on the WARSOP WEB at www.warsopweb.co.uk

Getting a Job, a Real Family Affair

Hopes were high as local unemployed people from Warsop joined people from across the Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire coalfields and boarded buses for a major Jobs Fair in the Festival Hall in Kirby in Ashfield.

The service was provided by the Coalfields Regeneration Trust's "Family Employment Initiative (FEI)", which runs a very popular Job club in Warsop Town Hall Mondays and Wednesdays. On the bus were 8 people from the FEI Job Club, two of whom were brothers and another two were brother and sister.

The Family effort was noticeable among others on the bus too, such as father and daughter team Henry and Sheila from Bolsover.

"The Bus to the Jobs Fair was a really good idea. I have been wanting to work with East Midlands Airport and they were there on the day, it was a really good opportunity to talk to them," said Henry. His daughter Sheila added, "I am so pleased I came, it's a great opportunity and pointed me in the right direction, I have spoken to the NHS and now at least I know that the job I want is out there"

Pauline Campbell, (FEI Community Employment, Adviser) who is based at the Town Hall said, "The Coalfields Regeneration Trust works with families in coalfield communities across Derbyshire and Nottinghamshire. We pride ourselves on our ability to get to the heart of the community and go that extra mile to help people get work in this difficult environment. Of the 8 people who went along to the Job Fair from Warsop, 4 have since found work, which is very good news."

Lisa, one of the people who took advantage of the bus said, "With everything getting so expensive I was glad to find somewhere to go where I get to do my jobsearch for free. The FEI Job Club provides me with free access to the internet, free postage and free use of the phone and Pauline's always on hand to help me with my jobsearch and online applications, today they have even laid on this free bus to take us out to a Jobs Fair at Kirkby."

30 people from FEI projects across Derbyshire and Nottinghamshire took advantage of the buses which were free of charge and provided by Clown Community Transport: Jill Meads the manger said, "When CRT approached us we were happy to help because the Trust has supported us over the years."

The Jobs Fair was organised by Jobcentreplus and brought dozens of employers both local and national into one spot:

Paul Toner (CRT Senior Programmes Manager) commented:

"This was too good an opportunity to miss and is a good example of how projects CRT have supported in the East Midland's coalfields come together to help each other and provide opportunities for local people"

Mansfield District Council Update...

New ways to pay

Mansfield District Council is replacing three of its area payment offices with new more convenient ways to pay bills and giving residents much more choice in the process.

From 1 April this year, customers who prefer to pay Council bills in cash can do so at any Post Office (there are 15 in the Mansfield district), any PayPoint location (there are 40 in the Mansfield district) or at Mansfield Civic Centre payment office, which is being retained.

As a result of the change, existing Council payment offices at Sandy Lane in Mansfield, Sherwood Street in Warsop and the Market Place in Mansfield Woodhouse will close on 31 March.

PayPoint facilities are usually located within newsagents, general stores or off licenses, meaning they are often also open at weekends and in evenings. You can find your nearest PayPoint facility by visiting the website, HYPERLINK "http://www.paypoint.co.uk/locator" www.paypoint.co.uk/locator

Customers should always take their bar-coded bill or rent card with them when making payments at a PayPoint location or the Post Office.

As part of the revamp - and in line with many major businesses - Mansfield District Council will no longer be able to directly accept cheques for payment of bills and rent from 1 April.

However, customers who still wish to pay by cheque can still do so at any Post Office.

The changes mean that there are now seven different options for residents in the Mansfield District when they are paying bills to the Council:

- Direct Debit
- Via the Council website - www.mansfield.gov.uk
- Telephone payments to 01623 428 632
- Standing Orders
- Online banking
- By cash at the Civic Centre, Post Office or PayPoint, or
- By cheque at the Post Office.

The new Post Office and PayPoint facilities will not be available until 1 April. Up to and including 31 March, customers should continue to use the existing payment offices.

