

THE HEROES RETURN

The heroes survived the flood and they're back to prove that nothing can stop the continuation of this fantastic local event.

The disappointment at the cancellation of last year's Warsop Carnival is impossible to measure. It's a day filled with family entertainment and activities enjoyed by all who visit and an important fundraising opportunity for local charities and groups. None felt it more than the Carnival Committee who have endeavoured, against all odds, to bring the plans of last year back to life. You can expect the same quality arena acts, stalls, side shows, circus workshop, and not forgetting the ever popular fairground attractions and much more!

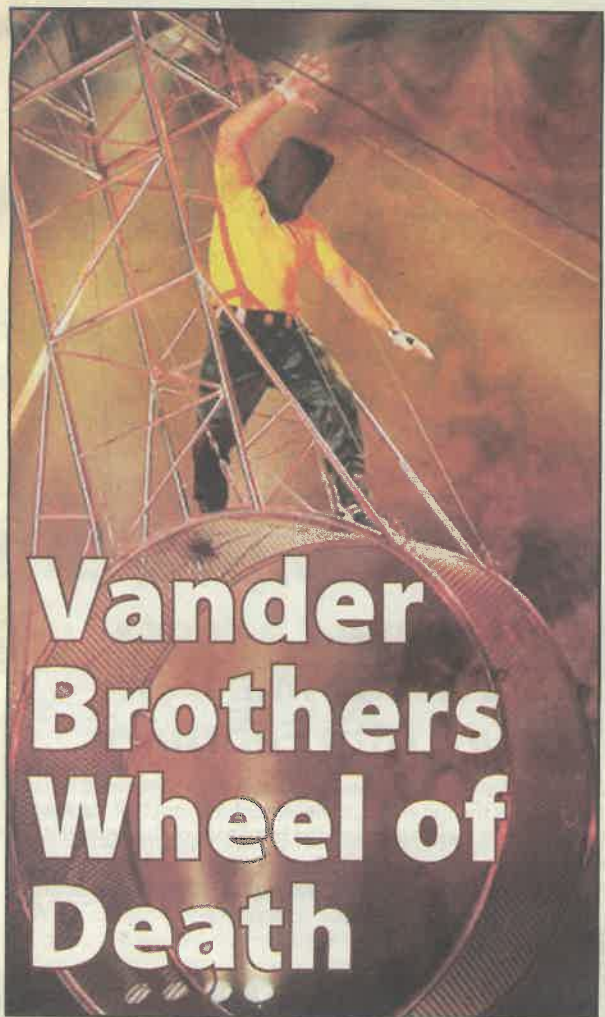

In 2012 we chose HEROES as the theme to give everyone the opportunity to honour their own hero, whether it's a local person, a fictional character, a past or present person, WWI or II, the Armed Forces, Firemen, or the Police. The list is endless and the traditional carnival parade which travel through the streets of Warsop, looks like being a true heroes celebration.

You can look forward to a fun filled day for all the family with arena entertainment which will include the Vander Brothers Wheel of Death and the Knights of the Crusade.

Stall holder forms are now available at Warsop Town Hall so if you are a local business, charity or catering firm call in now and book your stall to avoid disappointment.

Unfortunately, due to the losses incurred over the cancellation of last year's event we may not be able to bring you the ever popular It's a Knockout Challenge and the recent addition of the Music Festival may also be in jeopardy. However, we have not given up and are aiming to try to find the funding to enable us to retain these successful additions to the event.

Watch this space for an update next month and, fingers crossed, it will all be good news.

Vander Brothers Wheel of Death

Presenting the spectacular Vander Brothers Wheel of Death, the best aerial stunt act in Europe, standing a heart stopping 50ft high.

Guaranteed to keep you completely mesmerised throughout. Don't miss this highly dangerous and spectacular act which will leave you with your heart in your mouth, especially when the brothers perform blindfold.

WARSOP CARNIVAL 7th July 2013

The Knights of the Crusades

Dressed in period costumes and armour, they delight audiences of all ages with their heroic fighting and dazzling pageantry, transporting you back to a stunning world of Mythical England with amazing realism. Re-creating two totally fantastic epic plays, A Tale of Richard the Lionhearted and The Legend of King Arthur.

Featuring medieval banners and costumes with flaming torches, pyrotechnics and mystic smoke together with dramatic music, fanfares and sound effects. Audience participation is a strong feature and the boys and girls are invited to become squires and maids in waiting and have the chance to attempt to pull the Great Sword Excalibur from the Stone! A truly magical day's entertainment.

EDITOR'S LETTER

April already, and I am sat here typing this and there is snow on the ground (11th March). What's that all about!!!!!! I don't know about you lot but I am ready for some warm sunny days. By the time you read this you should be eating hot cross buns and Easter eggs and having a break. I just hope the sun is shining and you are all having a good time. My break in Amsterdam was marred by my continuous flu virus which I can't seem to shake off but I speak to lots of you that are in the same boat, we certainly need that sunshine!

Our shop is coming on and hopefully it won't be too long before it is up and running. I can't tell you what it is going to be yet as there are lots of people interested in it and we want to make sure it is taken over by a business that we need in Warsop.

Bell's fruit and veg shop has moved from Clumber Street to High Street. Crumbs have extended their range of produce and Jackson's have added accessories to their fashion items, so business seems to be on the up.

GARDENING MONTHLY...

General Gardening Tips for April

Beware late frosts and keep vulnerable plants and new shoots protected at night if frost is forecast. Don't be tempted to put out tender bedding until much later on in the month and even then be prepared to cover it if necessary.

Deadhead daffodils and narcissi, give them a liquid feed or sprinkling of bonemeal and then let them die down. Don't cut off the leaves as they are necessary to replenish the bulb for next year. Keep deadheading spring bedding to keep it looking neat and encourage new flowers.

Continue with the spring cleaning. Hoe your borders, getting rid of weeds before they take hold - annual weeds such as bitter cress and groundsel are enough of a nightmare without allowing them to go forth and multiply by seeding. If it's dry, attack ground elder and the like with systemic weed killer painted onto the leaves.

Mulch away while you can still see what you are doing and before the herbaceous growth really takes off. Use your own garden compost or leaf mould, well rotted manure, the contents of out-of-date grow bags or ready-made soil conditioner.

