Sherwood Pines Over-Nighters are a Wild Success!

Grandparents, youngsters and city dwellers are hearing the call of the wild in Sherwood Pines Forest Park!

They are just some of the people who have signed up for the Forestry Commission's overnight bushcraft events over the past year in the 1,200 hectare beauty spot, near Clipstone.

Karina Thornton, Forestry Commission ranger, explained:

"It's a great opportunity for people from all walks of life to get back to nature - it is a complete break from their normal routine. We've had folk aged from 10 to 70 years old turning their back on mod-cons and getting rustic under the stars."

Fending for yourself means making your own 'bedroom' out of branches and brash, lighting a campfire, cooking al fresco and learning survival tips. Rangers say part of the event's success is down to the popularity of TV survival programmes by Ray Mears and Bear Grylls. Karina added:

"You don't have to travel thousands of miles for a wilderness experience - you can get a taster right here in Notts in our Forestry Commission wood."

The event runs from 5.30pm to 11am the following morning. The cost, which includes evening meal and breakfast, is £25 adults and £17.50 children (over 8 years old).

If you want a shorter crash course in bushcraft, rangers also offer four hour workshops for nature fans over 8 years old.

Booking is essential so for more information or to book your wilderness experience telephone 01623 822447.

Kids Branch out in Sherwood Pines

Rangers are urging children to become young forest explorers and visit the Forestry Commission's Sherwood Pines Forest Park to enjoy natural play.

Latest research has revealed that nearly three quarters of people interviewed thought that playing in woods is good for children's health, and approximately 95% of people agreed that woodlands are places where people can have fun and enjoy themselves.

But an increasing number said they were too busy to make time for a visit.

Many people have great stories to tell of building dens, climbing trees or clambering over fallen logs, and forest chiefs want children to get out and enjoy the great outdoors this summer holiday.

Now they have produced a list of the top ten natural play destinations in England, including the 1,200 hectare (3,000 acre) beauty spot near Clipstone, Notts, with its all ability play trail and magical Robin Hood Hideout.

Pam Warhurst, Forestry Commission Chair, said:

"Woods are a wonderful environment for children to experience healthy fun in the outdoors. It is such a shame that over a third of people asked in England have not visited a woodland or forest in the last few years due to being too busy. Now is an ideal time to change this!"

"Our natural play areas are the perfect solution to what to do with the kids during the summer holidays, offering affordable and enjoyable adventures for all ages."

Find out more about Sherwood Pines and other great forest play destinations at www.forestry.gov.uk/england and sign up to the Discovery Pass e newsletter to get the latest information from your local forest park.

Robin Hood's hideout in Sherwood Pines, which includes tree houses, rope bridges and scrambling nets guaranteed to quicken the pulses of eager youths. The beauty spot has been named as one of the top ten natural play destinations in England by the Forestry Commission.

EDITOR'S LETTER

I must say a big thank you to Karen, this is our first September edition! With the popularity of the paper and the increases in the number of pages over the years, myself and Karen decided to bite the bullet and whilst I have been chilling in France for the past 3 weeks, Karen has had her work cut out getting it done! But she has pulled it off, so I think I might go on holiday more often, don't tell her I said that though!

We have a new junior correspondent started this month, Connie Smith has taken over the position as Tessa is now busy at college. I'm sure you will agree with me that Connie is a good edition to the team, she has also been a big help during the school holidays, volunteering for reception duties, keying in articles for the paper and running errands for the Town Hall.

Thank you Connie x

Gardening Monthly...

September is the end of summer although we're often lucky to have an Indian summer with blue skies and sunshine, nothing is certain with the weather. The bulk of the harvest comes home now and as crops come out the plot begins to empty

Harvest

The maincrop potatoes should be ready now. To repeat August's advice regarding harvesting potatoes. When you harvest your potatoes take care to remove all the tubers. Any left will not only sprout next year and become a weed but will also be a reservoir for disease and potato blight spores.

If blight has struck your potatoes the best method to preserve the crop is to remove the haulm and dispose of it then leave the potatoes in the ground for a fortnight or longer to stop the spores getting onto the tubers.

It's best to harvest potatoes fairly early in the day, rinse them off as they come from the ground and then leave in the sunlight for a day to thoroughly dry off and harden the skins before storing.

You may well have reasonably sized parsnips now but they will stay perfectly happy in the ground and do taste better after they have had a frost on them.

The runner beans and French beans will be continuing to produce and the last of the peas should be coming in. Compost the foliage of the peas but leave the roots in the ground as the nodules on them contain nitrogen.