Councillor Roger Sutcliffe, Portfolio Holder for Resources at Mansfield District Council said: "The increasing popularity of Direct Debit, telephone payments and internet payments has resulted in fewer customers using the Payment Offices but we're still keen to give residents as much choice as possible to pay in a way that is convenient for them."

"Switching from Council run payment offices to the Post Office and PayPoint network provides much better customer service. The number of locations where people can pay bills by cash is increasing from four to more than 50, many of which are open much longer hours than the existing payment offices."

District Council Elections 2011

District Council elections Mansfield District Council elections are held every four years.

This year for the first time Mansfield District Council will be adopting a new single member ward system, which means there will be just one Councillor for each of the district's 36 new smaller wards.

In the District Council election, electors are allowed to vote for one candidate. The election uses the first-past-the-post system, in simple terms the candidate who receives the most votes is elected.

In the unlikely event of only one candidate being nominated to stand for election in a particular ward, that candidate will be automatically elected unopposed, without the need for a vote.

Parish Council elections

Voters in Market Warsop, Church Warsop, Warsop Vale and Meden Vale will also have the opportunity to elect members to Warsop Parish Council.

Because of the boundary changes, the Warsop Parish will be divided into four wards (Netherfield, Meden, Warsop Carrs and Market Warsop), with three seats in each ward. Electors therefore will be allowed to vote for up to three candidates.

If three or less candidates are nominated in a particular ward, those candidates will be automatically elected unopposed, without the need for a vote.

The Mayoral election

Mansfield District Council has had an Elected Mayor since 2002 and this will be the third Mayoral election in the Mansfield District.

An Elected Mayor is different to a traditional ceremonial Mayor or a Council Leader. The Mayor is elected by the people, whereas ceremonial Mayors and Council Leaders are elected by fellow Councillors.

It is the Elected Mayor's job to lead and represent the Council and its residents locally and nationally. He or she has to make vital decisions about the Council's policies and services and how it spends its money.

It's also the Mayor's job to select a Cabinet made up of Councillors to help him or her develop and implement those policies.

Voting at the Mayoral Election

The Supplementary Voting System is used at the Mayoral Election.

There are two columns on the ballot paper so you can vote for your first choice and second choice candidate, although making a second choice is not compulsory.

If one candidate gets more than half of the first choice votes, he or she will become our Mayor.

If no candidate gets more than half the first choice votes, the two candidates with the most first choice votes remain in the election and all the other candidates are eliminated from the contest.

The second choice votes of the eliminated candidates are then counted and any that have been cast for the two remaining candidates are added to their total. The candidate who then has the highest overall total of votes is declared the Elected Mayor of the Mansfield District.

Pushing the boundaries

A major review of ward boundaries and local representation in the Mansfield District will take effect from the elections on 5 May.

Currently the Mansfield district is divided up into 19 areas, or wards, with two or three councillors elected to represent each ward on Mansfield District Council.

There are 46 District Councillors in total. In Warsop there are currently two wards - Meden and Birklands - with three Councillors in each.

However, under new arrangements to be implemented on 5 May the district is to be divided into 36 smaller wards, with one councillor representing each ward. The boundaries of all current wards have been changed, as have many of the names.

As a result of the changes, the total number of district councillors is being reduced from 46 to 36.

The Warsop Parish area will be divided into four wards - Netherfield, Meden, Warsop Carrs and Market Warsop. One Councillor will be elected to represent each ward.

Mansfield District Council invited the Electoral Commission for England to review its ward boundaries and system of local representation in 2009.

One of the main aims of the review was to try to ensure electoral equality, which means that all councillors represent approximately the same number of electors. The new proposals for Mansfield mean each Councillor will represent around 2,300 electors.

The review also tried to ensure that individual community identities are maintained and most importantly that the new set-up provides for an effective and convenient local government for residents.

The review has passed through a number of stages and public consultations prior to the final proposals being published by the Local Government Boundary Commission for England (LGBCE) in September 2010. They have now been approved by Parliament.

