GARDENING MONTHLY...

ESSENTIAL JOBS CHECKLIST FOR DECEMBER

- Store terracotta pots in a shed unless you're sure they're frost-resistant
- Line your greenhouse with bubble-wrap for insulation
- Move houseplants off windowsills at night
- Send off for lots of seed and plant catalogues

TOPICAL TIPS FOR DECEMBER

Flower Garden

If you're feeling energetic get out and do a bit of digging.

Start a programme of conditioning and improving your soil. To do this successfully you need first to find out what sort of soil you've got, whether it's acid, neutral or alkaline, whether it's sandy, peaty, stony, loamy or sticky with clay. If you're new to gardening ask your neighbours. Buy a soil testing kit - this will measure the acidity of your soil. Any soil will benefit from having organic matter added so while you're digging add plenty of manure.

As long as the weather remains dry you can continue planting evergreens. Clear up any fallen leaves and cut back perennials. If you haven't already done so, curl up in front of the fire with lots of colourful catalogues to give you lots of ideas for next year.

Roses

Roses need very little attention this month - just make sure they're all tidied up for the winter.

Lawn

Clean your lawn mower. When spring comes you'll be glad you did. Never allow leaves to build up on lawns as they will cause disease.

In the Greenhouse

Save energy and keep your greenhouse warm by lining it with bubble wrap. Potted azaleas need to be watered with rainwater. Feed them weekly with Liquid Ericaceous Feed and stand them on damp gravel. When they form buds you can take them into the house if you prefer but continue to treat them in the same way. They do prefer to be kept on the cool side.

You may think pests are dead or hibernating but unfortunately whitefly and greenfly find greenhouse very congenial all the year round. Be on the lookout for them and spray as necessary.

Containers

Trees and shrubs can be planted in containers in fine weather. For permanent plantings like these choose J Arthur Bower's John Innes No. 3.

Vegetable Garden

Clear away the remains of old crops and put them on your compost heap. Remember to add biological compost maker every 15 cm (6 inches).

Herb Garden

Protect bay in very cold weather or if it's in a container move it to a sheltered spot.

Fruit Garden

Take hardwood cuttings of currants and gooseberries. The cuttings should be about 25-30 cm (10-12 inches) long and should be buried in a trench in the open ground to about half their length.

Connie's Column

Hello Everyone!

I'm sorry I didn't write an article last month, I was really busy and didn't have time!

I hope you've all had a really good month! I know I did, and I'll tell you why...

By Connie Smith
W&DN Junior Correspondent
Email: conniewdn@hotmail.co.uk

I told you in my last article that I was going to see my favourite band, The Midnight Beast, well I did. It was by far the best night of my life.

Every moment was absolutely amazing and I wish I could relive it over and over again. I think I 'fangirled' a bit too much! It was a really good night, the crowd were amazing, the people were amazing, I met some really lovely people!

The highlight of my night was (get ready for 'fangirl' mode...) When Stefan Abingdon (the love of my life) winked at me! I was jumping up and down like a maniac blowing kisses at him and he laughed at me and winked! Ashley and Dru (the other band members) also pointed at me and gave me a thumbs up, which was amazing, but I mean I have a soft spot for Stefan.

Also, after the concert, with a lot of tweeting and promising him free drinks at our pub, Stefan followed me on twitter! I literally cried for about an hour! Also, Dru said he liked my drawing and The Midnight Beast's twitter account followed me, guess it's just a follow or a tweet from Ash to go now!

What a month for a fangirl like me, hey?

If anyone has anything they would like to go in the newspaper, such as short stories, articles, letters, poems or questions, I will do my best to get them published, and answer any questions you may have. Email me at Conniewdn@hotmail.co.uk.

See you next month!!

Partnership committed to The Carrs project

Work to improve the habitat in and around Mill Pond at The Carrs Local Nature Reserve in Warsop is continuing, despite the project experiencing unexpected complications along the way.

The project, which is called Driving the Carrs, is being delivered by Mansfield District Council, the Environment Agency, Friends of the Carrs and Nottinghamshire Wildlife Trust.