The harvest will be in full swing and in addition to the above you should have:

• Beetroot • Cabbage • Carrots • Cauliflowers • Courgettes • Cucumbers • Globe Artichokes • Kale • Kohlrabi • Lettuce • Leeks • Marrows • Onions • Pumpkins • Radishes • Spring Onions • Spinach • Sweetcorn • Tomatoes • Turnips

From the greenhouse you should be picking aubergines, chilli and sweet peppers as well as cucumbers and tomatoes.

If you grow fruit then the picking should be in full swing there as well:

Apples, pears, plums, peaches from the trees, blackberries and raspberries from the canes and strawberries from the bed.

Sowing

There's not a great deal to sow now but surprisingly it's the right time to sow winter lettuces such as Arctic King for spring harvests. The other salad crop is the winter hardy spring onion. I'd suggest White Lisbon but ensure it is the winter hardy version.

Early September is the time to sow green manures. One of the best green manures for winter growth is Hungarian grazing rye. It continues to grow, albeit slowly, in cold weather and should be around 15" tall come the spring from an early September sowing. Not only will you have a lush mass of foliage but it also produces a mass of roots that will provide humus for bacterial breakdown.

Planting

Your spring cabbage plants can be planted out now and over wintering (Japanese) onion sets can go in for an early onion harvest.

You can plant out garlic as well although I prefer to plant it out later in the year.

Cultivating

Keep feeding your tomatoes, peppers and cucumbers. It's not really worthwhile feeding other plants at this time of year as they are nearly finished and the nutrients are best saved for the spring. Keep the side shoots in check on the tomatoes.

Fruit

Tidy up the summer fruiting raspberries, cutting off the canes that have fruited and tying in the new shoots that will bear next year.

The summer fruiting strawberries can be attended to now as well. Cut off the foliage about 1" from the ground, clearing and weeding as you go. Any runners can be planted up to replace 3 year old plants that are best replaced now.

General Tasks

Keep an eye on your brassicas for butterfly eggs and caterpillars, these will most probably be under the leaves. The greenhouse pests should be declining but keep an eye out if the weather is good.

Connie's Column

My name is Connie Smith and I am presently a student at Meden School. I am also involved in several community projects including the Warsop Christmas Panto and Warsop Carnival.

When I was asked if I would be interested in becoming the new Junior Correspondent by Tania Barlow, Editor of Warsop & District News, I jumped at the opportunity.

I aim to do my best to cover any news story given to me so please don't hesitate to email me if you have something you would like me to cover for the next issue.

By Connie Smith
W&DN Junior Correspondent
Email: conniewdn@hotmail.co.uk

I also aim to cover current local issues which may be important to other young people in Warsop and would like to start my first ever article by airing my concerns about our school and what's happening.

Meden's Ofsted Horror

After an appalling Ofsted report there has been many more changes throughout Meden school including new head teacher, new houses, revised behaviour policies and stricter rules.

One of the biggest changes made by the new head teacher is uniform. Having had the new houses (Endeavour, Phoenix, Challenger and Discovery) there has been changes to the ties and badges which most pupils think is not very good because of the colours.

Also some of the new items of uniform, including PE kit, are only available directly from the school or from one shop in Mansfield. Feedback from some parents indicates that they feel this is unacceptable and that they have the right to buy the school uniform from wherever they wish as long as it follows the schools uniform guidelines.

Some students also disagree with the ruling against unnatural hair colours, nail varnish, make-up etc. Most of the students, even though they accept that the idea of school uniform is a good thing, think they should be allowed to express their individuality in other ways. Does the colour of your hair really affect your education or attitude?

WARSOP

Footpath & Countryside Group

This year's wildflowers and hedgerow fruit appeared earlier than usual following the early arrival of spring. However the flowers do not seem to have bloomed for long and many of the hips, haws and sloes in our hedges seem dry or shriveled. How this will impact on the farmland birds in the coming winter remains to be seen.

From the Footpaths Group's point of view the dry early summer weather means that we have not needed to give many paths the extra cut that they usually need although the brambles continue growing at a rapid rate. One worry is the risk of fire. Around our grasslands and hedgerows there are the signs that our arsonists have been about and in some cases have destroyed hedges and crops. One benefit of the dry weather is that both Sookholme Lane and William Wood Lane have been passable for weeks on end without getting muddy feet!

During July, whilst walking near Warsop Vale, I thought a caught sight of a grass snake disappearing into the undergrowth as I approached. A couple of days later two young lads told me of their encounter with a snake on the riverbank in Market Warsop. This presumably was also a grass snake. It is good to know that they are about although I have only seen them twice in over thirty years but similarly I have only spotted a kingfisher once this year despite walking along the river several times each week. I suppose this illustrates that the best way to see wildlife is to keep still and wait for it to come to you, rather than striding along and letting it know that you are coming.