Full details about the new wards and all the reports produced during the review process are available on the LGBCE website at www.lgbce.org.uk

The district decides - Mansfield goes to the polls

Voters in the Mansfield district will go to the polls to elect their Mayor, Mansfield District Councillors and Warsop Parish Councillors on Thursday 5 May.

At the same time, a national referendum about the voting system that is used at future General Elections will also be taking place.

The Elections timetable

Key dates between now and the run-up to this year's elections and referendum in the Mansfield district are as follows:

- 24 March The official start of the elections period. Prospective candidates can submit nomination papers from this date until 4 April.
- 4 April Deadline for candidates to submit nomination papers.
- 6 April Publication of Persons nominated (the list of candidates) for Mayoral, District Council and Parish Council elections.
- 7 April Deadline for withdrawal of candidates for Mayoral, (12pm) District Council and Parish Council elections.
- 14 April Deadline for making postal vote applications, (5pm) including postal proxy applications, and for changes to an existing postal or proxy vote. (A proxy vote is where you give someone you trust official consent to vote on your behalf).
- 14 April Deadline registering to vote at all elections and referendum on 5 May 2011.
- 18/19 April Postal votes delivered (please note this is an approximate date).
- 21 April Deadline for new applications to vote by proxy (5pm) (not postal proxy). Proxy votes can be requested after this date, but only in the case of a proven medical emergency.
- 5 May Polling day.

For further information about your vote or standing for election for Mayor, a District Councillor or a Parish Councillor call the Elections team at Mansfield District Council on 01623 463 345.

Have your say on the voting system

An important referendum about the voting system we use to elect our local MP in the future will also be held on 5 May.

The Referendum will ask voters if they want to stick with the current first-past-the-post system or switch to the Alternative Vote (AV) system.

This is a national referendum and although all the votes cast in the Mansfield District will be counted in the Mansfield District, they will contribute towards the total votes cast across the country.

Only registered voters who are entitled to vote at parliamentary elections will be able to vote in the Referendum.

What is AV?

Rather than marking one solitary 'X' on the ballot paper, under the AV system the voter has the chance to rank each candidate in order of preference with a number (1, 2, 3 etc).

After marking your first preference, you then have the option to express further preferences for as many or as few candidates as you wish.

When all the votes are counted, if a candidate receives a majority of first preference votes - in other words more than 50% - then they are elected.

If no candidate gains a majority then the candidate in last place is eliminated and their votes are reallocated according to the next highest preference expressed on each ballot paper. If a voter has not marked a preference for any candidate that remains in the contest, then their ballot paper will be set aside from the count.

This process will continue until a candidate has a majority of the votes left in the count and is elected.

Look out for the Electoral Commission's booklet about the referendum which should be delivered to households by mid-April.

What you'll be asked

The Referendum will ask one yes or no question - At present, the UK uses the 'first past the post' system to elect MPs to the House of Commons. Should the 'Alternative Vote' System be used instead?

Banning Mosquito Devices

Mansfield District Youth Assembly discussed banning mosquito devices at their last county meeting.

February 8th at the Civic Centre Mansfield saw the Executive group meeting of Mansfield District Youth Assembly which includes the Youth Mayor, Deputy Youth Mayor and Member of Youth Parliament. This was followed by the county meeting on February 20th.

What have they been working on this month?

Their campaigns include:

- Building a positive image of young people
- Banning the mosquito devices in Nottinghamshire
- Fighting against the EMA cuts.

This month sees the work of young people from across the district go on display - take a look at their work in the window display next to the new toilets in Mansfield.

Feel free to give your feedback or if you're a young person wanting to get involved please feel free to contact MDYA as they would love to hear from you

They also went on a Mansfield Save Our Services march to raise awareness of what the cuts are going to mean to many young people. It was a very exciting event to be involved in.

Banning the mosquito devices - do you agree they should be banned please send us your comments. They have done some extensive work to produce a power point presentation and a petition about the harm these devices do to young people and children. These are available if you are interested in being involved.

The next date for MDYA is 30th March if you would like to get involved please get in touch.