Work on the Carrs will include removing silt from the Mill pool and adding new planting around the edge to provide additional wildlife habitat, as well as removing an old weir to allow fish to travel more freely.

Unfortunately the project has experienced delays due to the results of sample testing of the silt in the Mill pool, which showed unexpected high levels of trace metals. This means that the partnership has to reconsider how the silt is disposed of and a number of potential alternative solutions are now being explored.

Clr Philip Shields, Portfolio Holder for the Environment, said: "We are confident that the partnership will find a way to deliver the project; the Environment Agency is seeking expert advice on the issues of the silt and we are hopeful of having a revised plan within the next couple of months. The delay is unfortunate but it is now giving us the opportunity to consider how we might expand the project and deliver additional benefits for local people and wildlife."

The partnership hopes to have a revised project plan in place early next year with on-site work being rescheduled for late summer/early autumn.

Bird Notes...

Hello Everybody

Here are some fantastic shots taken by our friend Mr. H. Milburn, telling the story of the swans that bred on the island on the mill dam.

This photo appears to have been taken after the adult swans had taken their young on a foray up the river from the safety of the mill dam pond. The first time they try this can be the cygnets' last. If, when the adults try this and their babies are either too small or the river current too strong, chances are they will drown, this is what happened to the 2011 brood. You can see that what draws them is the lush grazing on the banks that they can access from the safety of the water.

A really pleasing shot of what well could be the adult male showing the beautiful symmetry of his wings when held in his "showboating" attitude. This behaviour is accompanied by graceful glides across the water and if you get too close a warning hiss!

A superb shot of what looks like a very happy ending, the 2 adults and all 9 of the little fluffy bundles that hatched from the nest, now in their beautiful white livery. A job very well done, although, they did have a little help from their friends, from time to time.

Winter is an excellent time to see wildfowl of all types with many species easily seen on all the larger lakes. If you keep a keen eye on the mill dam over the next few months, you will almost definitely see something a little different!

All the best. - BA

WARSOP

Footpath & Countryside Group

Two of the pleasures of the Christmas holiday are countryside walks and the giving of presents. Here are a few suggestions if you are looking for inspiration for a gift for anybody with an interest in wildlife and the countryside.

A bird feeder or a bird bath can add interest to any garden as well as helping the birds through the winter. If somebody already has enough feeders, how about a large sack of bird food? Other garden wildlife could be encouraged by a hedgehog house or an insect hotel. A computer enthusiast may appreciate a webcam, either installed in a bird nest box or directed at a bird feeder. Some versions plug straight into your TV. A low tech alternative could be a pair of binoculars! One of the many books describing local walks would be appreciated by a keen walker or maybe some items of outdoor clothing. In the unlikely event that anybody reading this is considering buying me a gift I would like to mention that rather than any of the preceding suggestions I would appreciate a bottle of Bruichladdich 10 year old malt to remind me of a holiday on Islay!

The grassland areas on The Carrs local nature reserve have received their autumn cut. Every year more wild flowers are appearing and the coarse grasses should become less dominant as the fertility of the area is reduced by removing the cut grass. We hope to increase the species growing in the area by spreading seeds taken from other nature reserves.

Warsop's cygnets took to the air in the middle of October, a most impressive sight as nine swans flew overhead. By the end of the month I spotted eight of the youngsters on the restored settling ponds at Warsop Vale whilst their parents had the River Meden to themselves once again. However by early November a couple of the youngsters had rejoined their mum and dad on the river. I heard that the ninth cygnet became a casualty during one of their early flights.

Although ash trees are not the dominant species in our local woodlands the threat from ash dieback disease is a great concern. I am not yet aware of any cases in our area although Forestry Commission staff are checking all of our local woodlands. Ash trees provide landmarks as standard trees in several of our hedgerows as well as providing a habitat for many species of wildlife.

Our next Footpaths Group walk will be on Saturday 22nd December, a week later than originally planned. We will be taking a walk around Clumber Park with a stop for mince pies and mulled wine! We will meet at Warsop library at 10am and travel to Clumber by car. Remember your card if you are a National Trust member. Contact us if you would like to join us or would like more details.