The next Footpaths Group walk is scheduled for Saturday 17th September although it may move to the following Saturday. We are planning to visit the Idle Valley Nature Reserve near Retford, leaving Warsop Library at 9:15 and traveling by car to the start of the walk. You are welcome to join us, get in touch if you would like more information.

Finally, I would like to write a few words about Ray Cockeram who died in July. Since he joined our small team of volunteers four years ago he mowed many miles of footpaths and took us on some excellent group walks. He has left a lasting mark on Warsop's countryside through the waymark posts he helped install and the new hedgerow along the edge of the Carrs that we planted in 2009. We miss his (usually unrepeatable) jokes, the banter that always took place whenever he was around and his willingness to help whenever there was a job to be done. On one of his last workdays with us in March we marked Jerusalem's Well with an oak post - I will now think of it as 'Ray's last post'.

Grant Shapps:

Communities to be given a right to reclaim land

Housing Minister Grant Shapps today announced plans to give members of the public the right to reclaim and develop hundreds of acres of unused public sector land and buildings, which are currently trapped in a bureaucratic quagmire. The new Community Right to Reclaim Land will help communities to improve their local area by using disused publicly owned land for new development.

There is currently a large amount of public sector land that could be developed for new homes, businesses and leisure facilities. The amount of previously developed land owned by public bodies is more than twice the size of Leicester - but a complicated and ineffective system makes it difficult to find out where the land is and who owns it, and even harder to request to use it.

By the summer, a new one-stop shop will provide citizens with information about empty land and buildings they can develop to improve their local area. The new online tool will combine information from existing databases to form the bedrock of a new Community Right - the Right to Reclaim Land - which will also include an improved system for members of the public to request that empty public sector land or buildings are sold off, so they can be brought back into use.

The current system for requesting the sale of public land and buildings is so obscure and restrictive that it is rarely used, with only one successful application in the past 13 years.

In the future, members of public will be able to access information about land owned by a much broader range of public bodies, and the system for considering requests will be streamlined, with all but the most sensitive decisions considered alongside other planning casework, instead of Government Ministers.

As part of today's move, Mr Shapps is also calling on Government departments to make more information about their surplus land available. To kick-start this drive towards greater transparency, and set an example for what the public sector can do, the Minister is publishing, for the first time, a detailed list of all the land and property assets owned by the national housing and regeneration agency, so communities can see where land and property is located, and its status.

Housing Minister Grant Shapps said: "It's completely unacceptable that people have to walk past derelict land and buildings every day, in the knowledge that there's almost no prospect they will be brought back into use, and there's absolutely nothing they can do about it. For years, communities who have attempted to improve their local area by developing disused public land and buildings have found themselves bouncing off the walls of bureaucratic indifference - their attempts to do something positive for their community thwarted by a system that has proved totally ineffective.

"So starting today, we are introducing a new Right to Reclaim Land. Under our plans, communities will no longer be kept in the dark about what land is available; instead they will be able to see at the click of a button what local opportunities there are for development. And rather than requests to use that land being blocked and ignored, ordinary people who make a case to improve their local area will be listened to.

"But this is only the start - we are no longer prepared to accept the state-sponsored decline of local communities. I am determined that this system works, so I want to hear any suggestions for improvements, and if necessary I will use legislation to make sure it is local communities who reap the rewards of opportunities to develop local land and buildings that currently lie unused." The new Community Right is part of a wider package of measures by the Government to give more powers to councils and communities, so they can make their own decisions on housing and development issues.

Better information about disused land will complement the new Community Right to Build, which will offer communities the chance to give the green light to new developments without the need for specific planning applications.

Local people, working alone or with their communities, will be able to come together to build the homes, shops and businesses the area needs. These new community rights will offer people a solution to their housing needs in villages, towns and cities up and down the country. If communities support locally-led proposals, they will be able to regenerate abandoned urban sites or build homes in countryside communities, ensuring they remain vibrant places to live.

A significant proportion of existing sites that are suitable for development are sitting in public land banks - there are over 16,000 hectares of previously developed land owned by councils and public bodies, and on central Government land alone there is enough capacity to build 60,000 new homes over the next 10 yrs.

Information about public sector land and property is currently limited - records are only partial and are spread across different databases that are not easily accessible to the public. By the summer, this data will become much more transparent and easier to access. Information from existing databases will be combined and made accessible from one user-friendly website. The amount of information about public land will also increase, as more public bodies begin adding information about their assets.

