

Meden School's Country Fair

Meden's key stage 3 students participated in a 4 days activities week beginning Thursday 18th July 2013 and ending with 'A Day at the Fair' on Tuesday 23rd July 2013.

Students participated in a range of activities based around the theme of Equality, in which the purpose was to gain a further understanding of the standard of Equality in Britain today. Students were initially asked to pick one of the following 8 categories to work within. From this staff teams came up with fun and educational activities for the students to participate in. These include;

- Health (Participated in health and fitness tests and looked at the diets of different nationalities and classes).
- Life(created shadow art, big issue papers and interviewed the homeless)
- Employment (Visited the Mining Museum in Wakefield to understand the heritage of the area and what was expected of mining families)
- Education (Participated in a Victorian school day, African School day and a day of a school in the future).
- Standard of living (Identified the different incomes that families have to deal with and provided small budgets for members of the group and asked them to create three course meals, some had £8, some had £15 budgets and they looked at the difference in quality of meals, they also created outfits out of basic essentials such as newspapers and bin bags).
- Care and Support (Visited and supported local care homes, participated in young carers talks etc and created graffiti art)
- Power and Voice (Create a campaign, students campaigned and promoted their own political parties)

- Physical and Legal security. (Visited Galleries of Justice in Nottingham and looked at what different classes of people primarily commit crimes)

I have commented on the types of activities they participated in over the initial 3 days.

On the fourth day students presented to each other what they have been looking at and what they have learnt and were treated to a fair ground and selection of activities at the school, in celebration of what they had achieved. Members of the Warsop Rotary club also joined in on the 4 days of activities and celebrations to support the students at our school. A special thanks must go to Richard Goad who supported me in organising the members to join the school for the week and thanks to those working members who took time off to come in and pay an interest in our students.

The event itself has had a resounding positive impact upon the school and its students. When measuring the success students identified that the activities were fun, creative and enjoyable and they not only learnt more about the category they were working in, but they also now understand equality better and are coming up with new ways of ensuring equality for all is pursued across the community and Britain.

I am immensely proud the achievements of the students and thoroughly enjoyed planning such a successful event. Thanks to Warsop and District News for taking time to feature us.

Meden School Awards Evening

I had the pleasure of attending the Meden School Awards Evening at the Fretwell Centre on 12th September and was amazed at the amount of talented young people that Meden have encouraged and supported to enable them to achieve such high standards.

It is hard to remember that the school was in "special measures" not so long ago. Then Mr. Hooker arrived and had the daunting task of the turning the school around, well he most certainly has done that and more. I for one, and sure one of many, was a very proud parent to see my son on the stage receiving his well-earned award and would like I say a big thank you to Mr. Hooker and his determined staff for making the school a place for our sons and daughters to achieve their aspirations.

EDITOR'S LETTER

September already, the kids are back at school and I am feeling cold, autumn has well and truly set in! Dark night and dark mornings are just around the corner but we have Halloween and Bonfire night to look forward to. I'm still not going to mention the C word but I can't keep avoiding it, it will be with us before we know it! The card shops have had it covered since last month and tins of Quality Street and cheesy nibbles are on the supermarket shelves.

We have a new shop opening soon in Warsop, formerly Francesca Paige, soon to be a freezer and grocery shop. I wish them every success and hope they stay a while.

GARDENING MONTHLY...

General tasks & garden maintenance

Keep on weeding and have a gentle tidy up in your borders but do try to resist the temptation of a thorough spring clean. Leave seedheads for the birds if you don't want to collect them and as much cover as you can bear for wildlife who will appreciate the winter shelter.

Fallen leaves can be left to rot down (or collected for leaf mould), however diseased material is another matter; make it a priority to clear and burn it to prevent pests and diseases overwintering courtesy of your kind hospitality! Put the rest of your garden rubbish (apart from woody stems) in the compost.

Start your compost

If you haven't already done so, start your compost going by buying a bin or building a partially enclosed area for a heap. It is vital to replace the goodness in soil after a hefty growing season and autumn produces masses of garden waste that will put invaluable organic richness back into the ground for next spring. Add a variety of different materials; spent vegetable and bedding plants, herbaceous leftovers, thatch, moss and cuttings from the lawn, weeds (but not the roots unless they have been through a shredder), hedge clippings, kitchen peelings and tea bags are ideal.