The next date of the Executive group meeting April 5th if you have any issues and would like the Executive group to discuss them, please send them via email to:

50 Years on and Still Going Strong

Colin and Patricia Ann Nuttall celebrated their Golden Anniversary with a family party at The Oaklands on 19th March.

Colin and Patricia, who met at The Old Picture House in Warsop in 1956 were later married on the 18th March 1961 and had their honeymoon in London.

Patricia was born in Meden Vale and Colin in Warsop. They both attended Birklands School, which was then a Secondary School, but never met until after they had both left.

Patricia worked at a shoe company for 6 years until they started a family, after which she stayed at home to take care of them, whilst Colin worked as a brick layer until 1963 when he became a self employed builder.

In 1974 they bought two old properties which were demolished so they could build a home for their family, where they still live in today.

Their family consists of three children, Darrell, Beverly and Michelle and seven grandchildren. Colin and Patricia enjoy gardening, music concerts, having meals out, walking their dogs and spending time with their grandchildren.

Colin is a Nottingham Forest fan, and a season ticket holder along with son Darrell.

They both holidays abroad and to Scotland to visit their family. They have also toured America, where they flew over the Grand Canyon and Canada where they experienced white water rafting and visited Niagra Falls.

Elmton & Creswell Village Company has sponsored 'After School Activities' on Tuesdays and Wednesdays in Limestone House since 11th January 2011.

60 Schoolchildren from Whitwell School and Whaley Thorns schools have been involved in the project 'Past and Present' using Computers and Internet to choose places of Heritage in our locality, research their chosen topic and they then made a podcast in the Limestone Recording Studio so that they can share their knowledge about their Heritage with their school friends.

The school children enjoyed free transport to this fun learning as they were transported by the Village Company Minibus, which was funded by the Access Alliance programme. During February half term, thanks to a grant from Councillor Duncan McGregor, Creswell children were invited to join in on Monday for fun learning, 'Using Computers and Internet'. The children entered into a Quiz of general knowledge using internet to research the questions and to gain the answer, and they thoroughly enjoyed the session.

On Wednesday a Karaoke and Drumming session was held for young people in Limestone Studio.

The Future

The 63rd meeting of Meden Vale the Future was held at the Village Hall on Tuesday 8 March 2011. 6 members of the Committee were present plus 2 Representatives from the Playscheme. There were 6 apologies.

It was reported that work on the new pavilion was proceeding according to plan. An application has been prepared by Fundsport UK for Lottery funding regarding the new road access to the pavilion and the village hall. This will improve disabled access to both facilities. The Committee has raised £1,000 towards the total cost for this application which is £2,000.

Following resignations from the Youth Club Committee, it is unlikely that the Youth Club will continue in its current format. A letter is to be sent to the Treasurer requesting payment for outstanding rent and reimbursement for damages caused to the property whilst being used by Youth Club members.

The Treasurer reported that outgoings were exceeding receipts, but this was to be expected owing to the additional winter costs.

Work on the new outside doors has not commenced although funding is in place for them. The building Contractor has been notified that we are awaiting a start date.

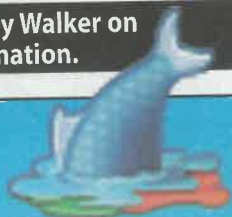

An invitation has been received to visit the 'SHINE' project at Meden Vale School. Two members of the Committee have expressed an interest in attending and a date is to be arranged.

The Chairman advised that the necessary paperwork for the Annual Trustees Charity Commission Report had been prepared and will be submitted on-line this week.

Next meeting will be held on Tuesday 5th April 2011 at 7.30 pm at the Village Hall. All welcome.

Please contact the Secretary, Kay Walker on 01623 844282 for further information.

Merry Christmas in February?

The Age Concern Warsop and District Annual Christmas dinner held at the Oaklands in Warsop finally took place on Wednesday 2nd February after being postponed due to the snowy weather. All good things come to those who wait. Ha Ha.

The dinner this year was Turkey with all the trimming and Christmas pudding with custard. After dinner they were entertained by local singer Mr. Tim Cutts who even sang a few Christmas songs to go with the party hats.

