Local Talent Shines on Mic

Roger The Mascot from Nottinghamshire has been given the big thumbs up by judges at the Open Mic UK auditions. Along with other impressive acts, Roger The Mascot has made it through to the Regional Finals and will now be performing at the live stages of Open Mic UK 2012.

Open Mic UK 2012 is the exciting national talent competition which searches for the UK's best singers, singer/songwriters, rappers and vocalists of all genres who perform either covers or original material.

One contestant who has evidently caught the judge's eye is local talent Roger The Mascot, now in the running to compete for a place in the National Final within The O2 in London. These chaps have already gained notoriety in the local area, working with Ross Orton (producer for The Arctic Monkeys) and have also slotted a performance at the Y Not festival under their belt. With nearly 2000 views alone for just one of their YouTube videos, these guys are certainly making fans by the bucket load.

Thousands of hopefuls entered nationwide and hundreds of auditionees queued patiently on the day for their turn to impress the judges. Those who made it through the audition stage will now take part in a live Regional head to head battle alongside the best talent in their area. They'll be performing in front of hundreds of audience members and a professional judging panel to win a place at the National Grand Final.

Chris Grayston, Events Coordinator for Open Mic UK comments "We are looking to find an act that has something unique to offer, another Birdy that can go all the way, with both the ability to deliver a strong live performance but also potential to become a professional recording artist. There is so much talent out there I'm sure we can find that star again!"

The competition is divided into age categories; 16 and under, 17-22 and 23 and over; all types of singers, vocal performers, groups and acoustic singer/songwriters are invited to enter Open Mic UK. The acts are all aiming to make it to that prestigious Final at The O2 where the spotlight will be on all the acts with a chance to be signed.

The latter stages of the competition will also provide acts with the opportunity to impress many guests from record labels, agencies and the entertainment industry as well as judges from BBC. Introducing, national radio and regional press with judges being more prestigious in the later rounds. Past judges include Radio 1 DJs Ras Kwame and Annie Nightingale MBE with Ivor Novello award winner Mark Hill and KISS FM's Charlie Hedges already confirmed to join this year's Grand Final panel for 2012.

Former winner, Hatty Keane has been signed to BGM Music. Hatty has been featured in a variety of local, regional and national press, performed live sets alongside Ed Sheeran, Tinchy Stryder and Roll Deep and is currently working on new material.

Previous winner Birdy, who is now signed to Warner, has had hits all over Europe in the last 12 months and is set to conquer the US in a collaboration with Mumford & sons.

For more information go to the website www.openmicuk.co.uk or better still come down and support your local talent performing! You can purchase tickets from the website www.openmicuk.co.uk or on the door subject to availability or from Roger The Mascot.

EDITOR'S LETTER

We are already experiencing cold, wet weather after a short spell of a summer! The Town Hall new central heating is being fitted as I speak but I am sat here shivering, hopefully we will be warm soon and more energy efficient. Its cost a lot of money but was necessary, your money I have to add. I would just like to say thank you to John Whitehead and his team, they have worked around us, it's not been easy but they kept the disruption to a minimum and we have had a few laughs along the way apart from when they were really noisy! Guys you so were!!! So bring the winter on cos we are so ready for it now!

I am back in the saddle full time now so you can call and see me anytime. I have a good team working with me, Chris is my right hand woman and takes charge of everything, (she is so bossy but I love her to bits, we call her the Rotweiler!). And now I also have Kam who looks after the reception, anything to do with the Town Hall, any MDC related queries and anything else I throw at her, so just pop and have a chat with her, she is here Tues, Wed and Thurs mornings.

The Town Hall is up and running, there are lot of new courses and we have shine moving in soon. Come and see what we have to offer, if you need a room we can hire it, if you need a learning course we can provide it, it is all about bringing the community to a one stop shop, if you think we can offer more come and talk to us, what would you like to see in your Town Hall?

See you all soon x

GARDENING MONTHLY...

ESSENTIAL JOBS CHECKLIST FOR OCTOBER

- Bring in tender perennials, trim and store in a frost-free place
- Mulch your border with homemade compost
- Start a new compost heap
- Compost summer bedding and plant up containers with bulbs and winter bedding
- Plant bulbs in the garden.

TIPS FOR OCTOBER

Flower Garden

Continue to plant bulbs in the open garden. Enrich the soil in the planting hole with a sprinkling of Bonemeal.