Turn once a week or so if you can and NEVER add diseased or pest-ridden material (such as diseased rose petals - heinous culprits) to your compost - it is a warm and welcoming nirvana for unwelcome guests who will reappear with a vengeance next year! Onto the bonfire with them without a qualm...

Prepare your soil for next year

Your soil is your most precious commodity, so start digging in compost, manure and as much organic matter as you can lay your hands on to replace the goodness in it. The earlier you start the better, especially if your soil is heavy. It can be left in a pretty rough state over the winter when the elements will break the clods down, making spring planting infinitely easier!

Watering

Hardly an issue at the moment! However, do keep an eye on your pots and containers in dry spells and check for wilting leaves before it is too late; all plants that keep their leaves continue to transpire, so should not be allowed to dry out completely. Ensure trees or shrubs planted in the last couple of years on lawns or in areas of rough grass have a circle of clear earth around them - this should be kept clear to allow moisture to get to the roots. Mulching with bark or compost will help.

Planting

With the ideal planting conditions of autumn (warm moist soil), now is the time to plant container grown shrubs, trees, fruit bushes, perennials and bulbs. Even in damp conditions it is worth checking the rootballs of shrubs and trees are adequately moist when planting - heavy rain will not necessarily penetrate a rootball that has been allowed to dry out, so if it feels light, plunge into a bucket of water before planting.

Parks secure Queen Elizabeth II status

To mark last year's Diamond Jubilee celebrations, four parks in the Mansfield District are now designated as Queen Elizabeth II Fields, which means they are now permanently protected so everyone can enjoy them for generations to come.

Outdoor recreational spaces permanently protected Queen Elizabeth II Fields Challenge, operated by Fields in Trust, is a campaign to protect outdoor recreational spaces in communities all across the country as a permanent living legacy of the Diamond Jubilee and London 2012 Olympics.

The sites, which now have Fields in Trust status, are:

- Titchfield Park, Mansfield
- The Carrs Park, Warsop
- Carr Lane Park, Warsop
- Peafield Park, Mansfield Woodhouse

In addition to the Fields in Trust status, ASDA and the Asda Foundation who are the principal partners of Fields in Trust's Queen Elizabeth II Fields Challenge, also donated a set of football goal posts, which have recently been installed on Titchfield Park.

Cllr Philip Shields, Portfolio Holder for the Environment, said: "It is excellent news that we now have four sites in our District protected and retained for future generations. These sites are great examples of how local communities will benefit from successful Diamond Jubilee Project and the 2012 Games."

Bird Notes...

Hello everybody

Autumn is definitely here and I'm sorry but winter will soon follow. Sometimes the weather can be inclement but the bird watching opportunities can be very rewarding!

One of the bonuses of this time of year is that the leaves disappear from the trees and any birds sitting in them will be easily seen. The low sun in the sky and the general lighting conditions can make flying birds more easily identifiable.

I know I'm always mentioning the thrushes at the end of the year (and also at the beginning of it) but making the effort to see these easily viewed birds is well worth it. When you observe the chestnut colour on a Redwing and then gradually notice how beautiful the markings are that it has on its chest and head, and see the robustness and smart plumage of a Fieldfare as a flock sways in the breeze as they sit in a group of bare trees you'll know that little walk you've just done was worth it. Or if you are really lucky – the view of them that you will have will be on your windblown apples in the garden.

Several species of goose make an appearance around now, the familiar Canada goose often makes local movements from one nearby lake to another. The Pink-footed goose can often be seen as flocks travel from sites in East Anglia to the North West coast around Morecombe Bay and vice-versa daily! Other species of goose can ticked off with a shortish trip out in a car or similar vehicular transport. Barnacle, Brent, and Bean also White-fronted and the rarer Lesser White-fronted are all goose species that can be seen with a shortish round trip of a couple or three hundred miles, or so.

Loads of different species can be seen around Warsop, some fields will hold Lapwing and Skylark. A few may even hold Golden plover – a wader that likes to spend its winters picking out worms... nice!

If you haven't already, now is the time to start filling your bird feeders. You may only notice a few individuals at first but later when the winter really comes you will be able to sit in the warmth of your house and see good numbers of a wide range of species. The more different food stuffs and methods of feeding that you use, the larger the number of both birds and species you will attract.