Alongside this greater transparency, a new process to request the sale of public land and property will be in place by the end of the summer. New regulations will also significantly expand the number of public bodies that can be approached with a request to sell their assets.

PAINT A WONDERFUL LAKE DISTRICT LANDSCAPE with Matthew Palmer PART TWO

website: www.mattartist.co.uk. Telephone: 01623 742567

Stage 4

Once the back ground is dry, have a go at painting some pine trees and bushes. You can use the number 5 or 6 brush for this. But the best results come from using a special 'Matthew Palmer tree and texture brush'.

These unique brushes come in a set of 3. Small, medium and large. They are available direct from Matthew at www.mattartist.co.uk or telephone: 01623 742567. Offer price £19.99 incl P&P.

What you do with the pine trees is simply paint the central trunk of the tree first, a straight line that's all. Now angling the small tree brush flick out the pine branches. Painting one side at a time and angling the brush, so the flat part faces the right direction. Use very little pressure. The colour for this is a strong green, a dark strong green, mixed from French ultramarine blue and a touch of the bright yellow (aureolin), ensure this mixture is thick and strong. You really need to practise these trees on a scrap sheet of paper first, they are quite easy. Do several up, down and along the mid-ground only. The bushes are simply the same colour but stipples along the masking tape line.

Why not have a go at painting a little cottage sat on the grassy banking. I have used a number 5 or 6 brush for this and the grey paint already in my palette. Add a few windows and as much detail as required.

Tip- add a few hedge rows, using the small tree brush, simply stipple the thick green paint along a card edge, to act as a mask. And add a few, changing the angles. (see final painting).

Stage 5

Finish this painting off by painting the water. Now water is always wet... right, so wet your water, use your large brush to wet all the water area. You have all the colours you need already in your palette, because water is simply a reflection off everything in your painting.

Once its wet, paint a straight, horizontal line at the bottom using the blue, used in the sky. Paint this all the way to the top of the water area. Keep those lines horizontal. While its still wet, add a few lines of the green used for the mid-ground. Do this in the correct area, just below the green area in the mid ground. Do this on both sides and a touch in the middle of the water area. Next add a touch of the burnt sienna to this area to match the mid-ground colour.

Great! Now to finish off the water, use a smaller number 5 or 6 brush and the strong green colour you used for the trees. Simply paint the nice reflections of the trees, wiggling your brushes and a watery flow, almost image the reflection. Matching the height of each tree.

All this has been painted while the paper was still wet or damp, so the paint slightly bleeds in to the paper. So it might be wise to have a practice first on a separate sheet.

I would love to hear from you on how you got on with the lessons. please get in touch. E-mail: info@mattartist.co.uk, tel: 01623 742567. Website: www.mattartist.co.uk

And remember I hold weekly classes in:
Langwith (Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evening),
Warsop, at the Oaklands Centre (Wednesday Evening) and in Mansfield (Monday & Tuesday afternoon), at St. Peters Centre.

So come along and give watercolour painting a go, and let me show you how easy it really is! You will be amazed just what you can achieve.

Mornington Peninsula Academy Visit Welbeck

Welbeck Colliery's talented under 17 side recently had the privilege of entertaining the Mornington Peninsula Academy squad in a 45 over game at the John Fretwell Centre. The Australian team was on a three week tour of England including a visit to Lords.

Batting first, Welbeck amassed a total of 243 for 9. Lewis Cameron contributed a stunning innings of 93, with solid support from Chester Scott (53). The top Peninsula bowlers were L. Hulett with 3 for 47 and L. Gillies 3 for 15.

In reply Mornington reached 216 for 9 with B. Quigley scoring 46 and J. Dale producing a hard hitting 56 not out. Ashley Willis with 3 for 8 was Welbeck's match winning bowler but Simon Harper's leg spin produced figures of 3 for 47.

The game was played in an excellent spirit both on and off the field with quality cricket and sportsmanship of the highest order. The Mornington parents and coaches said this was the best game, best atmosphere, best facility and best teas of the entire tour. After the game a plethora of photographs were taken and the teams exchanged mementoes including medallions and signed club shirts.

From a "Pub" to "The Hub"

The original 100 year old 'Dog and Rabbit' pub located in Market Warsop has been saved from the clutches of the recession with a quarter of a million pound budget thrust upon it, to turn the building in a multi-faceted, executive business centre known as 'The Hub', operated by local group Karman Ltd.