Now the soil is warming up and things are starting to grow, add general purpose fertiliser before covering with mulch especially in borders, the fruit and vegetable patch and containers. If you have already mulched, draw it back (if possible), tease the soil a little, add fertiliser and replace the mulch.

Carry on removing moss and weeds from paths, terraces and drives.

Make new beds and borders - mark the shape with sand trickled from a bottle, remove the top layer of growing vegetation and dig the ground over, incorporating as much organic matter as possible. If you are making a bed in the lawn, remove the turf - if you dig it in the buried grass will regrow and regrow and regrow and...

Clean and repair your garden tools, book the lawn mower in for a service and check garden furniture for any rot. When it is warm enough, treat sheds, fences and trellis with wood preservative; brushes and rollers are fine for most things, however a sprayer is well worth buying for tricky projects such as woven panels!

Now is the time to wage war on slugs and snails. They love tulips and delicacies such as the delicious young shoots of delphiniums and the like, so use pet-friendly slug pellets, drench the ground around hostas with liquid slug killer to exterminate slugs below the surface. Keep an eye out for snails and pick them off - what you do with them is up to you. Birds are your friends here - flat stones artfully located are useful accessories for birds to practise their snail bashing techniques.

Hello everyone! I hope you're all feeling good and that by the time you're reading this, the snow's gone and it's sunny, but I doubt that.

I have a band that I think you should all go and listen to, I love their music. When I first heard them I fell in love with them. I am proud to be a fan of them and even more proud to say that one of the members of the band is a close friend of mine. They are called 'Stones of the Crown' and the members are Tom Horton, Finn Todd, Edward Jones, Rachel Owen and Sam Huntley. Their music is very moving and the lyrics are just beautiful so I suggest you go and listen to them. You can listen to their music by going to soundcloud.com and searching 'Stones of the Crown' and also, search their name to follow them on Facebook or Twitter. I hope you love them as much as I do.

If anyone has anything they'd like to be in the newspaper, for example, articles, questions, short stories or other please don't hesitate to email me at connieWDN@hotmail.co.uk.

See you next month!

Desilt of Mill Dam

The Environment Agency staff were at the Mill Dam on Monday 18th February.

They launched an inflatable and first took samples of the sediment from the silt trap and across the full width of the water for about half the length. They then retraced their steps and recorded the depth of the sediment over the same area.

Hopefully the sediment will have been removed from the silt trap during March and taken off site to a land fill site.

Bird Notes...

Hello everybody! Hopefully by the time you read this Spring will have sprung! But what with our weather being what it is – who knows?

Anyway, Harold has again sent us some excellent shots to share with us.

All these photos are of a Sparrowhawk which recently visited his garden. Obviously Harold is somebody who always has his equipment near to hand.

This bird was hatched last year and can be aged by the buff fringes to the feathers on its upperparts and the streaking on its breast has not yet developed into the horizontal bars that it will have when it becomes a full adult. Another feature of the bird that it is a good clue to its age is its lemon yellow coloured eye which will eventually darken and turn more orange and even a blood red if it is lucky to have a long, healthy life.

Sparrowhawks are much maligned and have often been persecuted by man in the past but they and other birds of prey become increasingly more abundant, the relatively small Sparrowhawk has found that the tables have turned and the hunter often ends up being hunted by its larger cousins. There have even been reported sightings of males being chased by females of their own species – and they are not looking for love!

If you are lucky enough to have a Sparrowhawk that regularly visits your garden, you will have a good opportunity to see for yourself how successful each hunt will be. My bet will be – not very, but just successful enough.

Happy birding B.A.

Footpath & Countryside Group

During April the countryside is bursting with new life. Look out for the first bluebells in hedgerows and in Collier Spring Wood at Church Warsop. The small clump of snake's head fritillaries should be appearing beneath the trees on The Carrs.

If you know where to look the first early purple orchids may be seen at the end of the month. Cowslips will be flowering on grassland to the north of our parish. On a walk along the banks of the river you may smell the ransoms growing under the trees.

More butterflies will be emerging from hibernation. Look out for orange-tips and for the yellow winged brimstone in the woodlands. Trees and hedgerows will be coming into leaf with only a few species like the ash keeping us waiting. On a fine day you may be lucky enough to find a slowworm warming itself in the sun. Until the vegetation grows thicker a stoat or a water vole may be spotted.

It will soon be time to check whether water voles are still active along the river. Get in touch if you would like to help us surveying the river banks for signs of their activity. We also are planning our strategy to control the non-native invasive plant Himalayan balsam along our waterways. Balsam pulling can be quite therapeutic – if you are not convinced why not join us and find out? These tasks will have to fit in with our programme of mowing as the grass along our footpaths starts to grow.

The Footpaths Group's Annual General Meeting is scheduled for Tuesday 30th April. Contact us on the number below if you would like to come along and find out more about what we do. Alternatively you are welcome to join us on one of our work sessions on a Thursday morning.

For our next Footpaths Group walk we will be joining the Friends of Thynghowe on April 20th on their annual walk in Birklands Forest. This will be a short, steady walk with frequent halts to hear stories from the fascinating past of this part of Sherwood Forest. Contact us if you would like to join us or would like more details.

First of all sketch in the scene, I use a nice and sharp 2B pencil. The paper I am working on is fontaine, cold pressed, 140lb, in a 1/4 imperial size. Notice I have added some masking fluid to the building and the wall in the foreground.

Tip- when using masking fluid, use an older brush, or use the SAA masking fluid brush set. Run your wet brush over a bar of soap first to protect the bristles. Paint with the fluid for no more than 1 minute, before washing off and starting again.

The reason for the masking fluid, is to keep the two areas white and clear. Once the fluid is dry, mix the following colours: french ultramarine blue pale & watery and the same for a yellow ochre. These are the sky colours. Also mix a slightly stronger shadow grey. This is a mixture of 60% French ultramarine blue, 10% alizarin crimson and 30% yellow ochre.