WARSOP

Footpath & Countryside Group

October is the month when many species of fungi are at their most spectacular.

Walk through the open areas within of any of the local woodlands and you should spot a fine range of varieties. Hedge bottoms are another good site for fungi. The fruit in our hedgerows seems to be doing very well this year.

One of the most impressive is the bright pink fruit of the spindle which contrasts with its red leaves at this time of year. Although not as common as hawthorn or blackthorn several spindle bushes can be seen alongside the path between The Carrs and Stonebridge and also on the Hills and Holes.

Hedgerow fruit is a vital source of food for many birds but when it runs out or when the weather turns nasty farmland birds tend to move into our gardens. If you do not feed the birds all year round it is worth filling your bird feeders in early autumn so that the birds will know where to come for a meal and, being selfish, you can guarantee the interest of watching the regular visitors to your garden throughout the winter months.

The dry summer months resulted in low water levels in our rivers and streams. This allowed me to walk along the riverbed whilst checking the spread of Himalayan balsam plants along the waterways. It was striking how clear the water was, a marked contrast to the times when the pits and Pleasley mills were operating. Thirty years ago the colour of the river often depended on what had been discharged into the Meden upstream at Pleasley. Nowadays it is the Himalayan balsam seeds from Pleasley Vale that are causing us problems. This year volunteers have removed a lot of Himalayan balsam plants from upstream along the River Meden around Skegby and Pleasley so hopefully in a few years time we may have this invasive species under control.

By now all of our public footpaths should have received their final grass cut of the year and we can move onto our winter tasks. These include clearing grass and brambles from wildlife sites, coppicing young trees and managing hedgerows once the birds have consumed any fruit. Get in touch if you would like to join us for a couple of hours on a Thursday morning

Our next Footpaths Group walk will be on Saturday 19th October. The destination has yet to be decided but we are planning to meet at Warsop Library at 10am. Contact us if you would like to join us or would like more details.

COMMUNITY REPAINT SCHEME

Nottinghamshire County Council run a Community RePaint scheme at Beeston, Calverton, Newark and Warsop Recycling Centres.

Public donations of paint accepted at these sites are checked by the site staff and any tins that contain good quality reusable paint are put aside in a designated shelved paint cabin.

This reusable paint is then given away free of charge, throughout the year, to community and voluntary groups registered on the scheme. The paint cabins at Beeston, Newark and Warsop started collecting paint in March and are filling up well with reusable paint so we're inviting groups in your area to apply so that they can get their hands on some free paint.

Over 100 groups have received around 12,000 litres of reusable paint so far but we're always keen to help even more.

For further information about the scheme downloadable application form visit: <http://www.nottinghamshire.gov.uk/living/waste/recyclingadvice/communityrepaint/>

We're also opening these schemes to members of the public but this is only at special open evenings. For more details visit: <http://www.nottinghamshire.gov.uk/living/waste/recyclingadvice/communityrepaint/paintopendays/>

Your First Watercolour Painting - by Matthew Palmer

Get ready for painting: what you need (all available to buy, with home delivery from: www.watercolour.tv)

Watercolour paper stuck to a board using masking tape, a large and small watercolour round brush, 4 colours, ultramarine blue, yellow ochre, alizarin crimson & burnt sienna, waterpot and finally a mixing palette.

First of all stick your watercolour paper a board, using masking tape. Now to mask off the area that is going to be snow (the snow is the white paper). To this I'll simply add a strip of masking tape, about two inches up the paper.

Starting the painting:

The first job is to mix the colours, mixing is straight forward, think of watercolour paint like dilute pop! it needs water adding to it, so you simply lift the paint from the blob in you palette and mix with water.

You'll need to mix 3 colours. colour 1- french ultramarine blue, colour 2 - alizarin crimson, colour 3- yellow ochre. and also a strong mix of a dark grey (mix French Ultramarine Blue with Burnt Sienna. make sure this is a stronger, thicker mix than the other 3). Tip- when mixing thick colours use more paint than water in your palette.

1- Now the colours are mixed I can start to wet the paper, this is the most important part of this technique, please take you time with this. Use a large number 12 brush and move the board around so the water on the paper reflects the light. This allows you to see any bits of the paper you have missed. do this all the way down to your tape line. Tip- don't over soak the paper, try not to add too much water. (note, the paper may start to slightly bend or cockle, this will flatten when dry).