With thirty-nine pubs closing on average per week nationally, the credit crunch has seen many of our well-loved drinking spots close their doors to the public. Yet, due to increased demand for flexible and affordable office space solutions across the UK, the perfect opportunity has arisen to re-open this building as an upmarket business centre to serve the locality.

Rather than leaving the building derelict like many pubs across the UK that remain boarded-up, the refurbishment has breathed a new lease of life into the old mining community. Steve Devan, Centre Manager commented, "There has been tremendous local interest in the building and it was important to us that the building can create jobs and benefit the locals in some way. We have used local suppliers and builders where possible".

Whilst maintaining many of its original exterior characteristics, the building has been designed with a modern interior, offering businesses a number of upmarket, fully furnished serviced offices and virtual office services.

The 'Dog and Rabbit' may have called time on its drinking days, but The Hub is destined to be the toast of the local community.

Book Review

The Princess Diaries Series

Written by Meg Cabot

I have loved reading the Princess Diaries series written by Meg Cabot who, in my opinion is a very talented writer. However, ever since I started reading the princess diaries my eyes have been glued to my book.

'Teen idol' by Meg Cabot is also very good and I enjoyed reading this but I think her best books by far were The Princess Diaries series.

This book is mainly about Mia's (the main character) life and the way she handles things. Her love life is one of the main things she talks about and she gets a lot of new surprises along the way. Although some parts are sad, these books are also very funny and romantic. Mia also has a very funny view of life and things always go wrong!

I would recommend these books to anyone aged 12-18 years. These books are very inspiring and always make you want to read on. The main thing I enjoyed about these books is the fact that not only is this it highly amusing it also prompts you to predict what will happen next but nothing's ever what you think it is.

New Officers for Friends of The Carrs

On 5th July the group had their first AGM since 2009 and 27 attended. Following the resignation of the previous Chair and Deputy nominations for the posts were invited in a previous issue of W & D News.

Pam Johnson and Dennis Wright were proposed and seconded unopposed and duly elected as Chair and Deputy respectively. Joan Long was similarly elected to carry on as Treasurer. The group expressed their thanks for the work carried out for the Group by the previous officers. The group are in need of a volunteer(s) to take over the secretarial work of the Group and invitations are invited from one/two members of the community. There was a follow up meeting on 2nd August when 18 attended and many issues were discussed.

The Group will continue to work with MDC and Notts Wildlife Trust and all interested Groups to enhance the Local Nature Reserve for the benefit of all members of the Parish. The main item on the agenda is the removal of silt from the dam and silt trap and the Wildlife Trust are at the forefront of obtaining funding to carry out some of this work the autumn. A sum of £49,000 was being requested from the Water Framework Directive. MDC are to provide £10,000 and if the FOTC can raise £1,500 this will be match funded by the WLT upto £15,000. In addition to the removal of silt from about one third of the dam and the silt trap the work will include the formation of a wildlife area near the car park. Some work on the trees on the island and attention to the fishing pegs. In addition some of the willows will be replaced and set back from the dam bank and a new footpath will be made again set back from the existing bank. Some of the willows are diseased and will need to be replaced in the coming years. A senior MDC official has already been on site with FOTC and it is planned to have a meeting with the new Parks Development Officer who is soon to be appointed.

Funding is very restricted at the moment and it was thought impractical to attempt to obtain sufficient funds to desilt the whole of the dam at this time. To desilt the whole dam in one go would involve the removal of all fish and then a lengthy period for the marine life and vegetation to rejuvenate to allow the restocking with fish. Hopefully once the first stage is complete FOTC can restart to bailiff the dam. This is very beneficial to the Group as the fees collected for day permits is available to the Group to fund other works.

Meden Valley Making Places have donated a sum of £2,400 for the provision of 4 new picnic tables near the car park area and these and the existing tables will be refreshed. In the last issue of this paper a photograph was printed showing the presentation of the cheque by the Chief Executive Officer of MVMP Gary Kirk to group member Stuart Whittle. Some of the existing seats along the river bank are in need of some TLC and this will be attended to in the near future. Some of these seats were donated by families in remembrance of their loved ones and others where donated by Groups/Individuals. It is hoped such donations will be continued. It is also hoped local businesses will help to fund some projects and the group will seek funding from any agency that would support such work.

The Environment Agency are responsible for the steps and they are to be requested to clean them up. The long grass area will receive a much needed mowing and it is hoped to keep to the management plan to mow the area twice a year.

The group are to carry out "Litter Picks" on the Carrs Area and the first of these was scheduled to be on 15th August. The ever popular fishing sessions for younger members of the parish will restart. It is hoped to publish dates of all future events in this paper to allow members of the community to join in. All will be welcome.