The Friends of Thynghowe

Thynghowe and the forgotten heritage of Sherwood

At last the first frosts of winter have arrived and the bracken and brambles are dying down and no longer obscure the woodland floor. As the leaves fall from the broadleaved trees more light penetrates into the woods and conditions improve for searching for evidence of the past of the forest.

Our recent meeting with experts in woodland archaeology and LiDAR from English Heritage and the Forestry Commission resulted in fascinating discussions and agreement that we have a very significant historical site in Birklands.

We hosted an enjoyable and informative workshop in early November for volunteers interested in becoming involved in our investigations into the past of Birklands. The insights provided by Andy Gaunt, Nottinghamshire's Community Archaeologist, were particularly informative. We are now involved in organising a series of surveying sessions where we are checking out the sites that were revealed by our LiDAR survey.

Pupils from Clipstone's Samuel Barlow School joined us for a day in the forest in September. Their activities involved archaeological investigation of a pit in the woods. Youngsters from three Warsop primary schools will also be taking part in heritage activities in the woodlands in the next few months.

It is good to know that the foresters from the Forestry Commission are now checking with us before contractors move into Birklands to complete any thinning or felling work. If we identify any historical sites they try to avoid those areas and mark any small items such as boundary stones. Eventually our finds will be added to their GPS systems so that they can be included on the maps they work from. Most of the guys who work in the forest share our interest in the past of the woodlands and some are aware of features and stories that we have not encountered.

If you have any questions or comments please contact us on thynghowe@warsopweb.co.uk

Mansfield takes a stand against Domestic Violence

Across Mansfield there are on average 49 reports of domestic violence to the police every week. This is a crime that is greatly under reported and many people will experience abuse for a long time before having the confidence to tell someone. Most victims are women, but it also affects men and is often witnessed by children.

Sunday 25 November is the annual recognition day for the White Ribbon campaign and as part of its commitment to become a White Ribbon Authority by February 2013, Mansfield District Council is raising awareness of domestic abuse and is calling on men to pledge never to commit, condone or remain silent about domestic abuse.

The White Ribbon Town Award is for authorities wishing to demonstrate their commitment to ending male violence against women by engaging the whole community.

The Council will make a £500 donation to local women's domestic violence support charities. It will also be running a series of awareness raising sessions for its staff, especially those who come into direct contact with residents as part of their duties.

In February 2012, the Council made a promise to support the year-long White Ribbon 'Man Enough' campaign, which aims to get a minimum of 10,000 pledges from men across Nottinghamshire, stating their opposition to violence and abuse against women and girls.

The Council is asking other organisations and businesses across the District to also join the campaign and take a stand against domestic violence.

Mansfield Town Football Club will also be showing their support with staff and players signing the Man Enough pledge. Information about the campaign will be included in the match programmes for the home games on 10 and 15 November. Collections for Nottinghamshire Independent Domestic Abuse Service (NIDAS) and Nottinghamshire Women's Aid will also be carried out at the game on Saturday 15 November.

Mansfield Churches Together will be supporting the campaign and will be handing money collected from church services on Sunday 25 November to local domestic abuse charities.

Domestic violence and abuse includes threatening behaviour, violence or abuse (psychological, physical, sexual, financial or emotional) between partners or family members, that forms a pattern of behaviour aimed at controlling the victim. Cllr Mick Barton, Portfolio Holder for Public Protection at Mansfield District Council, said: "Domestic abuse can often be a hidden problem, a crime that takes place behind closed doors, but it is estimated that as many as one in four women and one in six men are affected by domestic violence."

"By standing together to show that domestic abuse, in any form, is not acceptable, we are giving victims and perpetrators the courage to stop the cycle and seek help."

"We are particularly keen to get local businesses on board as domestic violence can impact on employees, which in turn affects business costs, productivity and workplace safety. By actively supporting this campaign, local businesses would be sending out a powerful message that recognises the importance of the issue."