2- Right, lets get painting, I have to be conscious that the paper is drying every second so timing is important. I'll start by painting the lighter colours the yellow ochre, then the alizarin crimson and finally at the top of the paper I'll paint in the french ultramarine blue.

Technique- I'm swirling the paint on the paper with a number 12 brush, mixing the colours on the paper as I go along (see images).

3- Now, while the paper is still wet or damp I want to add a line of distant trees, I'll use the stronger dark grey colour for this. I need to use a smaller brush too, my number 6 brush. working along the horizon line (were the tape is) I will simply paint vertical lines random in height about one inch tall (see image).

Now the point is the paint goes into the wet area, the sky you have just painted is still damp so the paint will bleed or spread, giving a distant out of focus effect. Keep working over the tops of these as the paper starts to dry, giving some darker trees and some lighter ones. Tip- watch out for blobs and puddles of paint gathering along the masking tape edge (see photo). soak these up with a damp brush, just run it over the puddles.

This now needs to dry out (time for brew?)

4- The bottom of the painting, the snowy area, you can really do as you please there, I have simply painted in a basic path, by using a pale shadow colour. Tip- a good shadow colour is a mixture of french ultramarine and a touch of alizarin crimson, but only a touch. you don't want purple, just a darker shade of blue. Make sure this colour has plenty of water with it, nice and pale.

First of all, nice and steady remove the masking tape, across the horizon line. this leaves a blank area ready for you to be creative! I have simply painted a line of the shadow colour along the foreground, all the way across the paper, then using a damp brush (not too wet), blend the colour towards the back trees. Use the large number 12 brush for this. Allow to dry and have a go at adding the path with the same shadow colour and a smaller brush. As you do this think about the perspective of the path, see how it is wider in the foreground. Allow to dry again and use what's left of the dark strong grey tree colour to add a touch of detail. Bits of dirt popping up through the snow. GIVE IT AGO AND DON'T BE AFRAID TO GET STARTED. See you next month.

Rotary Club news update by: Steve Garner

For information about The Rotary Club visit WWW.Warsop-rotary.org.uk

The Rotary Club met at the Hostess Restaurant on Thursday 5th Sept. The meeting was chaired by SVP John Welsh, with 18 members present.

Speaker for the evening was Pat Ward who gave an interesting and informative talk by telling various humorous tales of working with animals.

Pat runs Prop Farm Ltd with her husband Les and loans animals from her farm for use in films and television. She often invites the actors to visit the farm in order to meet the animals with whom they will be working, these have included such names as Trevor Eve, Francesca Annis, Michael Elphick who came to ride the horse that would feature in Boon & Tara Fitzgerald who learned to ride side-saddle.

On Saturday 14th September at Teversal Manor Rooms, the club together with the Inner Wheel Club of Warsop are holding a Pimms and Promises afternoon to raise funds for both clubs.

The Limestone House 'Coffee shop' has changed: it is now known as the 'Memory Lane Café' and offers a more varied menu for the Community and Visitors. The name of the Café depicts a link to memories of the past, including the recent past, as well as links to memorable people or events connected with Elmtun and Creswell and the surrounding locality.

An area in Limestone House will be dedicated to celebrating the memories of people and events and the tributes will change every 6 weeks.

The Friends of Thynghowe

Thynghowe and the forgotten heritage of Sherwood

You are welcome to come along to our AGM on Thursday 24th October. This year we are holding it at Perlethorpe Village Hall which is quite appropriate as much of the site of Thynghowe lies on Thoresby land.

There will be a report on the latest developments in our research into the past of Thynghowe and Birklands. We will also preview the events we have planned for the coming year. There will be a chance to ask questions and have a good historical chat. If you wish to become a member of The Friends of Thynghowe the current fee is only £5 a year.

We may also reflect on our Heritage Lottery funded project that has finished recently. During the eighteen months of the project we held 5 volunteer workshops, led 2 walks through the Forest to Thynghowe, held 4 surveying events in the woodlands, took our display stand to 3 events, gave 13 talks to various groups, organised 2 displays at Mansfield Museum, welcomed 5 school groups to the Forest, produced several publications, liaised with many experts over the interpretation and management of the heritage sites in Birklands and organised the Spring Thing re-enactment weekend at Sherwood Pines. We are very grateful to all the folk who supported these events and to the many professionals who gave us the benefit of their expertise and helped us expand our understanding of the past of our area. The support we receive from the Forestry Commission is vital and much appreciated. You may think that we now deserve a rest but we are already planning the next stage of the project!