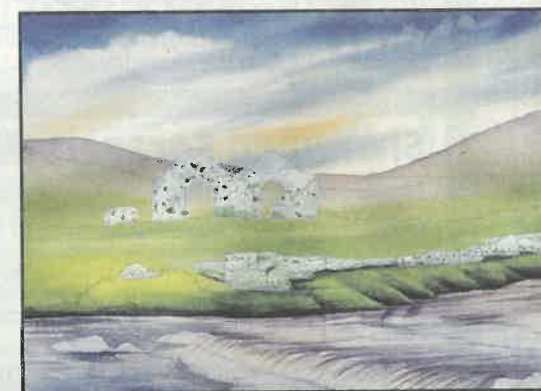

Using a large SAA Gold Round brush, size 14 work wet into wet, wet the sky area and in slight diagonal strokes add the pale yellow ochre to the bottom of the sky. Now clean your brush and add the blue to the top. Leaving a few white bits for the clouds.

Tip- why not try and add some fluffy clouds? Simply use some kitchen paper to dab them out of the white areas.

Now to work on the river. Using the wet into wet technique again, add the pale yellow ochre to the water first, and avoid the waterfall area as you do this. Then paint the blue, all this is done with a the large SAA Gold Round brush, size 14. Now swap for a smaller size 6 SAA Gold Round brush and paint some movement in the water. I am using the shadow grey for this, the paper is still wet, so the paint flows nicely. Working in horizontal brush strokes try and imagine the ripples of the water (see pic). And try to add the water flowing over the waterfall, again use the image above for reference. This has now started to give a feel of flowing water. As the sheet dries, keep adding the flow lines to the waterfall, try and flick the paint in the direction of the flowing water (this gives a greater impression of movement). Also start to add a few more ripples here and there, keep these lines horizontal.

We will come back to the water a little later.

Now lets paint the landscape. Using a large brush, a size 14 SAA Gold Round. Mixed up these colours. Shadow grey (60% French ultramarine blue, 10% alizarin crimson and 30% yellow ochre), average green (70% Aureolin and 30% French ultramarine blue) and finally bright green (80% lemon yellow and 20% French ultramarine blue). Mix plenty of the colours, as it's a large area to cover, as there is nothing worse than running out of paint half way through a task. Also not too thick with the paint, mix them with a medium consistency.

Simply start painting at the back, the hills, use the grey for this and about 1" down change over for the average green, almost all the way to the bottom of the land area, and finish off with the bright green. Working this way makes the hills fall off in to the distance and the bright green make the foreground stand out.

You can now add a few shadows to the grass banking or water edge, while the paint is still wet, you can see I have added a few shadows, with the grey paint, I have used a small size 6 brush for this. Also I darkened the entire water edge, to give a nice base for the grass. This now needs to really dry well, so you can add shadows over the grass and hills. A good time for a brew I think!

You will need to spend a bit more time working on the water as well, so using the same shadow grey (60% French ultramarine blue, 10% alizarin crimson and 30% yellow ochre, the shadow colour is so important, easily the most common colour in watercolour painting), spend a few moments working around the rock in the river, outline them and using a damp brush to soften the lines outward. Notice the large rocks in the foreground, notice how I have put shadow grey at the back of them to make them stand out.

Adding shadows to the grass will give distance and shape to the hills and landscape. First of all notice how I have pushed the furthest hills back by adding the shadow grey and blending upwards. Now do the same at the base of the building, but instead of using the shadow grey use the average green you mixed earlier, as this will help this part look closer than the hills. Do all the way across, making it a bit wavy, imagine the lumpy grass verge.

Tip- when you blend colour, use a damp brush rather than a wet one and use the same brush stroke direction as you put the paint on. A lot of people use diagonal strokes, this tends to leave line of marks.

Spend a bit of time working on the grass banking, add texture and start to paint the tall grasses. For the grasses I have used a Matthew Palmer Tree and Texture brush. The largest one. See the image. If you don't have one of these brushes, use the number 6 and 4 bush and simply send a bit of time painting random grasses. The colour to use is Average Green quite a strong consistency. If using a Matthew Palmer Tree and texture brush, you can paint 20-30 blades of grass per stroke. Simply work upside down with the brush, the writing to the bottom and the tallest hairs at the bottom, lightly stoke the paper. A good tip is to tap the brush head in your palette first, this separates the bristles.

I have also used the smallest Matthew Palmer Tree and Texture brush to add a distant trees. I used a paper mask to worked along the hill side, painting upward strokes. Again you can use a number 6 brush to do this.

So once the masking fluid is removed (using my masking fluid removal tool, also know as my finger) I can fill in this area with a pale version of the shadow grey, plus to give a bit more character, try adding a few spots of what I call natural stone. This is a mixture of yellow ochre and a touch of alizarin crimson and a touch of French ultramarine blue. The colour is mainly yellow though. You can also paint the rocks in the water, I have added shadows with a stronger mix of shadow grey.

And now the best, the fiddling! Spend time adding shadows to the building, work close to the final scene, see how I have darkened the inside wall of the building and how I have left the odd light piece to the right walls. The secret to this is take note of where the light is shining from. In this case it's coming from the right side of the painting, so the right parts of the building are sunlit and the left side is in shadow. (Shadow grey, not too strong). I have done the same on the broken down wall, added separation on each stone.

FINISHING TOUCHES

As always these are the bits that make a painting. Use the small number 4 SAA Gold Round brush to add the fine details, like the stone work. Use a sharp craft knife to add more flow and some nice highlights to the water (see pic). Also add some grasses over the broken wall.

Tip- you can also use the craft knife to add a few white flowers over the top of the grasses and a few splashes, were the water fall crashes. Maybe a few spots of pale blue paint in this area too.

I hope I have inspired you to give it ago and get started.

If you have any questions just send me an email: info@mattartist.co.uk.

Community Chest Grants

Background research for the Big Local Lottery Fund revealed that Warsop already has a very vibrant and diverse voluntary sector which does great work in the community.

The Big Warsop Partnership are keen to support the work that these groups do for the community and so it was decided to set up an investment fund to finance grants for community groups, hopefully for many years to come. We are delighted that the Rotary Club of Warsop and Shirebrook have agreed to join us as a partner in providing these grants.

Initially the fund will make small grants of up to £500, twice a year. As the fund grows and hopefully attracts more partners, it is hoped in the coming years that it will be possible to make larger awards to fund themed projects and activities in the community.

Warsop Parish Council

Below is a short report of the Parish Council meeting held on 18 March 2013. A full set of minutes is available from The Clerk at Warsop Town Hall or view on-line at www.warsopweb.co.uk

The Annual Parish meeting was held but no public were present so the Full Council Meeting took place.