This is also a good time of year to plant new shrubs and perennials. The warmth in the soil will help them to get quickly established. Be generous with the planting mixture and be sure to water in well in dry weather.

October is a good time of year to move established evergreens and conifers. Get a friend to help and dig them up with the biggest rootball you can manage. Prepare the new planting site well with lots of your favourite planting mixture - make sure to include bonemeal to boost root formation. Then water in very well. You'll need to continue for several weeks until the plant becomes established.

Dig up dahlias as soon as frost blackens the foliage. Cut back the stems to about 10 cm (4 inches) and remove as much soil as possible before standing the plants upside-down for about a week to allow them to dry out. Store the tubers in boxes, covered with slightly damp peat. If you don't have a frost-free greenhouse or shed, you can keep the tubers in a spare bedroom or unheated porch.

Roses

If blackspot or rust has been a problem try and pick off infected leaves as far as you can and dispose of them - don't put them on the compost heap. If they fall to the ground and blow about they will spread the infections next year.

Lawn

New lawns can be laid or sown on well-prepared sites. Scarify established lawns with a rake, then aerate with a fork if you haven't done it already. There's still time to use Autumn Lawn Food.

In the Greenhouse

Check through all pots that have been growing in the greenhouse or that have been brought in from the garden. Destroy any vine weevil larvae that you find.

Stop watering tuberous begonias and allow the tops to die off. Then remove the tubers from the compost and store in a cool, dry place.

Bring late-flowering pot-grown chrysanthemums into the greenhouse for some late colour.

Wash shading off the windows and consider insulating your greenhouse with bubblepack.

Containers

As well as planting containers with bulbs and spring bedding, consider planting a couple with small evergreen shrubs to give a bit of structure and green through the winter months. Euonymus, ivies and dwarf conifers are ideal.

Vegetable Garden

Harvest carrots and potatoes, making sure the crops are clean and dry before you put them into storage. Marrows can be stored once their skins have been hardened in the sun.

Finish picking tomatoes before the plants become diseased. You can hang up the whole plant to ripen green trusses, or alternatively pick the fruit and ripen it individually. Or you could always make some green tomato chutney!

Herb Garden

To ensure a supply of fresh mint during winter dig up some roots and plant them 5cm (2 inches) deep in a seed tray in Multi-Purpose Compost. Keep the tray in the greenhouse.

Clumps of chives can also be put into pots and brought into the greenhouse.

Fruit Garden

Prepare site for planting bare-rooted fruit trees and bushes. No fruit trees like poor drainage so if your soil is heavy add plenty of Silvaperl grit or gravel as well as organic matter when you dig it over.

Finish harvesting autumn-fruiting raspberries and cut down all the canes that have fruited this year.

Happy Gardening

Bird Notes...

Hello all

Here are two photographs sent in by H. Millburn, the first is an absolutely superb shot of a Willow Warbler in the act of catching a large fly.

This migratory species visits Western Europe from Africa in the summer months. Its beautiful descending cascade of a song is mostly heard in early summer around woodland edges and scrubland.

These birds should be well into their southerly migration by now, although at this time of year other similar, closely related but much rarer species of 'Phylloscopus' or Leaf Warbler will occur in Britain during their seasonal movements.

Willow Warbler

Water Hen

The second photograph is another great shot by H. Millburn of a Moorhen showing its diagnostic red bill shield. The white outer tail feathers show well and when it is out of the water, as this one is, they will be constantly flicked.

These birds are well adapted to both swimming and clambering over submerged and half submerged vegetation with long lobed toes enabling them to successfully live in many waterside habitats.

All the best. - B.A.

WARSOP

Footpath & Countryside Group

This is the time of year to enjoy the changing colours of the countryside as the vigorous annual vegetation dies down.

The first proper frosts will hasten this process by subduing the bracken until next spring. Autumn is a great season for walking with more light penetrating into woodlands, the air feeling fresher and colourful fungi appearing.

One of the pleasures from this summer has been watching Warsop's pair of swans raise their nine cygnets and in early September they had all survived and were thriving. Other birds did less well with few families of ducklings on the river and I had to wait until August before I saw any moorhens successfully raising a brood. There have been fewer sightings of water voles along the river, although they have appeared in a new area.