If you would like to talk to someone about domestic abuse you can contact:

- Nottinghamshire Independent Domestic Abuse Service (NIDAS) on 01623 683 250 or www.nidas.org.uk
- Nottinghamshire Women's Aid on 01909 533 610 or www.nottswa.org.uk
- Nottinghamshire 24 hour free phone helpline on 0808 800 0340
- Men's Advice Line for male victims on 0808 801 0327 or www.mensadvice.org.uk

Cemetery Repairs Completed

Repairs to damaged gates, railings, a stone wall and several memorials at Warsop Cemetery have now been completed.

The damage was caused when a stolen JCB crashed into the cemetery in July last year. The cost of the repairs was approximately £21,500, which was covered by an insurance claim.

Cllr Mick Barton, Portfolio Holder for Public Protection, said: "Everything possible was done to complete the repairs as quickly as possible but unfortunately there were delays settling the insurance claim because the driver was uninsured. Submitting various quotes to the insurers was also a lengthy process."

"The stone used in the repairs had to match with the existing wall, which meant we were limited in the materials we could use and sourcing the correct stone took longer than expected."

"Our staff have worked hard to ensure that the repair work is of the highest standard and in keeping with the rest of the cemetery wall."

There are plans, subject to funding, to replace the old railings along the front boundary of the cemetery to match the section that has recently been replaced.

Warsop Inner Wheel

The Inner Wheel club of Warsop held its 40th Charter celebrations on Wednesday 7th November at the Hostess Restaurant Sookholme.

President Sue Pasierb welcomed approximately 120 members and guests who all received a hand crafted bookmark as a memento of the evening, made by member Christine Parkin. On the front of the charter programme was a ruby rose taken from an original watercolour painted by member Pat Ashton for the occasion.

The original charter was held at the Saracens Head Hotel in Southwell in 1972. 7 of the founder members were present at the Hostess restaurant.

Sue presented each of these founder members with a flower arrangement. Guest Elizabeth Sissons, daughter of the late founder treasurer June Moss was also presented with flowers in memory of her mother.

District Chairman Ann Cottee brought greetings from the executive committee and Rotary President Roger Wright brought greetings from the Rotary Club of Warsop and Shirebrook.

Speaker for the evening was Rotarian Stuart Parsons who gave a very amusing and light hearted look down "Warsop Memory Lane" bringing to life the memories of 40 years of Inner Wheel and Rotary in Warsop.

A vote of thanks was given by Vice President Sue Lunn.

Warsop Mens Probus

President Hugh Ashton announced the death of former member Peter Rogers before the speaker Mr David Coleman "Pitman" dressed as a 1950 miner explained the use of the equipment he was wearing.

He told of his experiences down the pit and of his father and his accident that almost killed him and stopped him mining for 5 years until he joined mines rescue.

With a background sound track from the BBC of the sounds of work underground and with makeup to look like he was still at work, his talk was most realistic.

Finally 22 members had lunch before the meeting was closed at 14.00 hrs.

President Hugh Ashton welcomed members to the Parish Centre to a talk by Mr Malcolm Mumford known as "mac" titled "What's That Then" He produced a large collection of gadgets made from various materials which were around a 100 years old and asked what they were and what they were used for?

These items were all hand made by blacksmiths, farmers, foundries and ordinary people to make life a little easier for themselves. Even a gadget to hold a news papers at barbers shops to stop customers folding them up to take them home! Some were very easily recognised such as boot scrapers and other completely baffling in their appearance.

27 members then had lunch before the meeting finish at 2.00 PM

MS UPDATE

MS
Multiple Sclerosis Society

Hi Dear Friends!

O.K. folks, where did 2012 go? By the time you read this issue, Christmas will be right around the corner!! It must be my age, because the days are flashing by!