NEXT MEETING

This will be held at 19.30 on Tuesday 13th September in the function room of the Hare and Hounds in Warsop. All are invited to attend to either contribute or keep up to date with events and funding issues.

WARSOP POLICE UPDATE

Warsop Police Move Now Official

We can now officially say that from the 1st September 2011 the Safer Neighbourhood Team will be moving out of the Police Station on the High Street and into a room at Warsop Town Hall.

We have no other information as to who will be taking the Police Station building over but be assured that there will still be a Police Team based in Warsop. Our contact mobile telephone numbers will stay the same yet I am unsure what will be happening to the direct landline number.

I also need to inform readers that the dispersal order that was granted back in January of this year was given a 6 month extension. The following is the legal meaning so that people are reminded of the powers that the Police hold.

What powers are given by a Dispersal order?

Within an area covered by a Dispersal order, a Police Constable in uniform or a Police Community Support Officer can give directions to people to disperse or to leave the locality.

They can give the direction to any person in a group of two or more people if they have reasonable grounds to believe that members of the Public have been or are likely to be intimidated, harassed, alarmed or distressed as a result of the presence or behaviour of the group.

One or more of the following directions can be given

(a) A direction requiring the persons in the group to disperse (either immediately or by such time as he may specify and in such way as he may specify),

(b) A direction requiring any of those persons whose place of residence is not within the relevant locality to leave the relevant locality or any part of the relevant locality (either immediately or by such time as he may specify and in such way as he may specify),

(c) a direction prohibiting any of those persons whose place of residence is not within the relevant locality from returning to the relevant locality or any part of the relevant locality for such period (not exceeding 24 hours) from the giving of the direction as he may specify;

Also Between 2100hrs and 0600hrs, anyone reasonably believed to be under 16 years of age and not under the effective control of a parent or responsible adult, can be taken back to their home.

If a person fails to comply with the direction, this is an offence and they can be arrested. This can be punished by 6 months imprisonment or a fine of up to £5000

The following streets are covered in the order

Clumber Street, High Street, Carr Lane, Watson Street, Welbeck Street, Day Street, Vickers Street, Fenwick Street, Portland Street, Bainbridge Road to the junction of Vickers Street, Ridgeway Lane to the junction of Vickers Street, Ridgeway Terrace

This order is scheduled to run until the 9th January 2012, unless a further extension is granted from Mansfield District Council.

I have put this in because the day before I wrote this column a 17 year old male fell foul of this order giving the excuse that he didn't think he'd get caught. I have previously mentioned that this Order has not been granted to criminalize young people, it has been introduced to give members of the public that have constant issues with Anti-Social Behaviour outside their homes a better quality of life.

Safer Neighbourhoods system

The go-ahead has been given for a new 'virtual' Safer Neighbourhoods system which uses emails and text messaging to keep residents updated. I believe that this will be a really useful way of sharing information.

Please let me know if you would like to be a part of a pilot project design and test this system

Working together

Shine's Best Summer Ever

Over 160 young people from the 8 schools in the area joined together for two weeks of summer fun.

Activities included swimming, sports, cooking, Game Zone, dance, drama, film-making, music, horse riding, trips to Quaserlaser at Nottingham, Sherwood Forest and more kept everyone entertained.

The weather even held for most of the time! For the first time we had REX Real Experiences offering early drive and early ride courses. Most of our young people (and some parents) had the chance to drive a car or ride a moped. Nigel, Louise, Alan, Tim, Simon, David and Ben did a great job keeping up with demand and everyone loved the chance to have a go.

Shine's holiday activities are always very popular as they allow children and young people to mix safely and to learn new skills. Shine is part of the Meden Family of Schools and operates throughout term time and holidays. We use local tutors and providers in order to support our community's economy.

We currently have 790 children registered and new starters are being welcomed every day. If your child hasn't yet joined Shine you'll find registration forms at all local schools.

WAPYAA

Warsop And Parish Youth Angling Association

Two very successful and well attended tournaments were held in July with the support of the Police, Fire Service, Warsop Angling Centre and the Angling Development Board. Over 30 young people took part and although very competitive, they conducted themselves brilliantly and were a great help to each other. There is a regional tournament planned for early September with the best young anglers fishing against each other. WAPYAA is here to help young people learn to fish whilst enjoying being part of a supported team. They will plan competitions, fund equipment and discover how to run and manage an angling club. If you know a young person who might be interested get in touch.