Town Hall

The future of the Town Hall was discussed and all members agreed that we just continue to get through the best we can, hopefully there should be no big repairs as they have been done now. We need to get the large ground floor room rented out and there will be half a page in Warsop News to advertise it. The Clerk pointed out that the biggest issue is staff to run the building and reception, this needs to be looked at as a matter of urgency. Cllr. Kerr is looking into the possibility of an apprenticeship with MDC to employ one of our volunteers.

Warsop & District News

Warsop News continues to break even, although it has been struggling for a few months and down to 20 pages. The April edition is back up to 24 pages and there are new adverts this month.

High Street Car Park and Shop

The shop on High Street needs re-wiring and the roof needs repairing, volunteer, Stacey Dale is ripping it out ready for local tradesmen to make it fit for purpose. An advert has gone in the Warsop News asking for expressions of interest.

Limestone's Healthy Place Award

A letter from Steve Pintus, Associate Director of Public Health, NHS, Derby County advised the Charity Elmtun & Creswell Village Company in February that their project has been successful in gaining a 'Healthy Place Award' and was chosen by the panel as one of the top three projects.

Julie Holling, Chairman, on behalf of all at Limestone House, said she is delighted with the feedback from Steve Pintus which said that the reward is in recognition of the Company's achievements in the local community and the project is an example of a valuable community resource, offering a warm safe place where people can come and meet with friends and have a coffee.

The project, he said, is exemplary in that it runs, using solely volunteers, and the work that it has developed, offering opportunities to young people and the unemployed in terms of training and skills will help them in terms of life skills and securing a job for the future. He commented that the judging panel were extremely impressed with how this project met the criteria of the Award and also noted the commitment, enthusiasm and dedication of the volunteers that support this project in engaging the wider community.

Warsop Inner Wheel

Malcolm Wells MBE from Canine Partners was the speaker at the Inner Wheel Club of Warsop on Wednesday 6th March at the Hostess restaurant Sookholme. He explained the valuable work undertaken by the organisation and the hours of training involved to make these dogs so specialised.

President Sue was delighted to induct a new member, Elaine Hopkins and wished her well for her future in Inner Wheel. On February 25th member Gloria Humphreys organised a social day out Pot Painting at the Glazey Place in Mansfield. Eight members designed and painted pots and plates.

Once again we held a charity Tombola stall at Thoresby Country Fair on the weekend of March 2nd and 3rd. We were raising money for Canine Partners and the weather was very kind to us. President Sue and 7 members attended the District quiz at South Normanton. The 2 teams came a very respectable 4th and 11th out of around 30 teams. Well done to all!

Warsop Wives Group

In January we had a speaker and slides about Thynghowe and the history of ancient woodlands in the windmill area and Sherwood Forest.

Two of our meetings were cancelled because of the snow and ice but we are back in action again now.

On February 19th we welcomed Jane Brown from Crossroads to our meeting. Jane gave a very interesting talk about help for people who wish to remain in their own homes, instead of going into care.

On March 5th, we enjoyed a lovely meal at the Parish Centre to celebrate the 48th anniversary.

We had delicious food supplied by Lesley and Mark from "The Tea Cosy" in Warsop, thank you to them.

Future meetings will include work as a Postmistress with Pat Ashton, Warsop History with Lynn Clark etc.

Irene Hodgson

Warsop Mens Probus

President Hugh Ashton welcomed 27 Members at the Parish Centre to a talk by Mr Rod Fanthorpe entitled "Kill 'em or cure 'em".

The amusing talk covered remedies and methods from recipe books of the 1800's. Some used drugs that are banned today that were readily available in those days such as heroin mercury and cocaine.

Other methods for tooth ache involved nails and sticks and freshly dug graves! Afterwards the members had a break in the Stable bar followed by lunch and the meeting closed at 2 PM.

Hugh Ashton President

WARSOP MENS PROBUS CLUB

The club is a long established luncheon club meeting on alternate Wednesdays at the Parish Centre.

The club has a programme of interesting talks, discussions and the occasional outing. Use is made of the Stable Bar before sitting down to a well prepared and reasonably priced meal.

The Friends of Thynghowe

Thynghowe and the forgotten heritage of Sherwood

Our annual walk to Thynghowe will take place on Saturday April 20th. This event is inspired by the perambulations of the Lordship of Warsop as recorded in the document from 1816 that influences much of our work. The walk will start at 10am and will last about four hours.

Progress will be slow as we will pause to hear accounts of past events in the woodlands. There are many stories to tell including tales of ancient stones, the influence of the Dukes of Portland, the legacy of World War II and Viking age assemblies from a thousand years ago. We also take in the wildlife and plants and reflect on the impact of changes in woodland management over the years.

If you would like to come along please book your place by contacting the Greenwood Forest Team by email on greenwood@nottsc.gov.uk or by phoning 0115 9696518 or 07740 845574.

If you are visiting the St George's Day celebrations at Ollerton on the following day look out for our stand and visit us for a chat.

The Vikings are coming ... preparations are well underway for the Viking Spring Thing at Sherwood Pines on the weekend of 18th and 19th May. There will be re-enactments by the Regia Anglorum group who have recently starred in the York festival in York. You will also be able to visit their living history camp to experience everyday life under the Danelaw. This will be a free event, just pay for the car park (or cycle there for free).

A great group of pupils from Church Vale School recently joined us in the Forest for walk to discover more about its history and spot woodland birds. We are looking forward to seeing the artwork they have produced following their visit. Soon we will be welcoming a group from Eastlands School for a project based on the woodlands. Our investigations in the Forest are now over until next winter as we leave the woodlands to the ground nesting birds. If you walk your dog in the woods please avoid disturbing these birds.

Most of our recent surveying has involved tracing and recording ancient trackways through Birklands. Over the summer we will be looking at old documents in archives and inspecting the data from our LiDAR survey in order to plan next winter's tasks.

If you have any questions or comments please contact us on thynghowe@warsopweb.co.uk

Meden Vale Registered Charity No. 1115359

The Future

The 10th meeting of Meden Vale the Future, incorporating Meden Vale Community Association, was held at the Village Hall on Tuesday 5 March 2013.

Seven members of the Committee were present and one Representative from Meden Vale Sports Association.