WARSOP MENS PROBUS CLUB

The club is a long established luncheon club meeting once a month on a Wednesday at the Parish Centre.

The club has a programme of interesting talks, discussions and the occasional outing. Use is made of the Stable Bar before sitting down to a well prepared and reasonably priced meal.

THE CLUB WELCOMES NEW MEMBERS

If you are interested in becoming a member please telephone:

John Hosty (Sec) 01623 467590
or Hugh Ashton (Pres) 01623 846748

Warsop Mens Probud

President Hugh Ashton welcomed 30 members and guests back after their summer break at the Parish Centre Warsop.

The speaker was Mr John Smith, assisted by his wife, who is a member of the Warsop Camera Club. His talk was about the Birds of Britain illustrated by superb pictures he had taken. His knowledge was prolific of each of the many images he had taken with the talk lasting one hour.

After a comfort break in the Stable Bar all the members enjoyed lunch before the meeting was closed at 2 PM.

Hugh Ashton

Warsop Inner Wheel

Emma Vizor from Bluebell Wood Hospice was our speaker at the Inner Wheel Club of Warsop on Wednesday 4th September at the Hostess Restaurant Sookholme. She spoke about the many ways families can be supported through the difficult periods they face. Bluebell Wood Hospice is President Sue Lunn's chosen charity for this year.

On August 13th Overseas Organiser Jan Strachen held her first Knit and Knatter of the year at her home. It was well attended and everyone enjoyed home made cakes.

A guided tour around Laxton was organized on August 14th where the medieval system of 'open field strip farming' is still practised. The walk was led by Stuart Rose and lunch at the Dovecote Inn followed.

Julia Wright - Club Correspondent.

SWIMMING

There has never been a better time for your children to take to the water and learn to swim, or just polish up on existing swimming skills!

Did you know that more than 11 million people swim each year, however despite this rise in popularity, currently 1 in 5 children leave school unable to swim! Learning to swim has many benefits for children. It's great for their health and well-being, it enhances their self-esteem and importantly teaches them confidence in and respect for the water. Meden, Rebecca Adlington and Water Meadows offer swimming courses and lessons which are aligned to the National Plan for Teaching Swimming (NPTS) which are produced by the Amateur Swimming Association (ASA) – the National Governing Body for swimming.

Our qualified swimming teachers take all pupils through an exciting and safe lesson programme, teaching them valuable water skills and techniques that will stay with them for life. Swimmers will also be grouped amongst other pupils of similar age and ability, to ensure the experience is an enjoyable one.

For full details of courses available and prices visit our website or you can call one of our friendly swimming co-ordinators to discuss your individual requirements.

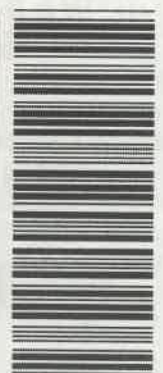

We offer a convenient monthly Direct Debit payment option that includes 45 weeks of swimming lessons as well as UNLIMITED FREE swimming at any time, for as long as the pupil is on the course, all from as little as £17.50 per month. Other payment options are also available.

As a new pupil, and to welcome you onto our swimming lesson programme, we would like to offer you your first month absolutely FREE!

THE ROYAL BRITISH LEGION

I thought as we are just about into our Poppy Appeal fortnight leading up to Remembrance, I ought to explain where your money goes and who it goes to.

Our beneficiaries (those eligible for help) are anyone currently serving, or are ex-service, their spouse/partner and dependent children. Our help is not limited to those that served at a particular time and is available for the rest of their life.

1. The Battle Back Centre (Lilleshall)

The Royal British Legion is providing £27 million to establish and operate The Battle Back Centre (Lilleshall) as part of its commitment to support wounded, injured and sick Service personnel. The Centre is part of the MOD's Defence Recovery Capability programme.

2. Recovery centres for serving personnel

Personnel Recovery Centres (PRCs), form a major part of the MOD led Defence Recovery Capability. This initiative is delivered in partnership with The Royal British Legion and Help for Heroes and with support from other Service charities and organisations. It is designed to assist wounded, injured and sick Service personnel to recover and either return to duty or, with support, move successfully into civilian life.