October is usually the best month for fungi spotting in our woodlands and hedgerows although it is possible that conditions could be drier than in the middle of summer! It is worth taking a walk to see what you can find. A few years ago I attended several fungi identification courses and advanced my skills to a level where I would only eat mushrooms that have a barcode on the packet!

By now we should have given all of our footpaths their final grass cut of the year and we can now neglect them until next May. An indication of the difference between the last two summers is that in 2011 we devoted 65 volunteer hours to grass cutting whereas this year the total was over 120 hours. We shall be returning to several paths this winter in order to trim the hedges once the birds have consumed the haws, hips and sloes. Our other winter jobs include a grass cut on part of the Hills & Holes SSSI and management tasks on The Carrs Local Nature Reserve. If you would like to join us for a couple of hours on a Thursday morning you can contact us on the number below.

Last month I mentioned the lack of a hedgehog in my garden to assist with controlling my slug population. One did turn up a few days later but I suspect he was the victim of an accident on our street at the end of August. It is sad that we often only realise that some animals are present in our countryside when they become road casualties.

Our next Footpaths Group walk will be on Saturday 20th October. It will be somewhere not too far away, probably either upstream or downstream in the Meden valley. We will meet at Warsop library at 10am and travel by car to the starting point. Contact us if you would like to join us or would like more details.

Paralympic success for Mansfield Nova duo

Mansfield Nova swimmers, Ollie Hynd and Charlotte Henshaw, stormed to success at the Paralympic Games, after Ollie took gold and Charlotte claimed silver in their races at the London Aquatics Centre last night.

Competing in the SM8 200m individual Medley, Ollie (17) won a gold medal in 2:24.63, a full two seconds clear of China's Wang Jiachao in second place, while brother Sam came just outside the medals in fourth. Charlotte Henshaw won silver in the SB6 100m breaststroke and was just three hundredths of a second from taking gold, which was won by Ukrainian's Viktoriia Savtsova.

The Mayor of Mansfield Tony Egginton said: "Both races were astounding. We are immensely proud of all of our athletes and they are truly inspirational.

"Both Ollie and Charlotte train with the Mansfield Nova Squad and although Sam is away at university his swimming roots are also here in Mansfield. Their success will have a lasting impact and I'm sure will inspire the next generation to follow suit."

Sam Hynd, Ollie Hynd and Charlotte Henshaw are all successes of the Swimming Development programme provided by Mansfield District Council and Nottinghamshire County Council.

A homecoming event to celebrate the achievements of our local Olympic and Paralympic athletes was held in Mansfield Market Place on Tuesday 11 September. There was also a Sports Village with local clubs showcasing their activities on Westgate.

Rebecca Adlington, Chris Adcock, Charlotte Henshaw, Sam Hynd and Oliver Hynd will all be attending. Dance duo Twist and Pulse, who were the runners-up in 2010 Britain's Got Talent, took to the stage to warm up the crowds.

The Mayor added: "People from the District and surrounding areas turned out in their thousands to show their pride and appreciation for our local Olympic and Paralympic athletes and the hard work and time they dedicate to their sport.

"The Sports Village provided the ideal opportunity for people who have been inspired by the Games to find out how they can get involved in a range of sports – maybe stars of the future will be discovered!"

The Future

The 6th meeting of Meden Vale the Future, incorporating Meden Vale Community Association, was held at the Village Hall on Tuesday 4th September 2012. 8 members of the Committee were present and 1 local Councillor. Two apologies were received.

It was reported that Mansfield District Council were going to issue a '215 Notice' on the Old Village Hall. This in effect means that the Company owning the site will have to demolish it within a set period of time, if they do not, the Council will step in to organise demolition of the building and send them the resulting bill. This would appear to be progress as the Old Village Hall has been an eye sore for far too long.

A course of jewellery making will commence on Monday 10th September which will last 6 to 7 weeks. The Committee require a copy of the Public Liability Insurance from the Welbeck Welfare to display in the Village Hall.

The Representative from Meden Vale Sports Association was not present at the meeting so an update was not possible. However, our local Councillor agreed to register with Mansfield Town Football Club our continued interest for them to use our facilities as their training ground. Following a visit by talent scouts from Rotherham United Football Club two local boys, Connor Brown and Luke Gash have been chosen to attend the Centre of Footballing Excellence. Congratulations to both!