Three apologies were received.

The Representative from Meden Vale Sports Association reported that £16,000 had been awarded towards fencing the sports fields. This would go towards the estimated total of £50,000; match funding for the difference is being sought by the funding Advisor. The urgency of fencing the grounds has become more apparent since a problem has developed with quad bikers damaging the pitches. A Planning application for the proposed disabled access and car parking to the sports pavilion, rugby club, bowls club and village hall has been submitted and is awaiting the next planning meeting.

The Chairman reported that the Welbeck Colliery the Future meeting held on Wednesday 6 February was well attended and progress is continuing in a satisfactory manner. The re profiling of the colliery tip was progressing well with material being imported by road transport, however, it was anticipated that the colliery rail link would be repaired and available for use towards the end of April / beginning of May. A Planning application for solar panels on the south side of the colliery tip has been submitted and if successful, installation is scheduled to start in July. UK Coal and Welbeck Estates are continuing to develop a plan for the industrial and commercial re development of the colliery area and have several companies who are potentially interested in locating on this site. The next meeting of Welbeck Colliery the Future has been arranged for July 24 when it is hoped that both local MP's will be present.

Adult Learning courses for the next period have been advertised on our facebook page, please have a look if you are interested. The Treasurer reported that the financial position was not improving and additional funding would be necessary if the current level of expenditure is to be maintained. The outcome of an application to Warsop United Charities is still awaited. The plan to improve the appearance of the village by bulb planting in planters in various locations will proceed when the weather improves.

Next meeting will be on Tuesday 30 April 2013 at 7.30 pm. All welcome.

Please contact the Secretary, Kay Walker on 01623 844282 for further information.

Mansfield District Council

Creating a District where People can Succeed

Council signs Armed Forces Community Covenant

Mansfield District Council has pledged further support of Armed Forces personnel and veterans, after agreeing to sign the Armed Forces Community Covenant.

The aim of the Community Covenant is to encourage local communities to support the Service community in their area by promoting and encouraging activities which help to integrate Armed Forces personnel into the community and civilian life.

It also gives local groups and charities the opportunity to access the Government's £30 million Community Covenant Grant Scheme for local projects, which strengthen ties or mutual understanding between the Armed Forces community and the wider community.

The Council will be working with its partners to address some of the following issues which are faced by members of the Armed Forces and their families:

- Integration of the Service and civilian communities
- Housing, including access to affordable properties, social housing and barriers to home ownership
- Home adaptations
- Schooling for Service children
- Benefits and debt advice
- Access to leisure facilities and libraries
- Healthcare provision
- Employment and training
- Public transport

Executive Mayor Tony Egginton said: "We are already at the forefront of supporting the armed forces, particularly in our assistance of veterans with housing when they leave the forces. The Armed Forces Community Covenant is further evidence of our commitment to helping our returning heroes. The Covenant follows on from the Mansfield Veterans Charter, which we signed up to and championed in 2009."

The motion to sign the Covenant was originally proposed by Cllr Martin Lee. He commented: "I am delighted that the Council is committing to the Armed Forces Community Covenant, as this will enable us to continue and strengthen the excellent work already being done to support and target help to Service families and personnel."

Warning over bogus brown bin callers

Residents are being urged not to disclose any personal information to bogus callers ringing about Mansfield District Council's Garden Waste Collection Service.

An elderly gentleman contacted the Council after receiving a phone call yesterday (7 March) from someone asking for his bank details to pay for his brown bin. The caller claimed to be working for Mansfield

District Council but failed to give their name. The resident had already paid for the service and declined to provide his bank details.

In February, Mansfield District Council sent letters to existing brown bin customers with details of how to sign up for next year's service (1 April 2013 to 31 March 2014). Leaflets will be sent to all homes, alongside the Council Tax bill, later this month. The District Council is NOT telephoning customers for payment for this service.

Cllr Phil Shields, Portfolio Holder for the Environment, said: "We urge residents to be on their guard against this scam and never disclose bank details to anyone saying they are from the Council because the caller won't have any connection with us."

"If you think you have been the victim of a similar scam or attempted scam, you can report it to Mansfield District Council by calling 01623 463 463 or Nottinghamshire Police on 101."

For just £25 a year you will get a brown bin and an all year round garden waste collection every two weeks from March to November and monthly from December to February.

Residents can join the service by:

- Calling 01623 463 463 to pay by credit or debit card.
- Calling into the Civic Centre and paying at cashiers by credit or debit card or cash.
- Sending the tear-off slip on your leaflet with your name, address and contact details and a cheque to Mansfield District Council, Hermitage Lane Depot, Maunside, Mansfield, Notts, NG18 5GU.

Once you have paid you will receive a sticker and a letter detailing where you need to place the sticker on your bin.

Direct Debit – the easy way to pay

Households across the Mansfield District will be receiving their Council Tax bills for 2013/14 from next week and the District Council is reminding residents that they can spread the payments over 12 months, rather than ten.

By signing up to pay your Council Tax by Direct Debit it will automatically be taken from your bank or building society account - offering you peace of mind and convenience that payment dates will not be missed and costs you less by reducing the need to travel.

Mansfield District Council offers a choice of dates and instalments for Direct Debit payments, on the 1, 5, 14, 20 or 26 of the month, including weekly and fortnightly payments.

You can continue to pay by ten monthly instalments from April to January if you wish, or pay 12 monthly instalments from April to March.

If you would like to pay by cash over 12 months, you need to pay on 20th of each month. This needs to be arranged by contacting 01623 463 162.

You can set up or change your Direct Debit over the phone, without the need to fill in forms, by calling us on 01623 463 162.

We will tell you the amount and date of your first and subsequent instalments and then confirm this in writing.

Other ways to pay include:

- Debit and Credit Card payments via our website www.mansfield.gov.uk
- Debit and Credit Card payments via telephone by calling 01623 428 632
- Standing orders
- Online banking
- Cash, Debit and Credit Card payments at the Civic Centre, Post Office or by cash at your local Paypoint (see www.paypoint.co.uk/locator to find your nearest Paypoint), or
- Cheque payments at the Post Office.

President Roger Wright chaired the Rotary Club of Warsop Shirebrook and District monthly business meeting at the Hostess Restaurant.