Our Branch has been extremely busy as always, both with raising awareness of Multiple Sclerosis, and with fundraising, especially for a new ambulance. I would like to send our sincere thanks to Crown Speciality Packaging Company for their wonderful cheque, presented by two of their employees, Johnathan Revill and Sue White. At their Open Day, the company arranged a collection, organised by David and Marguerite Beastall, and the money raised was split between two charities - ours being one. I then had a phone call from Janet Houldsworth, Secretary of the Triangle Ladies, asking me to attend one of their Thursday meetings, at Turner Hall. It was lovely seeing all those familiar faces again, as they had helped the Branch several years before, raising funds for our other ambulance. This September, their Chairwoman, Joan Davies, handed me another cheque to put into the new ambulance fund. Then, Joan phoned me a few days later, and told me that the Ladies were having a stall at the Christmas Market, at Turner Hall, on December 8th, and the proceeds raised would come to the Branch as well. Thank-you, dear friends, for your continued help, and wonderful support.

As you already know, we hold our Socials at William IV, on Stockwell Gate, the second Tuesday of each month. Carole Cantrell, our Branch Secretary, organises a year's programme of events, trying hard to provide a wide range of activities. In September, we held a Book Sale, and raised nearly £80 in a couple of hours. A library would have been proud of that display of books!! In October, we had a speaker in from Mansfield Museum. You should have seen our members trying to figure out what each artefact was, that she had brought along. A brilliant evening!! If you fancy a night out, we are there from 7:00 till 9:00pm, and we would welcome you always.

At the moment, we are up to our eyes in tombola, and raffle prizes, for upcoming events. On December 2nd, we will have a Tombola stall at Portland College, from 10am till 3pm. Their Christmas Fair usually has a wide variety of stalls - a brilliant way to start the Festive Season. Then, on December 22nd, we hold our Christmas Social, at the Oakham Suite, on Nottingham Road. This year, we not only have our usual high quality raffle, brilliant food, but we have a special treat as well - Mr. Steve Hicken, a local singer, is doing a selection of Neil Diamond songs, and then a Christmas sing-a-long for our members, and guests. If you are interested in attending, please contact our Freephone number 0800 5420901. Raffle tickets will be on sale at Morrisons, Kings Mill Store, from Monday, November 19th -23rd, where we are doing Branch collections throughout the week.

Finally, a special "Thank-You" to The Railway Inn, in Mansfield, who have had an MS collection tin on their bar for years. They have raised a further £79.60, bringing their total to date, to over £300. Wonderful!! Thanks to all those customers who keep putting their coins in that tin, for every penny goes to help our MS patients.

Well, folks, that is it for now!! I have run out of steam!! All that is left for me to say, is to thank all of you for your continued help and support, during 2012. We are all so grateful for the community's backing in our quest to make our MS members' lives easier. On behalf of Mansfield and District Branch, we wish you all the very best for a lovely Christmas, and may 2013 bring you good health, and much happiness.

Greyhound Trust

The shop was opened by John Fretwell, on 8th November 2010. It has recently reached the magical figure of £50,000 which has helped the retired greyhound centres all over the country.

Many thanks to anyone who has supported the shop in any way, because the success could not have been achieved without their support.

Play Money for Local School

Church Warsop Primary School and Foundation Unit is celebrating after winning thousands of pounds to invest in play provision for its students.

They were handed £5,000 by Lloyds Banking Group to build a trim trail in the playground, designed to give pupils the chance to play outside the classroom regardless of the weather.

The school beat off stiff competition from other community groups to land the prize, after polling 27.12 per cent throughout the public vote organised by Lloyds through its Community Fund.

The school will also invest in a buddy bench for the playground, designed to help find all the pupils a playmate so they are not left on their own during lunch breaks.

Olwen Hawkes believes the fund money will go a long way to making a big difference to the 200 students at the school.

"It's fantastic to secure the funding and I'm very grateful so many people voted for us," she said.

"We wanted to make sure we pursued every opportunity to provide a child with adequate outdoor play and the grant will go a long way to achieving that.

"Busy and active children develop high self-esteem, confidence and an ambition to succeed in life.

"We think building these new facilities will give our children the best chances to do that, and will hopefully improve the quality of sport they are learning and the enjoyment of their lunchtime play periods." More than 200,000 people across the UK took part in a public vote between May and September to select the charities they wanted to receive the cash, part of £660,000 Lloyds Banking Group is investing through the Community Fund.