A free raffle was drawn and Sherry and mince pies served before everyone made their merry way home.

The Age Concern committee would like to thank all the volunteers for their commitment and hard work which makes this event possible each year.

The exclusive new development at Fountain Park, Sherwood Energy Village in Ollerton, is proving to be a popular development for the over 55's. Phase 1 has now been fully tenanted with the 2nd phase due to be released in January 2011.

Fountain Park with 36 two bedroom bungalows and 18 two bedroom apartments, has been designed to foster a sense of community, while providing independent and stylish living. There is easy access to the local supermarket and a play centre to take the grandchildren when visiting.

The bungalows offer one double and one single bedroom, and have the benefit of a breakfast kitchen with hob oven and extractor and allocated parking. The bathroom has a white suite with separate shower and bath. The 18 apartments are located in two small blocks on the complex and offer a similar layout and accommodation to the bungalows.

The development, created with the over 55's in mind, is designed to accommodate disabled adaptations, if needed and consideration will be given to applications from part or full housing benefit tenants.

As an exclusive offer, cut out this voucher and present when making an application for a £200 1st month discount to help assist your moving costs.

The Dukeries Singers are available for Weddings, Memorial Services, Funerals, Christenings and Concerts.

We have had a good response to our articles in the Warsop News, we now have a 35 member strong, mixed voice choir, but new voices are most welcome. There are no auditions and no necessity to read music, just a desire to sing with a happy friendly group.

We rehearse on Wednesday evenings at the Adult Day Centre at the Dukeries School. Access is from the Whinney Lane entrance and car park. Rehearsal time is 7.30pm to 9.30pm.

Just turn up and give us a go or contact our Chairman Alan Sinclair on 01623 823271

Hope to see you soon.

Former Meden Pupil Enjoys Fairytale Success

By Adrian Hardy

Acclaimed author Gareth Thompson has had three books released by the major London publishers Random House. They are The Great Harlequin Grim, which was nominated for the Branford Boase award; Sunshine to the Sunless, nominated for the Carnegie Medal and UK Literacy Award; and most recently The Anarchist's Angel.

His next book, The Sea Swallow, will be published this summer by Foxtail. A commissioned fairytale, it explores the timeless drama of the Lancashire coastline. To coincide with the book's release, a number of waterfront sculptures based on the story will be unveiled. These include a tidal blow hole which spurts water, a ten-metre beacon with two sea swallows, a golden shell, and a Sea-Ogre's paddle carved in timber. The launch of The Sea Swallow, together with the unveiling of these sculptures, will be one of northern England's biggest art events for years, and is a major part of the coastal regeneration scheme.

Gareth's first novel, The Great Harlequin Grim, is about an unusual bond of friendship between a teenage lad, who has moved from Burnley to Cumbria, and Harlequin - a 'boy giant' on the run who lives rough in an abandoned shack. The book is very enjoyable, with an absorbing storyline which shows the difficulties of being accepted in a small community. The characters are strongly emotive, and Gareth maintains the theme of loyalty throughout. It shows how all actions have consequences, and that even when those responsible for their actions have long left the scene, old mental scars can still exist and take a long time to heal.

Following the success of The Great Harlequin Grim, Gareth had his second novel published, Sunshine to the Sunless. A review in The Guardian described how 'this beautifully written, understated novel is a compassionate avowal of the human capacity for hope in the face of despair'.

In the story, Andrew Kindness witnesses the horrific death of a father and son on the notorious Duddon quicksands. As he grows up this memory haunts him, and he takes solace when his grandfather shows him the art of cross-breeding daffodils. It is not by accident that the author interweaves this subject into the novel, as his own grandfather was a successful daffodil breeder. Andrew encounters the pains of first love as he falls for the attractive and clever Angie Hutchinson. However, Angie takes no interest in him until she needs his help to produce a radio show to commemorate Wordsworth's famous Daffodils poem. Their growing friendship, set against the backdrop of a tough and insular town, helps Andrew to let go of the past and face the present.