17 members attended together with Honorary member Malcolm Nicholas and guest Geoff Milnes. It was announced that a number of members attended the funeral the previous day of Tony Hewson the former Secretary and Treasurer.

A cheque will be given for the Nottinghamshire Fighters Memorial within the next month. A £500 cheque was given for Aquabox. £250 for The Sisters of Mercy Charity. £250 for Sue Kemp for her Nepal Charity. A cheque was given to Sally Dodds to support her at the Guildhall School of Music.

The afternoon Pizza event organised by Rtn Rob Pastier raised £160 for the Eradication of Polio Charity. Together with the Mansfield club money was raised towards helping a needy family.

Rob Pasierb announced that one club is collecting all Tesco and Sainsbury school vouchers and he will collect any on behalf of anyone to give to this particular club.

The final of the Young Chef will be held on 27th February at Kirkby. Bethany Lyons who won the club heat will take part.

Thursday 28 February 2013

President Roger Wright chaired the meeting of the club at the Hostess Restaurant. There were 19 members present together with guest Jeff Milnes.

Rtn Richard Goad reported that District Final of the Young Chef was Held at the Charnwood Academy at Kirkby in Ashfield on Wed 27th Feb. and our club winner Bethany Lyons took part.

The standards were very high and all contestants presented food which was well above average and although Bethany did not win she prepared an excellent meal. She received a Gordon Ramsay Cookery Book. It was reported that the staff at Shirebrook Academy were totally in support of the project and really supported the club in trying to get the local competition off the ground for the first year. It is hoped that next year Meden School will come on board for the competition.

The Rotary Club of Warsop Shirebrook and District regret to announce the death of club member Tony Hewson, after a long illness.

Tony was a former club secretary and treasurer. He was a good golfer, a club member of Rufford Golf Club and entered all Rotary golf competitions. He was also a member of the 1220 Rotary ten pin bowling championship team and runners up over the past 5 years.

Where are all the birds in Sherwood Forest?

Pupils from Church Vale Primary School, Church Warsop, enjoyed a day's activities deep in the heart of Sherwood, in the historically important Birklands Forest, Edwinstowe, thanks to the Friends of Thynghowe's Lottery Funded project: Thynghowe and the Forgotten Heritage of Sherwood.

The visit, organised by the Greenwood Community Forest Team, is part of an 18 month project aimed at conserving and enhancing Birklands Forest and the Viking meeting place "Thynghowe".

The 9 year olds spent the morning identifying the birds of Sherwood Forest on a walk led by Nottinghamshire Wildlife Trust's, Andy Lowe. Later the children joined the Maun Conservation Group to make new homes for Robins and Blue Tits in a bird box and bird feeder making workshop. The bird boxes will be placed in the school grounds, forest and pupils back gardens. The second day of the project saw artist Jessica Kemp work with the children to produce silk painted banners on a wildlife and heritage theme.

Thynghowe and the Forgotten Heritage of Sherwood, which runs for 18 months, aims to get local people, groups and schools to uncover, map and document features in the forest. Light imaging, Detection and Ranging (LiDAR) has already taken place as part of the project and now the Friends of Thynghowe want to find out more. All data will be used to map features in the forest and archived for future generations as part of the project.

Three other schools in the area are involved and all completed work and photographs will be displayed at the final celebration event, "A Viking Spring Thing" at Sherwood Pines in May 2013.

Steve Horne, one of the project managers said: "It was an excellent day in the Forest with a great group of youngsters from Church Vale Primary School. The children were very clued up on the kind of birds they might see which included a pair of buzzards. They were also thrilled to see Robin Hood's Larder and a WWII ammunition store."

Harriet Marlow, class teacher, added: "The children and I thoroughly enjoyed it and it really improved their knowledge of our topic. It was so wonderful to achieve things we can't always provide in school."

Changes to Mansfield Shopmobility

Mansfield District Council is making changes to its Shopmobility scheme following a review of the service.

From Monday 8 April, the service will be available Tuesdays to Saturdays from 10am to 3pm (currently the service operates Mondays to Saturdays 9am to 4pm).

A new pricing structure will also be introduced, which offers customers better value for money. The current charge of £3.50 for three-hour hire and £8.50 for the day will change to a single fixed daily rate (up to five hours) of £3.50.

There will also be a new option to pay £20 a month by direct debit for an advanced daily rate with unlimited use during operating hours (subject to availability and prior booking).

Shopmobility, based at the Walkden Street car park, enables members with mobility difficulties to hire a self-propelled or battery operated wheelchair or scooter to travel around the town centre.

A review of the usage of the service identified inefficiencies and changes were proposed in order to help protect its long-term viability.

In May 2012, Shopmobility members were asked for their views on proposals to close the service at 1pm every day and for it to close all day on either Mondays or Saturdays, due to less demand.

Feedback from the 31% of members who responded, concluded that 1pm was too early for those who wanted to stay in town for lunch. Members also said that it should remain open on Saturdays to cater for those who could not get into town during the week and for those who wanted to shop with friends and family.

Following consideration of these comments, new proposals were put forward for consultation in October 2012, which were:

- 1) to open the service Tuesdays to Saturdays from 9am until 2pm, and
- 2) to close the service on Mondays.

Further consideration was given to the feedback from customers and in favour of their needs, the proposed opening hours of 9am – 2pm was amended to 10am to 3pm, what has now been agreed.

Feedback received also highlighted concern regarding the relocation of the bus station for those Shopmobility customers who travel into the town by bus. Mansfield District Council is in discussions with Nottinghamshire County Council (owners of the new bus station) to consider how this concern may be addressed. To help the Councils to consider the best way forward in these discussions, the District Council is now asking its customers to tell it what mode of transport they use to travel to the Shopmobility office at Walkden Street – a survey is now being posted out to all Shopmobility members with information about changes to the service.

Cllr Kate Allsop, Portfolio Holder for Economic Regeneration, said: "The review of the Shopmobility scheme highlighted that there were clear trends of days when the service is in very little demand. Therefore we have consulted and listened carefully to our customers to enable us to tailor this service to match demand, whilst making it more efficient and cost effective."

WARSOP POLICE UPDATE

Warsop Neighbourhood Police Team Plans to Tackle Anti Social Behaviour

This month we the Warsop Neighbourhood Police Team have again been very busy, with many pre-planned operations tackling anti social behaviour (ASB) addressing regular calls for drinking on streets and in open spaces, large groups hanging around such areas along with the noise that these combined issues create.