The next meeting of Welbeck Colliery the Future is scheduled for Wednesday 26th September. However, the planning application for re grading and improving the pit tip goes to Nottinghamshire County Council Planning Committee on Tuesday 18th September. This is obviously of importance to the village and if passed will result in work commencing soon after.

The Treasurer reported that the finances were only just satisfactory but we should be receiving £1,000 in Grant Aid from Mansfield District Council. The Committee gave the go ahead to replace the side door to the Village Hall with a new one. It was reported that the repairs to the Warsop cemetery are under way.

Because of the recent fatal accident on Cuckney Hill, consideration is urgently being given to closing the lay-bys at the top of the hill, introducing a reduced speed limit and banning U turns.

Next meeting will be held on Tuesday 2nd October 2012 at 7.30 pm. All welcome.

Please contact the Secretary, Kay Walker on 01623 844282 for further information.

The Friends of Thynghowe

Thynghowe and the forgotten heritage of Sherwood

- Did you spend your younger days playing in the Forest between Warsop Windmill, Meden Vale, Buddy and Edwinstowe?
- If you are over 60, did you ever get escorted off by the military?
- Have you ever worked in the Forest?
- Do you walk or cycle in the Forest?
- Are you interested in the history of Sherwood Forest?

If you answer 'Yes' to any of these questions you may be interested in attending our workshop at Sherwood Pines on Saturday 3rd November 2012 starting at 10am.

This workshop is another chance to discover more about Thynghowe, Birklands and our project 'Thynghowe and the forgotten heritage of Sherwood'.

The morning sessions will cover the results of our LiDAR survey of the woodland, the techniques that we will use when surveying any features identified by LiDAR and feedback from our research into documents in archives.

After a lunch break there will be an optional practical session when we will survey and record an archaeological feature to share the skills needed for 'ground truthing' in the Forest in the coming months. These sessions will end around 3pm. Drinks will be provided during the morning session, bring a packed lunch or food is available at the Sherwood Pines Café. Car parking for people attending this event is free and it is suitable for folk of all ages.

The recent LiDAR survey together with aerial photographs taken between 1941 and the 1980s revealed many humps, bumps and holes in the woodland. Many of these date from the military use of the Forest during and after World War II and also from recent forestry operations. If you can help identify these features we would appreciate your contribution.

We are also recruiting the team of volunteers who will go into the woods this winter and help us find and record any features. This process of 'ground truthing' involves locating sites that show up on the LiDAR images and determining whether they are historically significant.

If you would like to attend the workshop please book your place by contacting the Greenwood Forest Team by email on greenwood@nottscc.gov.uk or by phoning 0115 9696518 or 07740 845574. If you have any questions or comments please contact us on thynghowe@warsopweb.co.uk

Warsop Watercolour Group

Taught By Matthew Palmer

Matthew Palmer Natural Grey. The natural grey, a new paint that I have designed over the past 20 years of painting, is a perfect shadow, neutral colour. It's actually a unique mixture of three primary colours (red, yellow and blue). Using a grey or shadow colour put together from primary colours makes the colour work perfectly as a shadow, it adds distance to it, it recedes and falls back and as the colour is translucent the underneath colours shine through. It really is the perfect shadow colour. Mixed and used by myself and all my students for many years.

This images shows the difference between Paynes Grey and my new Natural Grey. Notice how the darker Paynes Grey jumps off the paper, it shouts at you. The Natural Grey falls back and will not affect any other colours in your painting.

Matthew Palmer Natural Blue. For the first time a perfect natural sky blue, I have always said wouldn't it be great if we had a realistic natural bright, sky blue, as French Ultramarine blue is too deep for skies and Cobalt is a little flat for a sky. The Matthew Palmer Natural Blue is a new primary colour. It also mixes wonderful bright greens and makes lovely bright skies for all seasons. Natural Blue my new primary blue in my palette.

Matthew Palmer Natural Yellow. This yellow is perfect for painting buildings, mountains and a spot on sandy beach colour. It also works well when mixed with the Natural Grey, giving a buff colour for tree trunks and mountains. Deeper and richer than Yellow Ochre and Raw Sienna, it's a lovely addition to any watercolour palette.

Natural Yellow seems to leap off the paper, making buildings come alive. And of course you can add the new Natural Grey over the top of this colour to give shadows.

Over Looking Snowdon, North Wales.