Gareth's third novel, The Anarchist's Angel, is again about a coming of age and the difficulties of village life. Troubled teenager Samson Ashburner always felt like an outsider, even before the farm accident which left his face scarred and confidence shattered. He endures the taunts of local children and malingerers like a dark cloud over the Cumbrian landscape. Samson finds refuge in his ancestor's charcoal-burning hut, deep in the nearby woods, and in a gypsy girl who teaches Samson that not everybody takes him at face value. But Angel is not all that she seems, and Samson is drawn into a web of deceit and shady dealings with explosive results.

Gareth Thompson went to school at Meden Comprehensive, and later trained as a journalist at the London College of Printing. He then worked for the trade magazine Music Week for several years. After heading north to Cumbria, where his parents come from, he started work on his first novel. Gareth's talent for prose was spotted by Booker-listed writer John Murray, who helped to develop his work.

Book Review

Night Walking by Sarah Moss

A moving story of two women living on a remote Scottish island with their lives connecting in a surprising way - Anna, an Oxford academic, struggling to care for her children and deeply troubled by a baby's skeleton in the garden, and May, a midwife living on the same island a century earlier. A gripping story, with a thought-provoking, suspenseful plot with its themes of motherhood on the brink, despairing children and infanticide. It scores on all counts: page-turning, intelligent, hilarious in moments, emotionally gripping and ultimately uplifting.

Those in Peril by Wilbur Smith

African pirates and kidnapping for ransom hold the central plot for the new Wilbur Smith offering. Bannock Oil Corp is one of the major oil producers with global reach and Hazel Bannock is heir to the Corp. Her nineteen year old daughter is kidnapped from their private yacht and a demand for twenty billion dollars is sent. Major powers are left incapable of intervention because of complicated political and diplomatic considerations. Evidence of Cayla's horrific torture prompts Hazel to call on Hector Cross to help rescue her daughter. He is the owner and operator of Cross Bow Security which is contracted to provide the security to Bannock Oil, and he is a formidable fighting man. Hazel and Hector take the law into their own hands.

The Land of Painted Caves by Jean M. Auel

It has been a long nine year wait for the sixth book in the earth's Children series and The Land of The Painted Caves now continues Ayla's story with her mate Jondalar and Jonayla their daughter. The story takes the reader on a journey of discovery and adventure as Ayla struggles to find a balance between her duties as new mother and her training to become a Zelandoni—one of the Ninth Cave community's spiritual leaders and healers. Brilliant narrative skills and appealing characters once again bring Jean Auel's book to life and her re-creation of the way of life thousands of years ago is as real to the reader as today's news with its descriptions of the terrain, dwelling places, longings, beliefs, creativity and daily lives of the Ice Age Europeans.

These books and many more, including recently published novels by favourite authors can all be reserved for a small fee (currently 25p) from Warsop library. Tel: 01623 842322

Warsop Police Update

It has become a concern to the safer neighbour team over recent weeks to see large groups of young people once again congregating on the Carr's Park during Friday evenings and consuming large amounts of alcohol.

Whilst these groups become intoxicated they begin to cause problems for the people living within close proximity to the park area. I have highlighted this problem a number of times through this column yet the problem continues.

Our team have worked with off-Licence premises, on licence premises, trading standards and asked the parents not to supply young people alcohol. I am aware that some of our young people may take alcohol from home without consent from the parents yet the amount of young people that are getting drunk and are being returned home by our team has become a joke. During one Friday evening we estimated that a group of approximately 80 girls and boys had congregated on the park and the majority of them had been drinking at some level.

On Friday, 4th March 2011, it was decided that we would get help from other beats and Police the Dispersal Zone firmly. I was able to enrol the help from the Special Constables, extra Police Officers, PCSO'S and Neighbourhood Wardens. As a result, a high number of juveniles were returned home and 2 individuals were arrested for breaching the Dispersal Zone Warnings.

We have sent out a positive message to the young people that we intend to Police the dispersal order every day and we will enforce the conditions within the legislation.