Areas of such issues include the High Street of Warsop where youngsters feel it necessary to use shop windows as football goals instead of using the play area on the Carr's park. We have a dedicated car available at times when ASB occurs the most frequently to disperse such groups.

We are being instructed by our supervisors to identify those involved. Though you may say they are just playing football, residents and business owners are being caused a lot of unnecessary problems. Not only is this a danger to themselves playing on the road, but their missed goals quite easily venture onto the A60 which may cause drivers to take evasive action which in turn may cause them to have an accident.

Another area in which there has been a rise in calls is Ossington Close where the shops' car park is being used as a football pitch instead of the purpose built area on the park at the rear of the shops. A number of years ago we managed to raise funds for a shelter for the youngsters to congregate in to keep noise to residents and neighbours to a minimum, this has not been used as much as the flower bed area in the top corner which is incredibly close to residents and echoes any noise made.

Another issue we have been concentrating on is drugs, there are a number of areas in Warsop we have particular interest in, one warrant has been issued and a large number of plants and other substances have been seized, one man has been arrested pending further enquiries.

There have been a number of opportunist burglaries in the area. Opportunist burglaries are offenders trying car doors and house doors to gain entry in case they have been left inadvertently unlocked, please pay particular attention to locking the doors to your vehicles. Your vehicle insurance can become void if you are subject to such crime and have left your vehicle unattended and insecure, this can be a costly and avoidable error.

Always lock the doors of your home, even when you 'pop' upstairs or alternatively fit an entry activated chime. These are available in shops and online and you connect to the frame of your door and the door itself, once the door is opened the chime sounds to notify you that the door has opened.

Also this month the Warsop Fire Station has permitted us to use their facilities for meeting members of public on a pre arranged basis, if you wish to speak to us in person you can arrange an appointment to meet us at the fire station by calling one of us using the numbers listed.

Thumbs Up at Meden Leisure Centre

The operational and management contract for Meden Leisure centre has been operated now for the past ten months on a partnership basis between The Mansfield District Leisure Trust and The Mansfield District Council, with Serco as its managing agent.

From both the business performance and listening to customer feedback, it has been decided to further extend the contract of the Centre for a further year from May 2013.

This is fantastic news for the local community, for new and existing, loyal customers that have used and continue to use the facilities available at the centre. Not only has the contract been extended, but the lower pricing that was implemented in May 2012, are also being held into the new financial year post April 2013, as part of the Trusts on-going commitment to provide value for money opportunities for all to maintain a healthy and active lifestyle in a welcoming environment.

So, there has never been a better time to come and check out your local Meden Leisure Centre, especially as long term contract commitments have also been removed, with memberships from as little as £14.95 per month.

For more information about the centre, the facilities available or to join online go to:

Upper Langwith Soup Competition

Langwith resident, Therése Joly, organised a soup tasting competition in Langwith Bassett Community Hall on 16th March.

Guests were asked to taste 12 different soups out of which the winners were chosen. During the "tasting" of soups guests were entertained by local folk group "The Malt Whiskers" and very entertaining they were too.

Winners were; no calorie vegetable soup – Jennie Stevenson, spicy minestrone – Sue Pasierb and pea and lettuce soup – Judy Elliott. All excellent! Each winner was presented with a wooden spoon and rosette for their efforts.

Wilbur Sherratt!

Do you know him? Well let me tell you his story...

...after finding out on Christmas Eve 2011 that I was pregnant, my partner Nick and I couldn't have been happier.

Then on 29 April 2012, I was admitted to Epsom General Hospital in Surrey with a hind water leak, which meant I was losing our baby - I was just 23 weeks into my pregnancy. As I was losing my amniotic fluid, both myself and my baby were at risk and Nick and I were given two options: 1) to take the risk and continue with my pregnancy which meant our baby would be born any time within the next 3 weeks with no guarantee of survival or 2) terminate my pregnancy. Of course we chose option one and once I reached 24 weeks and was 'viable' in medical terms, I was transferred to St Peters in Chertsey to await the arrival of our premature baby. Unfortunately this didn't happen naturally so as my infection levels rose, the risk increased to myself and my baby too.

So on 14 May 2012, I was induced at 12 noon and at 8.01pm, Wilbur George Marconi Sherratt (family names) was born, weighing just 1lb 9oz (723g). He was immediately handed to the neonatal doctors and nurses who resuscitated and ventilated him - I didn't see our baby for nearly an hour. Before he was taken up to NICU (Neonatal Intensive Care Unit), I was able to touch his cheek, the only bit of him that wasn't covered with tubes and tape. After another hour, we were able to visit Wilbur in the unit and he was the tiniest thing we have ever seen and very very bruised too, due to the trauma of his early birth.

Wilbur was diagnosed with a number of medical conditions including gastro reflux, metabolic bone disease, retinopathy, hearing loss and chronic lung disease, all of which are now improving. He also had a number of cannulae in his arms, legs and head to administer antibiotics & fluids, was wired up to a number of monitors and was fed by a tube. Wilbur stayed at St Peters for 9 weeks and managed to progress from nursery 1 (intensive care) to nursery 3 (special care). From there, he was transferred on 16 July to Epsom SCBU (Special Care Baby Unit) where he would stay until 27 August (the day before his due date) when we could finally take him home. Wilbur's hospital stay was 15 weeks in total and both myself and his Daddy, spent every day by his incubator and enjoyed cuddles every day, even though he was still wired up to a plethora of monitors and also his oxygen. It was a very happy day when he moved into a cot and we had the freedom to cuddle our baby without the barriers of the plastic box he'd been in for so long - changing a nappy in an incubator was definitely a challenge!

Sadly, Wilbur's lungs were so under-developed when he was born, he came home on oxygen so was (until 31 January), attached to an oxygen cylinder 24/7 whether we were at home or out and about. He has however, been free of his oxygen for a few weeks and seems much happier. He is still on 6 different types of medication, with 9 doses per day. He has lots of hospital appointments, including lots of vaccinations and regular blood tests and is being very well looked after.