Equipment

- SAA Gold Flat 12mm brush.
- SAA Gold Round size 20 Brush.
- SAA Gold Rigger size 6 brush.
- Matthew Palmer's Natural Watercolour paint Set.
- Fontaine 100% cotton, 140lb, ¼ Imperial watercolour paper

Using the Round size 12 brush and standard watercolour paper. Wet entire paper. Tip- don't over soak the paper. Start with a pale or watery Natural Yellow in the lower half of the sky, working with slight diagonal brush strokes. Clean your brush and add a pale Natural Blue in the top half, blend the colours together. Next add the clouds, notice the grey shadows on the bottoms, Natural Grey is used for this, add three diagonal lines. Finish off by using kitchen paper to 'roll out the clouds', with a tiny blob of tissue.

Once dry use the Flat or chisel brush. Work with a pale watery Natural Grey, add the distant mountain, dry off and using three colours, strong Natural Grey, Natural Yellow and a green mixed from Natural Blue and Aureolin Yellow, paint the mid mountain, the grey at the top and so on. Tip- while the paint is still wet, use a damp 12mm brush to wipe out some highlights (see image). Once dry add a bit of dry brush work using the Natural Grey.

Finish off this wonderful Welsh landscape by adding some foreground. I have added a couple of cottages and a few trees using size 6 Round brush, using a strong mix of the Natural Grey and Natural Yellow. but really the choice is yours!

Give it ago and don't be afraid to get started

Short Report for Parish Council Meeting held on Monday

17th September 2011

A full set of minutes is available from The Clerk at Warsop Town Hall or view on-line at www.warsopweb.co.uk

Town Hall

The new central heating system is almost finished and we are looking forward to a nice warm winter, it has cost a lot of tax payer's money but was absolutely necessary, the system was 25 years old and totally inefficient, as part of our commitment to reducing our carbon footprint we had to update it.

We welcome Shine who are soon to move into offices upstairs, they are desperate for funding to offer facilities for our young people, so if you have some money give it to Kev!!! The police want shine to be up and running again to keep Anti-Social Behaviour down and we have the Eastwood building crying out to be used as a family facility, it is a fantastic space and could be so well used if we can just find the funding.

High Street Car Park

The Parish Council are in the process of purchasing the car park and shop on a loan and hope to complete the sale soon. They will also include the cost of the central heating system at the Town Hall and borrow a total of £60,000.

MDC

The recent report from the Standards Board after they observed a meeting earlier in the year commended the PC on their well organised and structured meeting.

Mansfield District Council
Creating a District where People can Succeed

Supernanny Joins Council

Mansfield District Council has its very own Supernanny, following the appointment of Specialist Parenting Practitioner Anne Callaghan.

Offering advice and guidance on how to deal with challenging behaviour in children, Anne provides support and early interventions to families, whose children's anti-social behaviour is having an adverse affect on communities in the Mansfield District.

Anne co-ordinates and runs a range of programmes for parents, including The Strengthening Families Programme, which is aimed at families struggling with teenage children. The programme helps parents tackle any problems early on and gives them the skills to deal with difficult issues.

"Sometimes young people get in with the wrong crowd and are easily led," says Anne.

"They start to truant and communications break down within the family. This can then lead to anti-social behaviour in the wider community. Working with the families, we look at the teenager's behaviour, their education and their aspirations. I also get parents to look at the way they were parented themselves."

Another programme offered by Anne is the pioneering Non Violent Resistance programme, which is for parents dealing with physical violence from their children. Guidance and support is given on how to deal with this behaviour without resorting to physical retaliation. Anne, whose job was previously funded by Nottingham County Council, has witnessed a lot of success stories over the years and has enjoyed seeing young people on the cusp of anti-social behaviour going back into education with a more positive attitude, as well as enjoying better relationships and a better atmosphere within the home.

She has also seen parents turn their lives round and complete educational courses, or gain employment.

"One single mother I helped had been a victim of domestic violence and her children were on a child protection plan," said Anne.

"She attended a parenting programme and began to support her children more positively. She now has her own business, her children are thriving and she is in a new relationship."

Portfolio Holder for Public Protection, Councillor Mick Barton said: "I am delighted that Mansfield District Council has taken on the funding of this important post of Specialist Parent Practitioner and the appointment of Anne, who is a specialist in her field.