Our aim is not to criminalise young people just to reduce the levels of Anti-Social Behaviour that Warsop is becoming known for. It also has to be said that a high number of the individuals coming into Warsop on a Friday evening are from nearby Derbyshire villages.

There is no excuse for the young people of this area to be arrested within the dispersal zone as PCSO'S have conducted a number of presentations within the schools to explain what the order is all about.

We have displayed posters within the zone and explained to all the young people when they have been dispersed.

I also understand that there will be a lot of parents that don't agree in this order being in place. I can only reply by saying, we have tried other methods and the people that call us on a regular basis deserve a better quality of life. They don't deserve to sit in their homes only to hear a football being kicked against their house, sat listening to groups of youths shouting and swearing at each other and when they confront them they get more abuse. They see young people urinating in their front gardens and find large amounts of empty cans and bottles left on their gardens the next morning.

Again, I am not saying that all young people cause the community problems; it is just a small minority who are 'bored' and think it is ok to get drunk and cause problems for people trying to relax at home.

I once again urge parents, do you know where your child is during the evening times and when they come home, do they sneak in and go straight to their rooms? If they do, you need to ask yourself why? We need to stop this culture of young people going into the streets/parks of Warsop, getting drunk and causing problems for others. As a beat team we are always open to new ideas and help in tackling Anti-Social Behaviour so if you can help please contact one of the beat team.

PC Wayne Bennett

Please Park Sensibly

Pupils in Meden Vale are sending a colourful message to motorists about use of the road outside their school.

Two posters have been created to urge drivers to park sensibly around Eastland's Primary School and to keep their speed down when driving past the school gates.

The poster competition arose from concerns raised at neighbourhood priority meetings in November.

PCSO Dee Eyre and Craig Bull decided to get the school involved in raising awareness about the issue.

PCSO Eyre said: "This issue is obviously a real concern because inappropriate parking or driving around a school when it is busy with children either arriving or going home can cause a real road safety hazard."

"So in early December, we organised a small demonstration outside the school with banners made by the children encouraging drivers to slow down when passing the school gates."

"After the Christmas break we had the idea to organise a competition to design a poster which could be made into large one metre by three metre posters, and displayed on school fences throughout the local area."

The Meden Vale Charity Shop donated funding to get the winning posters printed by Bilsthorpe-based Ultimate Print, while the school's Parent Teacher Association (PTA) funded prizes of WHSmith vouchers and swimbags.

Ten year old Taylor Gadsby Baker has been named as the competition's overall winner. Taylor's poster will be on every school fence in the Warsop area. 2nd prize went to Caitlin West whose poster will be displayed at Eastlands and Sherwood street schools.

Runners-up were eight-year-olds Lucas Ducker-Tindle and Robbie Brown.

PCSO Eyre said: "All the entries were fantastic and the children clearly put a lot of effort into designing their posters. It was a challenge to select two winners, but that's what we had to do."

"The winning designs really are very eye-catching and should hopefully prove effective in getting the message across and changing the behaviour of motorists when they pass or park near the school."

THE ROYAL BRITISH LEGION

I hope a few of you have seen us out and about by now with our new fantastic marquee. We are trying to reach more of the people in our community who are eligible for help from the Royal British Legion in times of need.

We have a trip planned to Eden Camp, North Yorkshire on Saturday July 9th. (£12.50 members/£15 non-members). Warsop, Shirebrook and District Rotary Club have donated the proceeds from the fantastic concert by the Band of The RAF Regiment at the Fretwell Centre to our Poppy Appeal, taking this year's total way above last year's.

The Royal British Legion are putting in £50 million towards the Personnel Recovery Centres and a 'Battle Back and Assessment Centre' to help our brave injured personnel coming back from Afghanistan. It is hoped the 'Battle Back and Assessment Centre' will be placed at Portland College, a huge feather in Nottinghamshire's cap!