He was christened in October at Warsop Church, a day we thought we'd never see and enjoyed his first Christmas, being very spoilt indeed. It's hard to believe it's only a few weeks to his first birthday! He enjoys an active social life with lots of walks, play dates, baby massage and baby yoga and loves visiting his Nan & Grandpa Price in Warsop. He loves his bath too so we can't wait to take him swimming now. He is a very happy little boy, wakes up smiling and laughing and is developing and growing well - he now weighs a whopping 17lb 1oz (7.7kg)!

Wilbur really has done so remarkably well, we couldn't be prouder of our little Hercules and that's all down to the power of prayer, the love of his family and friends and the wonderful neonatal units at both hospitals. What St Peters did for him was nothing short of brilliance, totally amazing and they've given us the most precious gift of all, our very own gorgeous little boy. Diarra his consultant is my hero, he resuscitated Wilbur at birth and we really do owe Wilbur's life to him.

Making my Mum & Dad grandparents was very special too and when you see them, they will be bursting to tell you about Wilbur (and Mum will get her photo album out too!). I'm now a working Mummy having returned to work, just mornings only and does Wilbur miss me? Apparently not as much as I miss him! And it's here we'd just like to say a huge thank you to everyone for their support, love, prayers, messages and gifts throughout what has been and still sometimes is, a difficult time with a premature baby. We're still not sure why Wilbur arrived so early - maybe he couldn't wait to meet us.

Wilbur's birth and survival against the odds, has had an impact on many people (some we didn't even know) and including my employer (Atkins Epsom) who raised £1500 from our Christmas Market and donated this to the Epsom SCBU. Now my Mum is holding a coffee day to raise money for the Neonatal Unit at St Peters, where Wilbur was born and where the skill and dedication of the unit and their nursing staff saved Wilbur's life. We hope to raise a good amount of money to help more premature babies to survive.

So please come along and support us - Saturday 20 April, Tudor Barn, 10am - 12noon, just £1 a ticket including refreshments and with many bargains to be had too!

Meden Vale Age Well Comes Of Age

March 23rd is a milestone for age well from a rocky start all those years ago. Age well begun at the request of a few people after social services dropped the lunch club at Meden Vale village hall to save cash.

It was not considered to be a necessary expense for as few as 25 people. Our beginnings were humble, had to borrow fifty pounds to get started, find a warm safe home, transport, driver, table games the works. Twenty one years later and many people have enjoyed meals with Friends Company, and trips as varied as Skegness to Spain. We had our own panto, tea dances, games, nights with pies and peas craft fairs, garden party, and health fair with local medical staff on hand for advice.

We made a clippie mat for our local school with the smiley face logo on a very large village map of Welbeck 1900-2000, now homed in the village church as a backing for the piano. We also made our very own banner showing our first home we had at the village hall and the many activities we do.

Lots of thanks are due to many people, most for the homes we have had, Welbeck Village Hall, The Malcolm Sargison Centre, the Parish Centre and now back home to Meden Vale at Mellville Court. People like Joan Bower, Celia and Terry at CVS, the wonderful volies at Meden Charity shop. Two ladies have seen the whole twenty one years through Nellie and Elsie now both in the late nineties who still turn up each Monday for lunch and a game of cards and anything else that's on offer. Tenacity that's what we got.

David Cameron, your vision for us has worked well for years at no cost to anyone, try getting your own idea. We the people have plenty of our own and the will to carry them through. Proof above.

Mansfield signs Affordable Housing declaration

Mansfield District Council has signed a declaration showing its commitment to work with partners to help provide more affordable housing in the District.

The Executive Mayor Tony Egginton and the Council's Managing Director Ruth Marlow signed the East Midlands Declaration on Affordable Housing, which further publicly acknowledges the importance of affordable housing.

Housing is a key priority for the Council, in particular ensuring there is an adequate supply of good quality, well managed housing which is accessible and affordable to those who need it. The Council already has a good track record of partnership working in the delivery of new affordable housing.

The declaration commits the Council to work constructively with developers, housing associations and the Homes and Communities Agency to maximise opportunities and resources to deliver well designed new affordable housing on suitable sites, through:

- ensuring robust research is carried out to identify the scale and nature of affordable housing need;
- seeking to make best use of council and publicly-owned land, capital resources and community assets in ways that encourage economic growth and the delivery of affordable housing;
- using planning powers creatively and pragmatically;
- working constructively with local communities to make the case for development and challenging local opposition with evidence where necessary;
- working collaboratively with relevant partners to identify joint opportunities for development;
- monitoring the delivery of new affordable housing against the level of established need and publishing the results on an annual basis; and
- freely sharing learning by providing East Midlands Councils (EMC) with relevant case studies.

Mayor Egginton said: "A lack of affordable housing can have an adverse impact on local residents. The Council already works in partnership with developers and housing providers to ensure there is an adequate supply of good quality affordable housing for those who need it. However, the Council is always seeking new ways of helping to deliver new housing - especially in the current economic climate and signing this declaration commits the Council to continue working to maximise opportunities and resources to deliver new affordable housing."

The declaration is one of three affordable housing initiatives launched by the East Midlands Councils (EMC) in December to help to increase the delivery of affordable housing, amid concerns that without significant effort by all organisations in the housing delivery chain, delivery of affordable housing in the East Midlands may well be severely constrained over the next few years.

THE ROYAL BRITISH LEGION

News update by: Pete Hopkins - Branch Secretary
 Tel: 01623 843944 Email: rblwarsop@gmail.com Web: www.britishlegion.org.uk/branches/warsop

Branch members joined their friends from The Kabin on Wellington Close, where a very generous donation of £200 was received.

The money will be used to further our work in the local area, supporting Service/Ex-service Men and women and their families.

Branch Vice-Chairman, Mike Trinder accepts the donation. I regret to report the death of one of our stalwart members, Mr Jan Lubieniecki. Holder of the George Cross for bravery in WWII, Jan will be missed by all who knew him. A man small in stature but with the biggest heart of anyone I know, Jan was fiercely proud of his Polish heritage.

The branch are supporting the honour walk from Sherwood Forest to Carr Bank Park on July 21st in memory of Ashley Clarkson. A fun-day is planned in the afternoon on Carr Bank with live music and plenty to do for children and adults alike.

Our next meeting at the Memorial Club, Bishops Walk, Church Warsop is on Monday the 8th April 2013 when a speaker will be arranged. Doors open at 7.30pm.

All are welcome to attend.