"Reducing crime and anti-social behaviour is a major priority for the Council. Working with families, who are having difficulties in parenting their children and offering them support and early intervention is an important approach to solving ASB and stopping young people from turning to crime.

"We want our neighbourhoods to be pleasant places to live in and we want families to function in a positive way. Anne's work with families with known problems goes a long way to improving people's lives, both within families and in the wider community."

For more information on Anne's work, you can contact her on 01623 463529.

Fractured moon over Spion Kop taken by local resident on Sunday 2nd September.

Mansfield welcomes home its Olympic heroes

Thousands of people turned out for Mansfield's homecoming event for local Olympic and Paralympic stars.

Olympic medallist Rebecca Adlington, Olympic badminton player Chris Adcock, and Paralympic swimmers Charlotte Henshaw and Ollie Hynd received a rapturous welcome from Mansfield people, who gathered in the Market Place to celebrate the stunning success of the athletes at the London 2012 games.

The crowds roared and waved thousands of flags, as the four athletes took to the stage in celebration of their combined total of six medals. Paralympic bronze medallist Sam Hynd, who was unable to attend the event, was represented by proud mum Helen, who was also a torchbearer for the Paralympics.

There was a carnival atmosphere throughout the evening, as people enjoyed a range of events including a performance by streetdance duo Twist and Pulse, who were runners-up in 2010 Britain's Got Talent. There were also interviews with Olympic torchbearers and winners of the Inspiring Mansfield school sports event.

Giant screens showed highlights of the athletes' medal winning performances at the London games and there was a guest appearance by Glenn Smith, Team GB Paralympic coach and Swimming Development Officer for Mansfield District Council. The event, which was organised by Mansfield District Council and hosted by Stuart Nicholson from Mansfield 103.2, closed with a spectacular explosion of confetti amidst the cheering crowds. Executive Mayor Tony Egginton said: "The homecoming was a fantastic celebration of the achievements of our Olympic and Paralympic athletes. We are so proud of Becky, Ollie, Sam, Charlotte and Chris. They are excellent role models for Mansfield and the success of the District. This has been a marvellous opportunity for all of us to come together to show our appreciation of these exceptional people."

Rebecca Adlington won a double bronze in the Women's 400m Freestyle and 800m Freestyle. Ollie Hynd took gold in the SM8 200m individual Medley, silver in the S8 Men's 400m Freestyle and bronze in the S8 100m Backstroke. His brother Sam won bronze in the S8 400m Freestyle. Charlotte picked up a silver in the SB6 100m Breaststroke and was just three hundredths of a second from taking gold.

TURNAROUND More than just another charity shop

Unwanted 'unloved' clothing

A recent article in a national newspaper reported that in the past year we've left an astonishing 1.7 billion items of unworn new clothing hanging in our wardrobes.

That's an average of 28 items for every man, woman and child in Britain, making a total cost of £30 billion. The report says that unworn clothes make up 30% of a typical wardrobe. A third of all unwanted clothing – 430,000 tons of them – end up in landfill sites! The most common reasons for unwanted clothing are not fitting into them anymore, saving them for an occasion or not getting round to sorting them out. Donating your unwanted clothing to charity shops is an excellent way of recycling and saving valuable resources.

At Turnaround, we pride ourselves in selling good quality used clothing. All our donations are checked, steamed, priced and hung. Nothing is thrown away – clothing that is not suitable for the shop floor gets recycled. Thank you to all the people who have donated clothing to us since we opened last October – we couldn't do what we do without you! If you are thinking of clearing out your wardrobes and cupboards after the summer break, we would be very happy to receive your 'un-loved' items – and find them a new home! (We also take books, cd's bric-a-brac, electrical, bags, shoes etc).

Turnaround Community Grants Any groups, associations, etc that are endeavouring to 'turnaround' and change peoples' lives in Warsop are invited to apply for a Community Grant. As Turnaround is part of Lifespring Church, every application received will be submitted to the Church Council for their consideration. Application forms are available at Turnaround.

If you are interested in volunteering at Turnaround please call into the shop or phone Steve on 07713639780. Opportunities to study for NVQs in Customer Services and Retail Skills are available.

BUSINESS FOCUS 2012

Julie's Official Celebration

New outlet, Bows & Tails was officially opened on 31st August by the Council's portfolio holder for Economic Regeneration, Councillor Kate Allsop.