What they do The aim of the Defence Recovery Capability is to ensure that wounded, injured and sick Service personnel have the support, facilities, time and space to help them to recover and either return to Service or make a successful transition to civilian life and a new career. The PRCs contribute to this goal by:

- improving confidence and self-esteem;
- providing medical care;
- encouraging physical fitness;
- focusing on the individual with tailored recovery programmes;
- reskilling and training; and
- developing life skills through practical projects, activities and outings.

Although the average length of a stay is around four months, everyone recovers at different rates and in different ways.

3. Anyone who has suffered an injury or illness due to Service

The Royal British Legion can help with War pensions advice or the Armed Forces Compensation Scheme. We can also help with disputed compensation awards or with legal claims for compensation.

4. Inquest Advice

We provide the families of those that have died in Service with free, independent and expert legal advice and assistance.

5. Benefits and Money Advice

Discreet, impartial and non-judgemental advice about how to maximise your income by claiming the benefits and tax credits you're entitled to and managing your debts - all completely confidential and free of charge.

6. Help with disability Disability Living Allowance, Attendance Allowance, Carer's Allowance, and Employment and Support Allowance (this was introduced in 2008 to replace Incapacity Benefit).

Your illness or injury does not have to have been caused by Service, and it could be psychological or physical.

7. Immediate needs grants

If you're going through a crisis and need help to meet unexpected expenses, the Legion might be able to help you. Each year our Immediate Needs Grants Scheme helps thousands of people through emergencies by providing small hardship grants.

8. Jobs and careers

Adjusting to civilian life after a career in the Armed Forces can be very difficult, and although ex-Service personnel are often very disciplined, determined and great at teamwork, finding a job can be one of the hardest parts of leaving Service. The unique challenges faced by Service families can also make it difficult for partners and dependants of serving personnel to start and maintain a career.

9. Help with starting a business

'Be the Boss' is primarily a business support service. Whilst availability and access to funding from 'Be the Boss' is a necessary element for some clients, the majority access the scheme for training and mentoring. Our focus for the scheme is still to assist ex-Service personnel in equipping themselves with the skills and tools to run a business.

10. Free Handy Van service

We have a dedicated and trusted team of experienced handypersons who are fully trained to carry out low-level but high impact maintenance in your home, such as: Changing light bulbs and tap washers; Putting up shelves, curtain rails and grab rails; Fitting smoke alarms and carbon monoxide detectors; Fitting and changing door locks and other security features; Building access ramps and storage sheds to house a Legion provided Electrically Propelled Vehicle; and Installing care phones.

11. Want to get away from it all?

The Legion offers much-needed breaks to ex-Service and serving personnel and their families.

12. Care Homes

A major part of our welfare work is to provide short and long term care for serving and ex-Service people and their dependants in Royal British Legion Care Homes around the country. Our aim is to make the lives of those who stay there as comfortable as possible.

13. Want to know more?

Visit <http://www.britishlegion.org.uk/can-we-help>

In addition we offer comradeship and fun at our branch meetings. We have a good mix of men and women and you don't need to be ex-service to join. Come and visit us!

Warsop – My Kind of Town

A quiet town with a welcoming heart,
Where a good neighbour is also a friend,
Stallholders ply goods at the Thursday mart,
Enticing people to turn up and spend.

Our summer carnival with fairground and rides,
Local archers show their skill with the bow,
Stalls, food and music with much more besides,
A trophy for the best float in the show.

Rolling green Carrs, an oasis of space,
Enjoy a stroll by the River Meden,
A delightful, serene, unspoilt place,
Our peaceful, local Garden of Eden.

To absorb its beauty stay for a look,
Around this gateway to woodland and park,
With a direct line to the Domesday Book,
And Robin Hood's outlaws making their mark.

Explore the Church of Saint Peter and Paul,
A sentinel overlooking the town,
Its doors always open to one and all,
This medieval jewel in Warsop's crown.

Pride underpins this town of tradition,
Proud heritage, proud people, proud ambition.

Peter Birchenall

WARSOP POLICE UPDATE

I would like to start this article by official welcoming our new neighbourhood warden to our team. Stephen Davis (not the snooker player from the 80's) has joined us as a brand new addition to Mansfield District Council's community safety team.