Fire Safety Award

Shine was presented with a Certificate of Excellence in Community Safety by Notts Fire Service by Steve Hollis for our work around reducing ASB. Kev Keegan was really pleased to accept the award on being of the whole team.

And Finally

Shine will close the Adam Eastwood sessions in the evenings from 22nd August until 12th September to allow for staff holidays and for maintenance on the building. We will still be open from 2pm - 6pm each Saturday throughout August and early September.

We continue to receive loads of support for our desire to adapt the former Eastwoods garage into a community venue. Thanks to Warsop Rotary Club for the chance to explain to them about Shine's work whilst enjoying a great meal at the Hostess!

If you, your company or organisation believes that it can offer any support, please give Shine a call.

The Rotary Club of Warsop, Shirebrook & District

Rotary Club news update by: Steve Garner

On Thursday 4th August President Andre Camillerie chaired the club meeting at the Hostess Restaurant, at which 29 members attended.

A special notice of motion was put to the club agreeing to the sum of £500 for transport and additional costs for Steve Lunn and his team to compete in the 3 Peak Challenge (Snowdon Scafell and Ben Nevis). His team with other Rotarians and others have raised thousands of pounds in the past for a variety of causes. This year it is for the Blue Bell Wood Hospice near Rotherham.

President Andre Camillerie with Kev Keegan of Shine.

The guest speaker was Kevin Keegan (not the Kevin Keegan) from the Warsop Organisation S.H.I.N.E. Kev is the Meden School Family of Schools Extended Services Co-ordinator. Through an audio visual presentation he explained the background to his post. Under the title SHINE Kev and his team of 40 staff volunteers and young assistants deliver after school and holiday time activities across the community. 2,150 children aged between 5 and 19 attend the 8 schools in the area and some 750 are now registered with SHINE.

Additional evening and weekend sessions for local families are now included and these are based at the Adam Eastwood Community Venue at Warsop. This opens 6 days a week and fun, engaging and affordable activities for families to enjoy together. These include trips, youth clubs, archery and fishing etc.

The organisations with whom the organisation works are: Police, Fire, Mansfield District Council, Warsop Parish Council and Notts County Council.

It is hoped that the Rotary club may get involved in some way with this worthy organisation and passionate leader.

The District Governor has awarded the Rotary Club of Warsop Shirebrook and District a Rotary Citation for the work undertaken in 2010-2011. Past President John Fretwell (left) hands the citation to President Andre Camillerie at the club meeting on Thursday 11 August 2011.

MS UPDATE

Mansfield & District Branch Multiple Sclerosis Society

I am following the writings of Lynne Willets in delivering to local people the activities of the Mansfield and District Branch of the Multiple Sclerosis Society. The footsteps of Lynne will be hard to trace and the style will no doubt be different but the message will be the same. MS is with us and we must continue to make life easier for the sufferers and realise an aim in the longer term to eradicate this awful debilitating condition.

Lynne has been a wonderful servant to this branch and along with others, has been inspirational and all that is required to make a lasting success of a local organisation that has lasted 50 years. Clearly the committee has resolve and commitment to further the interests of MS sufferers in this area. Not forgetting the many relatives and carers who also 'live' with MS. Furthermore we appreciate our many friends and supporters for their Fund Raising efforts and for putting Ms on the map, focusing of course on this local area.

Lynne made mention of a number of highly successful fund raising efforts. The £1000.00 plus raised at kings mill hospital was during the national MS week. The coffee morning at Tudor Barn, Warsop organised by two ladies Angela and Pat. On 23rd July the Boys Brigade did a 'Car wash' again at the Tudor Barn and we do thank those boys and girls involved. Who says the days of chivalry have long gone. Again at this event Pat and Angela were involved by providing refreshments.

Recently Frazer Potthecary and Rob Calladine completed their 'Endurance Run' collecting funds in aid of this branch. One week of slog, 15 miles a day with no alcohol and on a vegan die. Financially it was highly successful but what an effort these two local young men indecently Frazer and his friends formerly from manor school and named 'The All-Stars' have entertained at our social evenings. The William IV pub (Top house) is holding a Charity Day on 28th August. Debbie and Garth the Landlords have dedicated part of the monies raised to this branch. Again we say Thank you.

It can be said that financial help by way on donations and collections assist so much in enabling the sufferers of this deliberating condition towards an improved lifestyle. Occasionally the committee dedicate some funds, specially towards research, to the National Centre. This research, hopefully will lead to improvement in treatment and the eventual eradication of MS for the benefit of present and future sufferers.

We do hope that people who do like to be involved in our work will contact us (Ring 0800 5420901) we do require Volunteer drivers for our ambulances and others whp would like to assist in the support work.