Julie, who has been working from home to build up her business for the past three years, feels she has achieved so much, especially in the past year. She has been on a training course, opened her shop on Sherwood Street, Warsop and expanded her business to include other services.

Bows & Tails now offer alterations done from the shop and is also an outlet for Dry Cleaning and Laundry. Julie's story of success proves that with hard work, determination and a little bit of support it can be done!

Part of Julie's aim is to let people know that there is help out there for those who are prepared to work hard and take the time to look for it.

Julie explained, "It all started with A proof of Concept Programme in September 2011, this is a free 3 month course run by The Hive based in Mansfield, through Nottingham Trent University. It is one full day a week and a one to one with a Business Coach once a week for an hour. You can go along with any business idea you have and they help you with every aspect of running your own business."

Julie invited local businesses to her event including Wedding Wheels who have helped Julie expand her business by inviting her to stand at the wedding fairs which are organised by Mike from Wedding Wheels in local venues around the Nottinghamshire area.

Representatives from Crumbs, who recently opened their shop on Sherwood Street, Warsop came to show their support to Julie and they are planning a working partnership with Bows & Tails.

As well as their delicatessen outlet Crumbs also do outside catering and the two businesses have already been collaborating in the organisation of a wedding at the Tudor barn last month.

Julie works with many local venues in and around Warsop including Clumber Mill and Sherwood Forest. Yvonne the wedding organiser for Rufford Mill, who is also pictured right at the opening commented, "I would recommend Bows & Tails to every bride because they offer a top quality service at competitive prices, they are local, friendly and reliable."

The shop is a delightful addition to Sherwood Street and new businesses such as Bows & Tails and Crumbs should be encouraged and supported by the local business and residential community. The more varied shopping experience can only benefit shoppers and help expand the local economy.

So if you are getting married or planning any celebration call in to Bows & Tails to discover a wealth of ideas and services to help enhance your wedding reception or party.

Mansfield District Council
Creating a District where People can Succeed

Council Tax Benefit is changing - have your say

The Government has announced that, from April 2013, Council Tax Benefit will be abolished and replaced with a local Council Tax Support Scheme.

Every Council has to introduce its own individual Council Tax Support Scheme by January 2013, ready for when the annual Council Tax bills are issued in April 2013.

Council Tax Benefit helps people on low incomes pay their Council Tax. The changes will only apply to people of working age - pensioners will be fully protected and will see no reduction in the help they currently receive with their Council Tax.

Mansfield District Council will have its funding for Council Tax Support cut by around 10% by the Government.

The funding reduction for Mansfield District Council and other organisations who receive a share of the Council Tax bill, such as Nottinghamshire County Council, Nottinghamshire Police Authority and Nottinghamshire Fire and Rescue, will be well over £1m.

Mansfield District Council has developed a draft Council Tax Support Scheme which will help cover some, but not all of the funding gap. The main proposals follow the current national Council Tax Benefit Scheme but with some changes.

This will mean that:

- Everyone of working age will pay something towards their Council Tax bill
- Work incentives will be built into the scheme, and
- People with children or disabilities will continue to be protected as Child Benefit or Disability Living Allowance will not be counted as income in our calculations.

To help reduce this budget gap further, the Council may have to make changes to some of the discounts awarded on empty properties, second homes and properties that are being structurally repaired. Single person rebates of 25% will not change in any way.

The Council is therefore giving people the chance to have their say on its plans for the new Council Tax Support scheme until Sunday 4 November 2012, to help it devise a final scheme which is fair and makes the best use of the funding available.

Questionnaires, which can be returned in the pre-paid envelopes provided, will be sent directly to all current working age council tax benefit claimants and a random selection of Council Tax payers across the District. The questionnaire can also be completed online at www.mansfield.gov.uk/ctconsultation

A dedicated telephone helpline 01623 463 522 has been set up to answer any general questions people may have about the draft scheme and related issues. The line will be open from 9.30am to 4.30pm on weekdays throughout the consultation period.

Cllr Roger Sutcliffe, Portfolio Holder for Resources, said: "It is important that people take part in this consultation, as the information you supply will be used to help us make the decisions on the final Council Tax Support Scheme."

After the consultation has closed, all responses will be considered in relation to the new Council Tax Support Scheme. A decision will be taken in December 2012 and the results will be available shortly afterwards on the Council's website www.mansfield.gov.uk

Warsop Police Update

Cold Call Warning!