Those of you that attended our Poppy Launch at the Fretwell Centre last October may have recognised our celebrity, Guy Martin in his new BBC TV programme, 'The Boat That Guy Built'. The April meeting of the branch will be held at 7.45pm on Monday the 11th at the Memorial Club, Bishops Walk, Church Warsop. All are welcome to attend

Warsop's poetry people...

Who is God?

Some say god is a bird or a tree,
some say god is land or sea,
some say god is a spirit or an angel.

Some don't believe in god, the lord,
they laugh and joke,
they torment and poke,
but he is sat leading the way.
Right from wrong - he, I'll obey.

He listens to me cry and cry,
he listens to me laugh.
He listens to my prayers
and he leads me down the path,
He whispers softly in my ear and points right to my heart.

I am always here and here I will be.
When the others go make fun
I will turn the other cheek - to look at he!
Because I know that god is sitting right beside me

Planning Permission

With the help of local architects Ellis Riley and Son we have submitted a Design and Access statement to Mansfield District Council. This document outlines Shine's plans to change the Eastwood building from a vehicle repair shop and yard to a community venue.

Full details of the plan and how the public can have their say (either for or against) will be publicised locally. We sincerely hope that you will take the time to consider our plans carefully and objectively.

Whilst we still have some way to go, the area is starting to see the benefit of a co-ordinated, well staffed and resourced provision for people across the Warsop Parish. The Adam Eastwood Community Centre will, hopefully, one day be a valuable asset to everyone in the area and we know that with the community's support we will achieve that aim.

ELLIS RILEY & SON

Surveying & Architectural Services

There are a great deal of partners, businesses, councillors, parents, friends, young people and staff who have thrown themselves into supporting Shine and we have been humbled by the help they have offered. We would like to express our gratitude.

Shine

Hetts Lane Holiday Club

The recent indoor table top sale (our first at the Centre) raised an impressive £250. Although it was quieter than we expected we hope that local groups will look at the huge space we have available for hiring when considering running their own events. If your group is interested, please get in touch.

The Big Sleep In

At the end of the February half-term 20 young people and staff held the first Big Sleep In, at the Adam Eastwood Community Venue. The session was arranged to help young people understand the ethos behind Shine. We had some great team building activities organised by Tri-Sport throughout the day, a film in the evening and supper together. Later, with help from 2nd Warsop Scout Group we then all camped inside the centre. It was a cold, boisterous and long night to say the least! The event was a great success and, if I can convince the staff, we plan to do it again soon.

Red Nose Day

Following the success of our first FUNdraising event (for Children in Need) we decided to host another 12 hour day at the Centre. We had a 'Climb Everest' challenge; meaning going up the climbing wall an incredible 800 plus times between us, a karaoke challenge, stilt walking and balloon modelling, archery session, live music, sports, games, cream teas, cake decorating and more. With sponsorship and staff donating their time we raised £400 for Red Nose Day. A huge thanks to everyone who supported this event and everything that Shine does. It is making a huge difference to this and other communities.

MPAC sessions

Through the support of MPAC we have been working with YMCA Digital to deliver sessions in music, DJ'ing, and graffiti art. Our young people have worked with some extremely gifted tutors to learn new skills. We have also been supported by Tri-Sport, Notts Youth Service, Mansfield Wheels and Activity Centre and Simply Archery. Through this the Centre has been used Monday through to Thursday nights and provided Saturday sessions too. Around 300 young people a week are engaged in safe, affordable and engaging activities through which they are learning new skills and making new friends.

Although the funding for these sessions is almost exhausted, Shine will work closely with other agencies to continue providing activities.

www.shinemedia.tv

With the help of Cole Burrage and Sam Butler (pictured) we continue to develop Shinemedia. Using industry standard equipment we are producing films, audio programmes and web content to promote our work. Young people are currently enjoying learning new skills which will improve their confidence, communication skills and IT prowess.

We have been fortunate in being granted free broadband for a year courtesy of a BT Community Connection award, having competed against projects across the country. This will transform the Centre into a internet cafe, amongst other uses.

Remember, we can help promote your group FREE on our website to increase your membership or promote your events.