"Lloyds Banking Group's Community and Sustainable Business Director Paul Turner added: "Becoming the best bank for customers means being the best bank for our communities. The Community Fund highlights the Group's ongoing commitment to the communities we serve and doing more to help Britain prosper. "We are proud to be able to help Church Vale continue the great work they are doing through the opportunities they give their students and we look forward to seeing the difference the award will make."

Mansfield District Council
Creating a District where People can Succeed

New powers to tackle irresponsible dog owners

New Dog Control Orders will come into force next month after Mansfield District Council strengthened its powers to tackle irresponsible dog owners.

Following a public consultation, the Council decided to introduce three new orders which come into effect on 1 December. The regulations include an increase for fixed penalty notices from £50 to £75 for dog owners who fail to remove dog mess on public land. This brings it in line with other fines already in place for offences such as littering and graffiti.

A new offence of failing to put a dog on a lead and keep it on a lead when told to do so by an authorised officer will face the same penalty of £75. Owners would be required to put their dog on a lead only if it was behaving in an unsuitable way or was not under control.

It is also an offence to allow dogs to enter children's play areas, sports arenas and cemeteries which are enclosed with a boundary fence or similar. There are currently fenced play areas and sports facilities including bowling greens and tennis courts in 33 locations across the District where these orders will apply.

Cases which go to court can incur penalties of up to £1,000. New signage will be placed on parks, open spaces and cemeteries to notify dog owners of the new regulations.

Cllr Mick Barton, Portfolio Holder for Public Protection at Mansfield District Council said: "The consultation showed that dog fouling is a major concern to the people of Mansfield District and the Council is committed to doing all it can to help address this issue.

"The new orders do not include banning dogs from parks, nor will dogs be required to be on a lead at all times.

"We understand the need for dog walkers to exercise their dogs in public places but we have to balance that against the health risks to members of the public, particularly children who could come into contact with dog faeces while enjoying our public spaces."

Dog faeces are linked to health risks, including toxocara canis, which can cause stomach upsets, sore throats, asthma and even blindness. The parasite can remain in the soil for many years, even after the dog mess has weathered away.

To report dog fouling in the Mansfield District call 01623 463 463.

Warsop Police Update

Watch Out for the Alternative Christmas Shopper

With Christmas around the corner the opportunist thieves are hard at work. These people that live amongst us think it is ok to enter your home and vehicles and take items that you have worked hard to pay for.

They have no regard for the cost or the amount of time and effort it will take to repair any damage left behind as a consequence of their actions whether that be emotionally or in pound notes. Many of us do leave items on show in our own vehicles believing that they are safe and sound and will still be there when we return to our vehicles. However, this is not always the case, especially during hours of darkness. Individuals feel it necessary to check your car doors to see if any of them have been left insecure. If you have managed to lock your vehicle and they see anything inside the vehicle they will use different methods to get inside. They will smash your windows, damage the locks or even rip your doors open without a care in the world. Please remove all your items from your vehicles when left unattended or these people certainly will.

I also need to bring residents attention to a method currently being used by the same people that I have just mentioned. A number of properties in the area have recently been attacked by gaining access to the property via the Cat/Dog flaps located in back doors. Entry has been gained by reaching through with some type of tool and fishing handbags, rucksacks, coats, trainers, keys etc from within the property. I know that a lot of these pet accessories come with some type of locks attached to them so please use them. In some circumstances home owners have these flaps fitted yet no longer have any pets to care for so please get them removed or covered over permanently. I would also encourage you to have a cupboard in the house where you can store your bags, coats and vehicle keys minimising the reasons for someone to try and enter your home.

With help from my colleagues who work from Mansfield Woodhouse Police Station and conducted road checks around the Warsop Parish. Our brief was to stop vehicles where the occupants fail to adhere to the fatal 4 road legislation. They are speeding, not wearing seatbelt, driving whilst using a mobile telephone and driving whilst under the influence of drink or drugs. Throughout this initiative, we stop checked a number of vehicles yet only issued 1 fixed penalty ticket for the driver not wearing a seatbelt. Now, you can look at this in two ways, either, moan that the officers were highly visible giving drivers chance to get off their phones, slow down or give them chance to put their seatbelt on. Or, you can say that they people of Warsop realise the dangers that come with failing to adhere to road legislation and are very competent and responsible drivers. This will not be the only time that this initiative will be conducted, a number of dates have been highlighted by the Mansfield North Safer Neighbourhood Team and Warsop is an area that will be visited.