Steve has taken on his new role having worked for MDC for the last 6 years in the capacity of a homeless support officer working with vulnerable adults in the Mansfield region. Steve has taken over the role that Phil Bennett undertook and will be working closely with resident warden Geoff Lomas in the Warsop, Carr's and Netherfield area. Steve can be contacted on telephone number 07973543786.

So, with the arrival of Steve Warsop Safer Neighbourhood Team consist of the following. PC 242 Wayne Bennett as the parish Beat Manager, PCso's Dee Eyre, Katherine Darby and Sharon Brown and Neighbourhood Wardens Geoff Lomas and Stephen Davis. So as you can see the area is starting to get the level of Policing that this community deserves and the team will work hard to make sure that people can feel safe whilst living or visiting the area.

The wardens would also like me to remind the public that they are receiving complaints from residents and council employees that some people in the parish are not disposing of their domestic waste correctly. They are continually finding bin liners full of house waste and animal faeces as they clean out the council street bins. It appears that household members are not using their own wheelie bins or the council tips to dispose of their waste.

For some reason people are using the fixed bins on the street to dump large amounts of waste. The street cleaners then have to spend more time emptying these bins and having to be subjected to spending hours with disgusting smells of animal faeces during their working day. I am also informed that the Neighbourhood Wardens can issue fixed penalty tickets up to £100 for any person found to be guilty of this act.

Also can we remind people not to put out fridges or freezers on the street for the scrap men as they do not take them anymore because of the foam in them, all the scrap men do is take the copper and pump out the back and leave them on the streets, therefore it is classed as fly tipping.

On a different note. I will be running the Robin Hood Half Marathon at the end of September for a charity called 'put things right' which has risen from the death of 2 teenage boys that were killed in Hucknall during the summer months of 2012. This charity is aimed at gathering funds to promote road safety in schools and to stress the importance of wearing protective equipment whilst riding on the roads. They also aim to lobby parliament to attempt to make it law that cyclist must wear a helmet when riding on the road. This organisation is close to my heart as one of the children that lost his life, Harrison Carlin, is a very close friend of my family and the loss of this young life has been a very difficult and trying time for everyone that knew him.

I have not placed this on my article to get everyone to rush for their purses or wallets; I have added this to ask parents to ensure that your children are safe when the cycle on or near the roads. Make sure that they wear a correctly fitted helmet and are very aware of the dangers and how to ride on the road correctly. So, if at the end of September you see me struggling to walk around the streets of this community please feel free to stop and give me a lift.....13 miles is enough for me.

If anyone would like to see more of what 'put things right' are trying to achieve you can visit the website www.putthingsright.org.uk

concert by

After a flurry of concerts in September, unusually we have no engagements for October. However we do have lots for November and December and I will put details in those newsletters.

Rehearsals go on as usual and we have lots of new music for our audiences. We shall be getting out the Christmas music very soon. As regular readers know, I love Christmas music, perhaps because we can only sing it for such a short season.

We are losing one of our bass singers. Robert is off to University and will be really missed, not only for his voice, but for his great personality. We all wish him well and every success in his University life.

As usual "unusually" the sun is shining and the garden calls. To all other garden nerds, I hope your crops have been bumper ones, and with expectations of a glorious Autumn.

Our contact details are as usual via Ray Lockwood on tel. 01636 525312 He would be delighted to hear from you.

DANGEROUS SHORTCUT TO CLOSE IN CUCKNEY

An inquiry is to be held as to whether Bakers Lane (a shortcut which has been used for years) in the vicinity of Cuckney School, should be made into a one-way street.

The junction between Bakers Lane and School Lane has now accumulated six known traffic accidents, two of these accidents were local residents colliding with other motorists.

The other four accidents all occurred during the 'school run' and could have caused the death of a pedestrian. Cuckney Parish Council are very worried this situation may deteriorate with grave consequences in the future, and they have applied to Nottinghamshire Highways to create a one-way system from School Lane towards the A632, Langwith Road.

The hand-out delivered to the residents of Cuckney on Monday the 19th August 2013, requested either support or objections, to this decision in writing, stating reasons, and to be handed in at the Cuckney Village stores and addressed to The Cuckney Parish Council, to arrive not later than the 2nd of September 2013.
