The Lord's Prayer

All:
Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Minister:
Conscious of the sacrifice of others let us remember our shortcomings and ask for God's pardon and peace.
God our Father we ask your forgiveness for our failure to appreciate the good things we possess, our Freedom, our homes and our Families.

Lord in your Mercy

All:
Hear our prayer.

Minister:
For our failure to use the gifts and skills you have given us.
Our minds to seek your truth, our hearts to love and heal and our wills to work for good.

Lord in your mercy

All:
Hear our prayer.

Minister:
Merciful Lord, Grant to your faithful people pardon and peace, that we may be cleansed from all our sins and serve you with a quiet mind through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All:
Amen.

Abide with Me

Abide with me, fast falls the eventide
The darkness deepens Lord, with me abide
When other helpers fail and comforts flee
Help of the helpless, oh, abide with me

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away
Change and decay in all around I see
O Thou who changest not, abide with me

I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness
Where is death's sting? Where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me

Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes
Shine through the gloom and point me to the skies
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee
In life, in death, o Lord, abide with me

Royal British Legion Representative:
The Legion of the living salutes the Legion of the dead.

All:
We will not break faith with you.

Royal British Legion Representative:
They shall grow not old as we that are left grow old
Age shall not weary them nor the years condemn:
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We will remember them.

All:
We will remember them.

THE LAST POST

THE TWO MINUTE SILENCE

When you go home, tell them of us and say,
For your tomorrow, we gave our today.

Let us commemorate and commend to our Heavenly Father
Those who died for our freedom and future.

The Laying of the Wreaths

Names of the fallen

During this time we traditionally remember the fallen of both World Wars but let us also reflect on the loss of countless other lives during conflicts since 1945.

Remembrance transcends all boundaries so let us stand together and reflect the price of freedom. That price is still being paid, more than12,000 British Servicemen and women have been killed or injured on active service since 1945. Apart from 1968 there has not been a single year since the start of the 20th Century when a British Serviceman or woman has not died as a result of hostility.

We also remember those lost in action in far flung places such as Korea, Northern Ireland, Malaya, The Falklands, Palestine, Iraq, Afghanistan, Cyprus, Aden, Egypt, The Balkans, The Gulf, Yangtze River, Oman & Dhofar, Suez, Borneo, Kenya and Sierra Leone. We still face conflict in helping to combat world terrorism, so let us also remember those who are engaged in that war and pray that peace is restored.

The Memorial Of The Dead

Minister:
Remember, O Lord, all these, the brave and the true, who have died the death of honour and are departed in the hope of the Resurrection to Eternal life: especially the Officers and Members of our Sea Land and Air Forces who gave their lives in the cause of Freedom and Justice. May they remain in your eternal presence. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All:
Amen.