As you can imagine, Christmas is a time that the Police focus on when it comes to drinking in moderation. Our force will have a huge push on driving whilst under the influence of drink or drugs. Please make sure you continue to drive responsibly and refrain from drinking and driving as your actions behind a steering wheel can be fatal if you are not able to concentrate 100%.

I do hope your preparations for the festive period run smoothly and you can find time to join the rest of the community and attend the Christmas Market Event on the 6th December in Warsop town centre.

AIDING AMELIA CHARITY DAY 12-LATE

Saturday 8th December at the Hare & Hounds

All money raised goes to a local family who have recently found out that their daughter has a rare degenerative condition that has no cure.

Amelia Wood, aged just 3 years old, was first thought to have epilepsy when she began having seizures. However, in August this year she was diagnosed with Late Infantile Batten Disease, a rare condition which effects young children resulting in mental impairment, loss of sight and speech, seizures and eventual loss of motor skills too.

Amelia has a life expectancy of 6-8 years old. She is already loosing her sight, she cannot talk and has to use a walking frame to walk around. All money raised from this event will go to help Amelia's parents create a sensory room within their home to make her short life a little more comfortable.

THE ROYAL BRITISH LEGION

A big thank you goes to all those that supported our Poppy Appeal either through selling or buying a poppy.

Our Launch took place at The Tudor Barn when a Welfare and Benefits/Money Advisor were on hand to help our beneficiaries.

Vice Chairman of Warsop Parish Council, Peter Crawford buys the first poppy from Branch Chairman Brian Marples and Veterans George Humphrey and Jon Dunn.

Our Concert for Remembrance at Warsop Parish Church was again a great success. Musical Director of Nottinghamshire Police Band, Gary Glover had put together a varied assortment of music to suit all tastes.

He started with a selection of marches, followed by a haunting rendition of Gareth Malones/Military Wives Choir, Wherever You Are, played superbly by flautist Emma Goodman. A selection of Star Trek Themes and Cartoon classics filled the middle section, ending with some classical pieces. A very moving Nimrod started the section followed by Remembrance classics such as Now The Day Is Over and the Last Post. The concert closed with a selection of pieces from Miss Saigon.

We say thank you to all our supporters at our December meeting, 7.45pm on Monday the 10th (doors open at 7.30pm) when member Alan Hill and friends are to entertain us with music. Mince Pies will be available.

Readers letters...

Thank you letter

The family of Anita, especially Eileen, Helen, Malcolm and David, would like to say a huge thankyou to everyone who attended her funeral on 1st October. Thanks also for the kind donations in lieu of flowers, which have gone to the Oaklands and Kings Mill Hospital Scanner appeal.

Special thanks must go to Eric Townroe and his team and to Rev Angela Fletcher.

Anita was a member for many years of the Warsop Organ Society, and also worked with the fundraisers for the Oaklands Centre. Both of these organisations were very special to Anita over the years, and we are grateful to everyone there for their friendship towards Mum and wish them well in the future.

As you can see, we are pretty busy on the run up to Christmas singing-wise. However there are only cakes to make, a bit of baking to do, a tad of shopping, cards to finish and write, presents to buy and wrap etc. etc. I shall definitely need a lie down in a darkened room on several occasions. All the hustle and bustle will be well worth the effort though come Christmas Day. Then it will be gird your loins time for the Sales. CAN'T WAIT!!

We do hope you will be able to enjoy a Carol Concert at some point in the coming weeks. At least it's an opportunity to sit down and relax for a while.

The Choir wish you all a Very Happy Christmas and a Peaceful and Harmonious New Year

We rehearse every Wednesday at The Dukeries Complex Day Centre, from 7.30pm to 9.30pm. Access and car parking is via the Whinney Lane entrance. Just turn up and give us a go or contact our Chairman Alan Sinclair on 01623 823271