Finally, please join us at one of our social evenings which are held on the first Tuesday monthly at the William IV pub in a large room just for us. You will be made most welcome.

Thank you, Gordon Beastall, Chairman.

THE ROYAL BRITISH LEGION

Members really enjoyed a local history talk by friend of the Branch, Mr. Les Nickless at our August meeting.

Our September meeting on the 12th September will be a business meeting in preparation for our AGM on the 3rd October and our visit to Mansfield Bellamy Branch for a talk on the Vulcan by Mr Kevin Robson on the 10th October.

We are still looking for volunteers to help with our Poppy Appeal in Warsop and Mansfield Woodhouse.

Tickets are now available for the Notts Police Band Concert at Warsop Church at 7.30pm on the 29th October 2011 which will open our 2011 Poppy Appeal and celebrate our 90th Birthday. Tickets are priced at £7.50 which will include a glass of wine. Please ring the number below for further details. All proceeds to the Poppy Appeal.

The Poppy Appeal runs all year not just for the two weeks in November so if you are looking for a charity to raise money for, please consider the Royal British Legion.

We spend £200,000 per day on welfare for service men and women, and their families, in their hour of need. Our Poppy Appeal for the current year ends on the 30th September and we have raised in this area over £17,000. Please help us to better this in the coming year

We are the No. 1 Service charity but you do not have to be ex-Service to join.

The Greyhound charity shop which is located down the alley next door to Pinders has recently opened a new shop on the main street.

The shop has managed to raise an amazing £12,470 since December 2010 for the Retired Greyhound Trust. The money will pay to re-home and take care of the retired greyhounds.

They would also like to appeal for further items of donations for the shop and will now be accepting small furniture although any donations are appreciated.

The Greyhound Trust would like to thank everyone for their support and the generous donations given.

Cornwall and then cooked on the premises, the extensive range of products offers a healthy option made from natural ingredients with a fast service & fuss free eating...

The ALL New Talbot

It's open at last!

The Talbot pub, located on High Street, Warsop, has undergone an amazing transformation both inside and out. A warm & hearty welcome awaits you as you enter with the newly refurbished interior which provides a warm mix of a traditional pub with all the modern comforts of today.

An external eating/drinking area has also been added in the form of timber framed covered area with a new entrance being created with access from the car park. The new look is just beautiful and really makes The Talbot spectacular.

In addition to the new look, The Talbot is also offering a variety of handmade pasties, including vegetarian options, traditional pasties desert pasties etc. The food is prepared at the Crantock Bakery in Cornwall and then cooked on the premises, the extensive range of products offers a healthy option made from natural ingredients with a fast service & fuss free eating...

New manager Denise has previously run a pub in Nottingham and is accompanied by her area manager and loyal bar staff.

"The Talbot will be officially opening on the 26th August 2011 with a special re-launch bank holiday event", says Denise.

The event will include your first drink half price (with the printed flyer available at the bar), there will be live music all weekend and DJ Mutley will be there to entertain with a selection of music ranging from the 60's to the 90's from 4:00pm.

Charity Fundraising Fancy Dress

At the Black Market in Warsop
Friday 30th September 2011
in aid of Marie Curie Cancer Care

There will be three acts who are performing for free, and local businesses have rallied round to donate some amazing prizes to the raffle (hopefully you can give them a name check in the piece). Raffle tickets will only be available on the night and admission is 2 on the door. The theme for the fancy dress is doctors and nurses and we're hoping people will use their imaginations to turn up in the most original costumes they can. Bands performing on the night are, Final Cut, who are a classic rock covers band, the Adrian Bower Band performing our own original rock/blues material, and headlining are Pet Shop Boys Tribute, (nb, that's their name) who have performed all over the country and are much sought after. Doors open at 7PM.

This charity is of personal interest to myself, as I lost my wife to cancer 2 years ago, and Marie Curie nurses, along with MacMillan were brilliant, there's no way I could have coped without them, and this is giving something back to them.

There's a lot of hard work gone into this event, and we are hoping for a great turn out for such a good cause.

The fancy dress theme will be Doctors & Nurses

We're hoping for a little imagination, not just the Carry On style doctors and nurses, tho you're more than welcome to dress that way. Horror/zombie/sci-fi/looney, have fun with it!!!! All proceeds will be going to a very worthy cause.

Entertainment Line-up

- Pet Shop Boys Tribute (their name says it all!!!)
- The Adrian Bower Band (originals rock & blues)
- Final Cut (a cracking classic rock covers band)