It has been brought to my attention that a number of individuals are 'cold calling' at addresses within the parish attempting to get residents to part with their money to buy household goods.

One of these individuals managed to sell £50 worth of goods to an elderly lady on her door step stating that he had just been released from prison and this is the only job that he is allowed to do (I hope the dusters were magic one's and cleaned the house on their own for that price). I have made checks with the department that grant a 'pedlar's licence' within the police and they have explained to me that the police do grant licences to individuals that have been released from prison but they must pass a number of criteria before this is granted. For instance, if someone has been released from prison for theft, burglary etc, they will not be issued a pedlar's licence.

I would urge anyone that gets a visit from such people to either contact Dee or myself in the first instance, failing that ring 101 and get an officer out to check the credentials of the individual. It's better to be safe than sorry. Door to door sales techniques have been used in the past by burglars to distract residents whilst the salesperson's accomplice enters the property via the back entrance and takes belongings from within the premises.

Please, if you are in any doubt about people coming to your door without a prior appointment, do not open your door to them or let them into your home.

Again, I have received complaints about parking along Sherwood Street. It is the responsibility of the civil enforcement officer to prosecute people parking illegally, however, if the police believe that vehicles that are parked illegally and are causing an unnecessary obstruction, the vehicle can and will be towed away and a cost to the owner of the vehicle before it can be released. I have been on foot patrol recently and watched as the civil enforcement officers conduct their patrols along Sherwood Street. People will come running out of shops to move their vehicles further down the street. Why do people flirt with the chance that they may receive a fine when they do not park legally and then complain to who ever will listen to them about how much they have been fined.

Another issue that is becoming to raise its head is the situation with children loitering around on High Street. I do acknowledge that the groups are less in numbers than in previous years yet shop owners are concerned that whilst these children are 'hanging around' in groups outside their establishments it is preventing paying customers from entering. It is not general poor behaviour from the groups it is the perception that this group may be a small 'mob'. Many people of a certain age still believe that if you are a young person and wear a hooded top with the hood over the head during the heights of summer, you are up to no good. This I know is not always the case. I have said before that Warsop parish has some of the best kids that I have had the pleasure of meeting and working with, yet the public perception of groups of young children hanging around on the High Street can be viewed as Anti Social Behaviour.

I believe that with SHINE out of commission during this period we have seen a lot more of the young children playing in the streets when they would normally have been in one of Kevin Keegan's activities putting their skills and enthusiasm to good use. Speaking on behalf of the safer neighbourhood team at Warsop I speak openly when I say that SHINE is and are a fantastic tool for families of Warsop and every effort should be made to get them up and running again. I am aware that Kev is hoping to get SHINE going again and he will need as much financial support as possible. He has been a brilliant example of caring for the community that you live in and he has worked tirelessly to drive Anti Social Behaviour down by giving the youth of the area activities to help kill their boredom and provide them with skills for their future.

 Funeral Plans

Are You Eligible for Help from The Royal British Legion?

Come and talk to us at our Poppy Appeal Launch at The Tudor Barn, 10am to 12 noon on Saturday the 27th October 2012.

Free Tea/Coffee and biscuits.

Cake Stall, Tombola, Poppies/Pins/Wrist bands on sale.
Councillor Stuart Moody will be launching the Poppy Appeal.
Benefits and Money Advisers will be there to give you FREE advice about all types of benefit claims and appeals (DLA, ESA etc) along with debt problems (Bankruptcy, Debt Management Plans)

Over £2 Million in Benefit Claims
Over £4 Million in Re-scheduled Debt
Over £0.5 Million of RBL Grants

If you're a Legion beneficiary (you or your spouse has drawn 7 day's military pay) and you're having trouble paying the bills, or you think you could be entitled to benefits that you're not yet receiving, we might be able to help.

Meet one of our Benefits and Money Advisers and you'll get discreet, impartial and non-judgemental advice about how to maximise your income by claiming the benefits and tax credits you're entitled to and managing your debts -all completely confidential and free of charge. The BMA service is a unique collaboration between The Royal British Legion, The RAF Benevolent Fund and Citizens Advice.

It comes at a time when the need for money advice has never been greater: levels of personal debt are at record highs, economic turbulence has seen pensions and savings decimated and the recession means more people than ever are worried about making ends meet.
